

Border Activity Hints Rebellion

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP) — Armed Guatemalan exiles were reported massing along their jittery homeland's frontier with Honduras amid indications Friday may be D-day for a revolt against President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman's Communist-influenced regime.

The belief stemmed in part from Guatemalan Ambassador Amadeo Chinchilla, who said he had received reports that resistance forces would launch a rebellion Friday.

Reports from censorship-blanketed Guatemala said authorities there were readying a massive public demonstration Friday. Ostensibly this was to show solid support for the government, but observers here also interpreted it as a possible move to mobilize pro-Arbenz forces in case of a revolt.

Senate Passes Military Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration claimed a new legislative victory Friday with Senate passage of a cutback military budget of 29 billion dollars.

The Senate shouted approval of the House-passed measure late Thursday after voting 50 to 38 to defeat a Democratic move to restore two Army divisions scheduled to be eliminated because of reduced funds.

Forty Republicans and 10 Democrats teamed up to block the measure, removing the last remaining danger to the measure which fulfills most of the administration's requests. Minor differences now will be ironed out by Senate-House conferees.

The bill, as approved by the Senate after only two days of debate, provides $29,216,584,488 in new funds for the military services in the coming fiscal year. This is $600 million less than originally requested by the administration. The administration had trimmed its request after the budget was slashed $1,200,000,000 by the House.

With passage of the defense bill, making up half of the administration's budget in the coming fiscal year, Congress is well ahead of its normal pace in passing the money bills. The House has now passed 10 of the 11 regular appropriation bills the Senate seven. Two have gone to the White House.

The only Senate fight on the defense budget came over Democratic objections that the administration was gambling with national security by cutting military funds $5,500,000,000 below last year's level. Virtually all the cut falls on the Army, which will lose two of its 20 divisions this spring, and two more in the coming fiscal year.

Movie Star's Divorce Trial Nears Finish

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — The divorce trial of handsome Jess Barker, seeking half of Susan Hayward's wealth, may end late Friday.

Superior Judge Herbert V. Walker presumably will take the case under advisement for time to study the testimony.

Barker, in contesting his movie queen wife's action, contends he is entitled to half their community property. Attorneys stipulated that Miss Hayward's assets total $283,319 plus a million-dollar film contract paying her $5,000 a week.

An accountant, Miss Elva McGuire, testified Thursday that in 1951 Barker earned $318.75 while Miss Hayward grossed $163,692.05, and in 1952 Barker earned $348.50 and Miss Hayward, $210,376.50. Barker testified he has earned $1,500 in the last 18 months and his bank account totals $5,000.

Miss Hayward already has offered him $100,000, payable in the form of alimony over a 10-year period. He spurned that offer although his counsel said the figure would be acceptable in a lump sum as community property.

The mathematical testimony followed testimony by Barker that Miss Hayward once put out a lit cigarette by rubbing it in his eye.

Barker also denied that he held his wife's head under water as charged earlier by the actress. "I merely dropped her in the pool," he stated.

A dramatic moment in the trial came when Hahn asked the actor if he were still in love with his wife. He looked straight at his wife, who cast her eyes downward, and replied: "Yes."

4 Puerto Ricans Wait Sentencing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lolita Lebron, convicted with three men for wounding five congressmen but facing a lighter sentence, swore Friday she will continue to fight for Puerto Rican independence.

"What I thought was the end may be the beginning," she replied from her cell to written questions from newsmen.

"If all my blood had spilled it would have splashed away decadence and inertia . . . and I hope no more of my people will have to die. My country is going to be free."

The slight, 34-year-old brunette, much of the fire apparently gone out of her when the two-week trial ended Thursday, was acquitted of five charges of intent to kill. She had been found guilty Wednesday of five counts of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Her three fellow members of the radical Nationalist party of Puerto Rico—Rafael Cancel Miranda, 25, Andres Figueroa Cordero, 29, and Irving Flores Rodriguez, 28—were convicted Wednesday on all 10 counts.

Thus, they face possible maximum penalties of 75 years in prison apiece, including concurrent sentences for intent to kill and assault with a dangerous weapon. Mrs. Lebron, convicted only on the latter charge, could get no more than 50 years in prison.

Judge Alexander Holtzoff postponed sentencing pending a report on the defendants' background.

While waiting for the verdict, Mrs. Lebron said she hoped the jury would find her "guilty as they found the boys."

But the jury apparently was impressed with her testimony that she fired her bullets into the ceiling of the House chamber, not toward the floor on which some 200 legislators were.

Cancel, Figueroa and Flores testified, as did Mrs. Lebron, that none of them intended to kill anybody. They said they wanted only to dramatize their demands for Puerto Rican independence.
