How To Hold
FALSE TEETH
More Firmly in Place

When your false teeth annoy and embarrass by slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, laugh or talk? Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This alkaline (non-acid) powder holds false teeth more firmly so they feel more comfortably. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH today at any drug counter.

Gunners Led By Snellstrom

OAKRIDGE — Ron Snellstrom and John Allen Willener captured top places in the first annual George Thatcher Memorial Trophy Trap Shoot staged here Sunday by the Oakridge Lions at the Cascade Rod and Gun Club trap grounds.

Snellstrom fired 49-50 to annex the senior championship, beating out John Willener of Eugene and Rudy Rydberg of Tacoma by a single bird. In a shootoff Willener was the winner.

The young Willener won the junior title with a creditable 45-50, beating out J. Brooks of Dexter who finished with a 43-50. Thirty-four shooters took part in the event to honor Thatcher, for three years president of the Cascade Club and a long-time member of the Lions Club who was killed in a recent logging accident.

The two trophies, the one for the senior and the junior, will be rotating trophies and will be contested for annually.

Title Retained By Von Pop

Kurt Von Peppenheim is still the Pacific Coast junior heavyweight wrestling champion following a close brush with French-Canadian Luigi Macera in Saturday's title match at the Eugene Armory.

Macera picked up the initial advantage when he wrapped the champ in a small package for the fall. But the "Proud Prussian" squared matters as the match got progressively rougher. A half-Boston crab gave Von Poppenheim the second fall.

The decisive fall was a quickie when Von Poppenheim caught Macera coming off the ropes and applied a bow-and-arrow backbreaker hold. That finished the title bid of the handsome Portlander.

Danny O'Rourke won the semi-final event when he won the only fall from Duke Schneider with a reverse surf board. This started as a scientific match but quickly became heated when both rivals began to mix it up. A 30-minute time limit stopped the match before any further pins.

In the opener, tough Tony Ross applied a backbreaker and body press to win from another Armory newcomer, Torchy Smith.

TUESDAY'S SCHEDULE
Eugene at Cottage Grove, 5:30; Lowell at Westfir, 5:30; Walterville at Springfield (exhibition), 6.

The Springfield Lumbermen and Cottage Grove Post 32 moved into a tie with Pitchford Mack Sales of Eugene in the District 3, Southern Division American Legion baseball race this weekend. Saturday night, the Govers blanked Westfir Post 156 by a 13-0 count as Don Lunau hurled a seven-inning no-hitter.

The Lumbermen, Sunday, won by an 8-2 count from Lowell Post 64. Eugene drew a second-round bye. In Northern Division action, the Lebanon at Florence contest was halted by rain.

Lunau fanned 13, walked one and hit two batters in fashioning his no-hitter. The Grovers scored in every inning but the sixth to clinch matters. Greg Stewart led the batting with a homer, double and a single. Bryan Angel added three singles to the attack, while Don Heck collected two hits.

Springfield also led from the first inning on, after scoring two runs. Bill Lane pitched the route, scattering four hits and fanning nine. Jerry Cyphert had a single and a triple for the Lumbermen, while Don Prociw also garnered two safeties. Earl Jaques added a three-bagger to the assault.

Leading hitter for Lowell was Walt Sprague who had another triple.

Halbrook to Miss Pre-Season Contests

CORVALLIS (AP) — Wade "Swede" Halbrook, the 7-foot-3-inch Oregon State basketball star who led the Beavers to a Northern Division title last season, will be ineligible next season at least until January, Coach Slats Gill said Monday.

Gill said Halbrook did not accumulate enough credits during spring term and thus would not be eligible for pre-season drills or games.

The coach said, however, that Halbrook would go to summer school and that he could be eligible to play when the Northern Division season opens January 7.

Scortichini, Gonzales Rated Even Money

NEW YORK (AP)— Fresh from surprise performances, middleweights Italo Scortichini of Italy and Pedro Gonzales of Rankin, Pa., will clash Monday night in a TV 10 rounder at St. Nicholas Arena. And the odds were at "even money."

The more experienced Scortichini held top welterweight contender Carmine Basilio to a draw in his latest bout. Young Gonzales won an upset decision over middleweight contender Ralph Tiger Jones on May 24.

Ryff Favored 8-5

BROOKLYN (AP)— Unbeaten Frankie Ryff of New York was favored at 8-5 to beat Brian Kelly of Niagara Falls, Ont., Monday night in their televised 10 round lightweight bout at Eastern Parkway Arena. Ryff, former national and international Golden Gloves champion, will be making his main event debut and seeking his 12th straight professional victory.

Auto Record Set

FRANCORCHAMPS, Bel. (AP)—Juan Manuel Fangio of Argentina set a new record of 185.172 kph (about 111 MPH) in winning the 509 kilometer Belgian Grand Prix road race Sunday in his Maserati. The old record was 183.986 KPH. Second place Maurice Trintignant of France, in a Ferari, also broke the old record with an average speed of 184.720 KPH.

Snodgrass, Bunch Win Oakway Honors, Junior Classes Set July 2

Virgil Snodgrass and Gene Bunch shared honors as 63 golfers completed qualifying for the Oakway Men's club summer handicap tournament. Snodgrass won low gross prize with a one-under 71, while Bunch won low net with a 73-11 for 62. Paul Sowers and Tom Jones trailed, each with a 75-5 for net 70's.

Joe Steiger, pro at the course, also announced that he will start junior classes July 2 at 9:30 a.m. Youngsters may sign up for the free lessons by calling the clubhouse or signing up there in person.

Erv Parent Claims Washington Golf Title

TACOMA (AP)— Erv Parent of Seattle is the new Washington State amateur golf champion.

Parent defeated Jim Mallory of Seattle 9 and 8 Sunday in the finals of the state tournament at Fircrest Golf Course. He scored a one under par 70 on the first round and hit an even par on the final round.

Rubes Rained Out

The Hyster-Rubes softball doubleheader, scheduled in Portland last Saturday night, was rained out. The two teams are scheduled for a rematch later in the season.

Upstate Golf Team Wins

MEDFORD—Two Eugene golfers, Sid Milligan and Harvey Hixson, helped pace the Upstate's 10-man divot team to a 13½-1½ best-ball victory over Captain Bob Bronson's Portland aggregation here Sunday. The event opened the 26th annual OGA men and women's championship tourney that started qualifying rounds for men Monday and will continue with match play through Sunday.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria and Jim Sheldon of Salem and Eddie Simmons of Medford and Jack Brande of Albany both had best-ball 67's for the best among the Upstaters. Dichter and Bob McReynolds of Riverside of Portland posted individual 71's, one under par for the new Rogue Valley Country Club layout.

Team results follow:

Ralph Dichter (Astoria)-Jim Sheldon (Salem) Upstate 67, 2 vs. Bob McReynolds (Riverside)-Millard Rosenblatt (Tualatin) Portland 69, 1.

Leaburg, Coburg Split

LEABURG—Virgil Young pitched Coburg to a 17-8 victory over Leaburg in an intermediate baseball game in the McKenzie League Sunday. In the pee-wee division, Jay Allison collected "three for three" in leading Leaburg to a 6-1 win over Coburg.

Cyclists Led By Thiessen

Gene Thiessen of Eugene captured the main event, trophy dash and one of the time trials in dominating the Eugene Motorcycle Club's second motorcycle race meet of the season at Benton-Lane Speedway Sunday.

A crowd of about 500 attended the thrill-paced race meet that saw two minor injuries—to Russ Holt of Portland, in both the third and sixth events.

Frank Williams of Cottage Grove, second in the main event, also placed third in the trophy dash and was second in the fourth event. Elden Wright of Portland was third in the main event, second in the trophy dash, and placed fifth in the fourth event.

Results:
