MR. AND MRS. JOEL J. PYNCH (Yvonne Lois Ware) were married May 25 in Cottage Grove, and made their wedding trip to New York City, where he took ship for two year's duty in Germany in the U. S. Army. Mrs. Pynch will remain in Cottage Grove.

Pair Married, Groom Goes Overseas

COTTAGE GROVE—In a setting of white gladiolus and white stock in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church May 25, Miss Yvonne Lois Ware became the bride of Joel J. Pynch. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Ware and Mr. Pynch is the son of Mrs. O. E. Lionberger, all of Cottage Grove. The Rev. Carl Mai officiated at the nuptial Mass.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown with full satin and net skirt. The bodice and long, pointed sleeves were fashioned from Chantilly lace. Her lace tiara held a three-tiered fingertip veil and she carried white gardenias and lily-of-the-valley. The pearl necklace she wore was a gift from the bridegroom.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Al Wakefield, sister of the bridegroom, who wore an orchid organza gown in ballerina length with matching hat and shoes, and carried a nosegay of orchid sweet peas.

Bridesmaids, Miss Rowene Miller of Portland and Miss Laneta Michael, were gowned like the matron in yellow and pale green. They carried nosegays of yellow sweet peas.

Best man for his brother was James Pynch and ushers were Robert J. Stapleton and Guy Leabo. Another brother of the bridegroom, Wendell Pynch, and Danny Sedergren were altar boys.

A reception took place afterward at the home of the bride's parents, with Mrs. Alton Woodard, Mrs. H. E. Eakin and Mrs. W. H. Earl pouring. Mrs. Robert Stapleton cut the cake and Miss Pat Kent, Mrs. Loren Carver, Mrs. Jack Kelly and Mrs. R. L. Sedergren assisted.

For going away, the bride wore a navy blue suit with poudre blue accessories and a white orchid corsage. Following a wedding trip to New York City, Mrs. Pynch will return to her home in Cottage Grove. The bridegroom will sail for Germany where he will spend two years in the U.S. Army.
