Miss Seger May Bride

Baskets of mixed snapdragons, carnations and Dutch iris, with candelabra and white candles, decorated the altar of First Methodist Church May 22, for the wedding of Miss Dorothy Mildred Seger to Richard Campbell. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Seger of Eugene, formerly from Ethan, South Dakota. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Campbell of Eugene. The Rev. S. Raynor Smith officiated at the 7:30 p.m. candlelight service. James Kays was the soloist, singing "Because," "You'll Never Walk Alone" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Robert W. Wilson was the organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess-style ivory satin gown with a high round neck and long, fitted sleeves. Her skirt had a long train. Her fingertip-length illusion veil was fastened to a pearl-studded tiara. She carried a bouquet of tiny red rosebuds and white stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Ben C. Smith of Eugene, sister of the bride, was matron of honor in a lime green, floor-length dress, made with lace bodice and tulle overskirt, over taffeta. In her hair she wore a coronet of white shattered carnations and she carried a nosegay of red rosebuds and stephanotis. The bridesmaids, Miss Gerri Campbell, sister of the groom, and Miss Margaret Seger, sister of the bride, wore matching floor-length gowns of pink and blue tulle over taffeta, and carried nosegays of pink and yellow carnations. They had coronets of matching shattered carnations in their hair.

Candles were lighted by Miss Darlene Campbell, sister of the groom, and Miss Karen Lee Ashley, niece of the bride.

Hobart Campbell Jr. was best man for his brother. Ushers were George Campbell, another brother, and Ronny Cameron.

Following the wedding approximately 150 guests were received in the church parlors. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. John Frances White and Mrs. Karl Rosen. Table decorations also were done by Mrs. White. Mrs. Robert Marr poured the coffee and Miss Betty Jean Rosen served the punch and had charge of the guest book.

For their wedding trip to California and the Oregon Coast, the bride wore a rust-colored suit with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple will make their home in Eugene, where both are employed.

Those attending the ceremony from afar were Mrs. Sona Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bowers, Mrs. Ray Graham and Cheryl, all from Seattle; Mrs. Nellie Bowers from Nampa, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keilhorn, McMinnville; Miss Helen Keilhorn, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eriksen, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Eriksen, Bobby Eriksen and Miss Lurlyn Preston, Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Raney, Sweet Home; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hudson and family, Mrs. Kay Hudson from Newark, Calif.
