Nationalist Pilots To Get Jet Ships

By WILLIAM MILLER
Of The United Press

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—Some morning about 12 weeks from now a bunch of keen young Chinese Nationalist pilots will roar over the China coast looking for trouble, and there will be fireworks.

At long last, the Nationalist air force is going to get the Sabrejet fighter planes for which it has begged for months.

Then, for the first time, Nationalist pilots will be able to challenge on equal terms the MIG jets with which Soviet Russia has supplied the Chinese Communists.

The Nationalist pilots have been ranging over Red-held mainland territory in F-84 Thunderjets. Even at that, though plane for plane the Thunderjets are no match for the MIGs, the Nationalists have given a good account of themselves.

SABRES ON WAY

Now the word has come through reliable channels that Sabrejets are on the way.

It is hoped that the first Sabrejets will arrive here early in August.

It will take about six weeks to get the first squadron into action.

Then the air war over the China coast will become really hot.

Gen. Wang Shun-Ming, called "Tiger" Wang, chief of the Nationalist air force, has pleaded again and again for the Sabrejets.

"We can shoot down 10 MIGs for every Sabrejet we lose," Wang told this correspondent recently.

In Korea, American pilots shot down MIGs at the rate of 14 to 1.

"We need at least 150 Sabrejets to meet the increasing threat of the Red air forces," Wang said.

MIG BUILDUP

He and other Nationalist military leaders have learned through intelligence reports how big is the buildup of MIGs along the coast.

It is reported that there are about 350 MIGs at bases along the coast north of Formosa.

Wang's pilots are well trained and are eager to go. They are as confident as he is that they can give the Reds a beating.

Many of the Nationalist fighter pilots have been trained in the United States. All have been trained in American-style flying and combat techniques.

American officers stationed in Formosa have spent three years training the Nationalist pilots. They, like Wang, expected the new air force to do well.

It is understood that the decision to speed up delivery of Sabrejets was made because of the big Red buildup on the coast of the mainland. The nearest MIG base is only 30 minutes flying time from Formosa.

The first Sabrejet-MIG clash of the China theater probably will come around the Tachen islands, 200 miles north of Formosa, and it will mean a big day for Nationalist China.

Ukrainians to Accuse Soviets of Persecution

TORONTO (AP)—More than 6,000 Ukrainians from Canada and the United States are meeting here to draw up a declaration accusing Soviet Russia of persecuting their homeland.

They gathered here Sunday to open a three-day culture festival sponsored by the Ukrainian Artists and Writers Club in the Canadian National Exhibition park.

The declaration, to be issued at the end of the festival, will be channeled across the Iron Curtain by Radio Canada and the Voice of America.

IKE, MAMIE GET OLD FIREPLACE

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President and Mrs. Eisenhower have received a century-old fireplace that formerly stood in the White House as a 38th wedding anniversary present, it was disclosed Monday.

The white marble fireplace was a gift from the White House staff on their anniversary July 1.

It now has been installed in the renovated house on the Gettysburg, Pa. farm to which Mr. and Mrs. Eisenhower hope some day to retire.

Mrs. Eisenhower told reporters it was one of two fireplaces removed from the White House and sold at auction during the administration of President Chester K. Arthur.

Highway Dedicated

TOLEDO, Ore. (AP)—Highlight of Lincoln County Pioneer Days Saturday was dedication of a new stretch of the Coast Highway west of here. The 5.7 mile section was completed last December but the dedication was postponed to occur with the county-wide Pioneer celebration.
