Bell-Vogel Rites Said

Miss Charlene Elizabeth Vogel of Eugene and William Eugene Bell of Springfield were married, Saturday, May 29, at an 8 p.m. ceremony in First Congregational Church, Eugene. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Vogel and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Bell of Springfield. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Wesley Goodson Nicholson, pastor.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her white bridal gown was made with a bodice of imported lace, its sweetheart neckline studded with seed pearls and sequins, and a satin skirt with a long train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion had a half-cap of illusion trimmed with lace applique, and seed pearl embroidery. She wore a treasured heirloom, an engagement ring 74 years old belonging to her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Lucien Ward. Other jewelry included a pearl necklace and pearl earrings. Her flowers were pink rosebuds and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Miss Beverly Barker of Eugene was maid of honor. Her gown was of camellia pink tulle with lighter pink nylon tulle headpiece. Miss Roberta Knott and Miss Rita Page, both of Eugene, were bridesmaids. Their dresses were identical to the gown of the maid of honor but in lighter shade, with matching headpieces. Barbara Pitchford was flower girl with a dress of the same shade as the bridesmaids'. Randy LeRoy was ringbearer.

The bride's mother wore a gown of Alencon lace trimmed with rhinestones and with a nylon tulle skirt, a matching headpiece and an orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a dress of dusty rose lace over tulle, with matching headpiece. She also wore an orchid corsage.

Robert Bell, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Larry Bell, cousin of the groom, and Robert LeRoy.

The chapel was decorated with baskets of pink snapdragons, stock, pink peonies and pink tapers in candelabra. Pink peonies with pink bows marked the pews. James Kays sang "With These Hands" and "Because." Miss Ruth Ownbey accompanied the soloist and played the wedding music.

Candlelighters were Mrs. Karl Wise and Miss Jean Wildish.

A reception in the Wheeler room followed the wedding. Mrs. Hugh S. Bettis, aunt of the bride, cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. Earl James, another aunt. Mrs. Richard Cook was at the punch bowl and Mrs. Gilbert Lescares poured coffee. Assisting with the serving were Miss Caroline Hurd, Miss Margaret Tyler, Miss Micky Simmons, and Miss Beverly Ream. Miss Karen Butler had the guest book. Baskets of pink flowers decorated the room.

For her going-away costume the bride wore a gray and white suit with matching hat and white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

After a wedding trip to British Columbia and Timberline Lodge, the couple now is at home at 311 Bailey Lane, Eugene.

Mrs. Charles E. Vogel, assisted by her twin sister, Mrs. Hugh S. Bettis, entertained with a buffet supper at the Vogel home following the rehearsal for wedding. Members of the bridal party were honored.

Ladies of Elks Will Meet to Play

Ladies of the Elks will meet for 12:15 potluck luncheon Thursday at the Elks Temple. The regular business meeting and cards will follow.

MRS. WILLIAM EUGENE BELL (Charlene Elizabeth Vogel) was married recently in First Congregational Church. The couple now is at home in Eugene.

Bible Students Say Vows

COTTAGE GROVE—More than 200 guests attended the wedding June 5 of Miss Neila Richardson and Duane Obenchain at the Church of Christ. The double-ring ceremony was read at 7:30 p.m. by Sherwood Smith, pastor. Baskets of white stock and pink peonies, with white candelabra, decorated the altar.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson of Lorane Route Cottage Grove. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Guy Obenchain of Boise, Idaho.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with full skirt and short train. The sweetheart neckline of the fitted bodice was made with lace insert. The gown was made for the bride by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mark Obenchain of Boise. A seed pearl tiara held her fingertip veil. The bridal bouquet was a pink orchid with shower of white stephanotis.

Mrs. Raphael Aubrey was matron-of-honor for her sister. She wore a dark orchid tulle gown made with fitted bodice and bouffant net-over-tulle skirt. She carried a bouquet of purple sweet peas centered with white rosebuds. Bridesmaids were Miss Ethel Richardson, sister of the bride, and Miss Harriet Daggett of Mitchell, Neb. Their gowns were identical in style to the honor attendant's. Miss Richardson's was of light orchid, her flowers of orchid and pink sweet peas and white roses; Miss Daggett's of pink, with bouquet of pink sweet peas with white roses.

Flower girl was seven-year-old Andrea Powell, a niece of the bride. Her gown was floor-length, light-orchid tulle and she wore a coronet of sweet peas. Rose petals were carried in a basket made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ed Powell.

Candlelighters were the bride's sister, Mrs. Naomi Richardson, and cousin, Miss Barbara McReynolds.

Mark Obenchain of Boise was best man for his brother and Raphael Aubrey and Ed Klor of Eugene were ushers. Roy Aubrey sang "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer" preceding the ceremony.

The reception took place in the church parlors. Two aunts of the bride, Mrs. Dorwin Powell and Mrs. Dean Powell of Myrtle Creek, served the cake. Mrs. James Hemenway and Mrs. Raymond Thies served punch and Mrs. George Crosby and Mrs. Kenneth Ottinger poured coffee. The guest book was in the charge of Miss Garnet Beach, and Mrs. Robert Beach had the gift book. The rooms were decorated with pink rhododendron.

The bride is a graduate of Cottage Grove Union High School with the class of '52 and has attended the Boise Bible college for two years. The bridegroom is a student at Boise Bible college and is a student minister at New Plymouth, near Boise.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with the orchid from her wedding bouquet for their return trip to Boise. After a short stay at Sun Valley, the couple will be at home at 5706 Linwood Drive, Boise.

Coburg Church Wedding Scene

COBURG—Miss Leta Rae Crook and Harold Haag of Alvadore were married in the Coburg Church of Christ May 22, at an 8 p.m. candlelight service. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Crook, formerly of Coburg, now at Fairbanks, Alaska. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Peter Haag of Alvadore.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Frank L. Betzer, pastor.

The bride was given in marriage by Harold Elwood, close friend of the family, and Mrs. Elwood took the place of the bride's mother, since her parents are in Alaska.

The bride wore a pink linen faille suit with white accessories. She carried a white Bible with an arrangement of pink rosebuds and stephanotis resting on it.

Miss Mardene Weinrich, cousin of the bride, was her attendant, wearing a steel gray suit and corsage of pink roses.

Lyle Zink, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was his best man. Ushers were Clifford Stapleton and Donald Powell.

The chapel was decorated with calla lilies, ferns and mixed spring blossoms, with white tapers in candelabra.

Jerry Reynolds sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me" preceding the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" after the pledging of the vows. Miss Thelma Cross accompanied the soloist and played wedding music.

After a short wedding trip, the couple now is at home at 2819 Hilyard St., Eugene.
