Couples Observe Golden Weddings

WALTERVILLE — Two golden wedding anniversary celebrations of interest to this community took place recently.

Friends and relatives attended the open house for Mr. and Mrs. John Sloan, who made their home in this vicinity for many years before moving to their present location at Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Grant, who belong to the local grange and are well known after living for many years in the McKenzie Valley, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary June 15. The party for them was at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Alva Colpitts at Cedar Flat, June 20. Their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Grant were special guests. Their home is in Washington.

Easily Adaptable

Note the very full and luxurious skirt on this sundress also styled for neckline flattery; fabrics range from cottons to summer fall.

Bridal Shower Fetes Teacher

Mrs. Leona Hager, Westfir, who will be married to James Trapman of Eugene July 4, at First Methodist Church in Portland, was honored with a miscellaneous bridal shower recently at the home of Miss Robin LeVee at Springfield. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Anna Montgomery, Mrs. Mae Cross and Mrs. Alvalena Kruger.

Mrs. Hager is a teacher at Westfir Grade School and several guests came from there for the shower.

At Mrs. Hager's request, Miss LeVee sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" (Malotte), songs she will sing at the wedding. She was accompanied by Mrs. Vadie Hoag.

Mrs. Cook Talks To Soroptimists

Mrs. Florence Reed Cook of Eugene, representing the Willamette Family Service Assn., addressed Soroptimist Club of Eugene at the regular luncheon meeting Tuesday noon at Eugene Hotel.

Mrs. Cook spoke especially of the aims of the association to bring more professional case-work service to the community, assistance with juvenile problems and to establish a rehabilitation program to work with state institutions.

Next meeting of the club, Tuesday, June 29, will be the last for the summer with the exception of one business meeting in July and one in August. Regular meetings will resume in September.
