Winners Tally Five in Third

SUBLIMITY — Eugene captured its first Valley League triumph in three starts here Sunday afternoon as it tallied five runs in the third inning to defeat Sublimity, 5-0.

Dick Weaver, who started on the mound for Eugene but retired with a sore back in the fifth inning, opened the third with a single. He moved to second on Hank Hudspeth's sacrifice and scored on Duane Reeves' groundout after Gene Stott had collected an infield single.

Manager Charlie DeAutremont kept the rally going with a walk and advanced to second on a double steal. Jack Fasset was safe on an error and then Bob Krasneski blasted a homerun over the rightfield fence for the final three runs.

None of the winners collected more than one hit, while Jenkins garnered two for Sublimity. Gene Lewis, who relieved Weaver, finished with eight strikeouts, while losing pitcher Dan Feller whiffed five before retiring in the eighth.

Sublimity will be here for an 8:30 p.m. encounter Wednesday at Bethel Park. Eugene also will meet Albany here Friday night in another league clash.

Albany Beats Millers 11-3

Albany broke loose for seven runs in the sixth inning in claiming an 11-3 victory over Miller Lumbermen of Eugene in a non-league contest between the two State Junior baseball clubs Sunday afternoon at Bethel Park.

The winners collected 11 hits off three Miller hurlers, including two apiece for Fisher and Fox, while five Lumbermen hits included a double and single for Bob Wellnitz.

Gladstone Ties Mark For Outfield Putouts

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Granville Gladstone of the Portland Beavers Sunday tied the Pacific Coast League record for the most chances by an outfielder in a nine-inning game.

Eleven chances, all put-outs, came his way in center field in the first game of a Portland-Sacramento doubleheader. That equaled the record which Lou Almadon of the defunct Missions established in 1934 and Bob Marquis of Portland tied in 1953.

Grant Gets Release

PORTLAND (AP)—Charlie Grant, reserve infielder who was hitting .375 but who has been hampered by a shoulder injury, was released outright Sunday by the Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast League.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Just how good the league-leading Hollywood baseball team really is will be indicated Monday night in Gilmore Field, Hollywood, when the Stars take on the best of the rest of the league in a revival of the all-star game.

Hollywood manager Bobby Bragan, whose players topped San Francisco, 5-4 and 8-1 Sunday, will pitch Roger Bowman. Seal manager Tommy Heath has five top hurlers to pick from. Six players on the all-league squad bat over .300.

In other contests Sunday, San Diego took two grueling games from Seattle by the identical score, 5-4. Oakland beat Los Angeles twice, 4-2 and 6-3. And Portland whipped Sacramento 8-3 and 6-4.

This week Hollywood plays at Seattle, Sacramento at Los Angeles, Portland at Oakland and San Francisco at San Diego.

Cellar-dwelling Portland jumped off to a five-run lead in the first two innings and pounded four Sacramento pitchers for a victory in the first game. Walt Judnich smashed his 12th homer for Portland in the ninth.

His 13th, in the fourth inning of the second game, and a two-run sixth inning helped the Beavers win again.

Westfir moved into a tie with Dexter for the Division 1 lead in the Cascade baseball race but had to battle Eugene for 13 innings before winning, 7-6, while Walterville captured in fourth Division 2 triumph with a 6-5 verdict at Leaburg in Sunday afternoon's action.

Swisshome defeated Coburg, 10-3, in the other Division 1 fray, while Veneta clobbered McKenzie, 25-6, in Division 2. Marcola and Dexter fought for 11 innings at Marcola before the host club claimed a 1-0 victory in an inter-district tilt.

Westfir gained a 6-6 tie with Eugene in the bottom of the ninth when Rusty Snyder singled, moved to second on a passed ball, and scored on Bert Burr's single. Burr's squeeze bunt in the bottom of the 13th brought home Suddath, who had advanced on two errors.

Lundbom had a double and three singles for the winners, while Rusty Snyder had two doubles, and Jenkins added a double and single. Whittaker, who fanned 12 in 13 inning, garnered three hits for Eugene. Winning pitcher Sittler also went all the way and had 10 strikeouts.

Dwight Scroggins, who had two hit, tallied Walterville's winning run in the eighth inning when he crossed an unprotected home plate from third after a foul popout between third and home. Middleton had three hits for Leaburg.

Marcola ended its long session with Dexter when winning pitcher Bob Narramore walked through one way in the 11th, moved to third on singles by Jim Todd and Jack Lindsay, and was squeezed home by J.C. Phillips.

Narramore and Arlie Brown, who contributed three hits as losing pitcher, each had seven strikeouts. Eddie Hansen had two hits for Marcola, who benefited from four double plays.

Warren Giles' embargo on the $100 home run bonus came just in time to save Leo Durocher a lot of money.

Two Giant pinch hitters, Bobby Hofman and Dusty Rhodes, tied a record Sunday by hitting pinch homers in the same inning of New York's 7-6 victory over St. Louis. Wes Westrum also homered in the sixth inning and Al Dark hit one earlier.

If Giles hadn't sounded a warning, Leo Probably still would be handing out $100 bills as he did last week to Bill Taylor and Hank Thompson.

The Giant homers routed Vic Raschi and hung a defeat on Cot Deal. But the New Yorkers' lead was sliced to one half game by Brooklyn's double victory.

The Dodgers again fell back on relief pitching as they knocked off Chicago twice, 6-4 and 6-3. Clem Labine bailed out the first game and Bob Milliken and Ben Wade held the fort in the second after Billy Loe's left.

For the first time since Sept. 6, 1953, Pittsburgh actually won a double-header, downing Milwaukee 2-1 in 10 innings when Lew Burdette hit Curt Roberts with a pitched ball with the bases loaded. Gair Allie's three-run homer gave the Pirates the second game, 6-3 over Bob Buhl.

Cincinnati bumped off Philadelphia twice, 4-3 and 15-6, chasing their old teammate, Herm Wehmeier. The Redlegs scored nine runs in the first inning of the second game.

Cleveland hiked its American League lead to four games by beating their old Boston spartans around the head 3-1 and 9-2 while New York and Chicago were dividing two. Bobby Feller's five-hitter and Art Houtteman's 10-hitter both had home run help from Al Smith.

The Yankees managed 20 hits, including home runs by Bill Skowron, Gil McDougald, Mickey Mantle and Joe Collins in thumping Chicago 16-6 in the first game. Then Bob Keegan squared matters for the White Sox 7-3, becoming the first American League pitcher to win 19 games this year.

The second game was held to eight inning by darkness. Sherm Lollar's two-run homer in the seventh was the big blow.

Baltimore's losing streak stretched to eight straight when Washington's Connie Marrero and Dean Stone pitched the Senators to a double victory, 7-1 and 7-2. A Philadelphia-at-Detroit doubleheader was rained out.

Foster Saw took another important step on its quest for a second straight Women's League Softball championship when the Sawyerettes trimmed their nearest rival, Willamette Electric, 9-2 Saturday night. That victory gave Foster a stronger grip on the lead with its fifth straight nod and second in a row over the Oakridge gals.

Warren Hardware moved to third place by nipping the Police Assn. 12-11, while M&K Furniture won its first game, 22-5 from Eugene Merchants.

Another 1953 champion, Snellstrom Lumber, continued unchecked with a last-ditch 4-3 win over the Active Club, while Kendall Motors handed River Road Merchants their first defeat in Minor "B" action by a 6-5 count.

After an opening scare, Foster took command of its contest and was never headed in taking a surprisingly easy decision. Willamette Electric loaded the bases with none out in the first at bats, but the next three hitters all popped out to start Linda Walker on the way to her fourth pitching victory. The game went only five innings.

Two walks, a hit batter and Susan Heacock's double gave Foster a 2-0 lead in its half of the first frame while Joyce Boentgen singled in a tally in the second. Singles by Darlene Peake, Wanda Conner, Maridell Linster and Heacock in the third helped run the bulge to 8-1, and Oakridge couldn't make this up. Boentgen, Peake and Heacock all had two hits apiece for the winners, while Carolyn Sage and Bev Saxon rapped out two safeties for Willamette Electric.

Hits by Nancy Gates, Donette Lopuson, and Linda Lillard plus two errors gave Warren's four runs in the bottom of the sixth to overcome an 11-8 Police lead. The losers had scored six times in their half to move in front. Gates and Lopuson hit twice for Warren's as did Kay Atkinson, Louise Campbell and Lenore Glenn for the Police women.

M&K unloaded with eight runs in the bottom of the fifth inning to overcome the Merchants. Darlene Gadsden, Ethel Lee, Bunny Whitworth, and Vivian Norris unloaded hits in the big frame. Lee collected three hits for the night while Gadsden and Norris had a pair each.

Ed Dell's single and Bill Cooley's triple gave the Active Club a 3-2 lead in the top of the seventh frame, but Snellstrom came back for the decision on a hit batter, an error, plus singles by Cliff Brown and Ron Snellstrom. This Snellstrom duo each batted out two base blows, while Cooley did the same for the Activians.
