He Sleeps like a Top

Quieted His Acid Stomach

... longer does he lie awake because of excess stomach acid. No more does he toss and turn with uneasy, restless feeling. He takes 1 or 2 Tums as a "nightcap" before he goes to bed. Then he sleeps like a top—wakes up fresh "rarin' to go." Always keep Tums handy to counteract gas, indigestion, acid indigestion. Get a box to have on hand tonight.

Eugene Women See Lebanon Queen Crowned

Two Eugene women were in Lebanon recently to attend coronation ceremonies of Queen Phyllis Greer of the 42nd annual Strawberry Festival. Mrs. Walter Lenhard and Mrs. James Tolbert were among a group of past queens who were honored at the crowning ceremony.

As Queen Alice Bayne, Mrs. Lenhard served in 1935, Queen Nadine Nichols, now Mrs. Tolbert, was crowned in 1938.

Also taking part was a former Eugenean, Mrs. S. C. Myers (Miss Helen M. Cherry) society editor of the Lebanon Express, who was chairman of the past queen's committee.

State DAR Chairmen Attend Board Meet

State Chairmen Mrs. Arthur Quackenbush and Mrs. Harvard C. Moore attended the first executive board meeting of Daughters of the American Revolution Monday at Champoug state park. Presiding at the meeting was Mrs. Albert Powers of Coos Bay, state regent.

Chairmen from the Oregon Lewis and Clark Chapter who attended were Mrs. Jessie Prosser Stewart, regent, Mrs. W. C. West, Mrs. R. A. Bowers, Mrs. Frederick Davis, and Mrs. Maud Woodyard.

This was the first meeting to be held in the new Curator's Cottage which was dedicated on Flag Day, 1953.

Mrs. Bolinger Heads Secretarial Group

DANEBO — Eugene Association of Educational Secretaries met Tuesday evening at Clear Lake Elementary School at Bethel. Hostesses were Bethel secretaries, with special hostess Mrs. O. M. Bacon, who is secretary at Clear Lake.

Election of officers was held. New officers elected are Mrs. M. J. Bolinger, president; Mrs. Wilbur H. Jensen, vice president; Mrs. O. R. Lokken, secretary; and Mrs. Raymond J. Muhr, treasurer.

A report was given by Mrs. Robert Graham, registration chairman, on registration for the national convention, which is to be in July at the University of Oregon. This is in combination with the National Institute for Educational Secretaries. Secretaries from 26 states have registered to date.

Slides were shown of pictures taken at Boss' Night, May 4, at Cal Young School. Following refreshments, a tour of the offices was taken.

Geddes Family Visits in Midwest

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Geddes and four children, Darla Mae, Cheryl Rae, Allen, and Jane Elizabeth, have returned from a trip to Granville, N. D., for the 70th wedding anniversary of Mr. Geddes' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jason L. Geddes.

The elder couple was married at Garner, Iowa, and moved to North Dakota in 1900 to homestead. In 1907 they built a house in town in which they have lived ever since. Mr. Garner, an early member of Granville's Masonic Lodge, is 90. His wife, 87, is still active in the Order of Eastern Star. Both are in excellent health. They have five grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

Both are long-time members of the Congregational Church, of which she was church clerk for 24 years and president of the ladies aid society for 15 years.

The Eugene couple's youngest daughter, Jane Elizabeth, is named for her great grandmother, whose given name is Myra Jane.

Home-Cooked Dinner Set By B&PW Club

Eugene Business and Professional Women will have a home-cooked dinner on the lawn of Mrs. Merle Chase's home on Garden Way Saturday from 5 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Husbands and friends are welcome to attend the dinner which will include baked ham, salads, escalloped potatoes and other home-cooked dishes. The dinner will be cooked by Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Harold Lounsbury and Mrs. Harold Jensen.

There will be a charge for the dinner which is intended to raise funds to send seven delegates from the Eugene club to the B&PW biennial convention in St. Louis, June 27 to July 2.

Those attending the dinner should make reservations by calling either Mrs. Chase at 5-1717 or the club president, Mrs. Helen Kilpatrick, at 5-1806.

Piano Guild Plans Series Fall Recitals

Members of the National Guild of Piano Teachers met recently at the studio of Mrs. Warren Price in Springfield. Plans were laid for a series of public recitals to be presented during the fall season.

At the close of the business session Leonard Jared played the Mozart "Concerto in A Major" (first movement), and the Mozart "C Major Sonata," to which Greig wrote the second piano part. Mrs. A. A. York assisted with both numbers at the second piano.

IF YOU LIKE a homeless lean cut of meat for pot roasting, use sirloin tip. When serving, cut the meat into as thin slices as possible. It will make fine open sandwiches with some of the gravy ladled over.
