Golden Agers To Meet During Summer Months

Golden Age Club decided at a recent meeting to continue meeting during the summer months. The club meets each Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at Washington Street Recreation Center.

Anyone 50 years of age or older is welcome to attend the meetings. There are no fees or dues to pay. A brief business meeting is followed by a program each week. Then refreshments, which are taken by the members, are served, and two hours of free dancing or cards follow.

Refreshments this Tuesday evening will be optional. Coffee, milk, tea and table service is furnished by the club.

Last week, Mrs. Howard Newsum, owner of Santa Clara Beauty Shop, sang vocal selections for the program, accompanied by Miss Patricia Taylor.

Those wanting further information about the club may call 4-6569.
