AWARD WINNER — Italian actress Gina Lollobrigida has received the Silver Ribbon in Rome—the Italian version of Hollywood's Oscar—for her buxom portrayal of peasant girls which elevated her to stardom. Italian movie writers gave the award for her role in "Bread, Love and Fantasy."

Haymes Hears
Sour Music

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The monetary blues of crooner Dick Haymes had more sour notes Wednesday after a second ex-wife obtained a bench warrant for his arrest.

Kind of Mirage

On one still picture, taken with the still camera, a circular white spot can be seen midway between the sun and the tip of the airplane wing. The object has a very faint tail like the condensed vapor stripes sometimes seen in the wake of jet planes at high altitudes.

Cayuse Indian Dies

PENDLETON (AP) — Luke Cowapo, 69, a Cayuse Indian who for many years was co-chief at the Pendleton Round Up, died Monday after an illness of several months.

Funeral services will be Thursday. His widow and three children survive.

Eclipse Films
Raise Question
Shiny White Objects
Look Like 'Saucers'

OSLO, Norway (AP) — A famed cameraman said pictures he took during the solar eclipse last week showed "shiny white objects like flying saucers."

Photographer Johnny Bjornulf said "it was especially interesting to find the objects" since they "nearly coincided in time with the observation of six 'flying saucers' from a BOAC plane off Labrador."

The cameraman discovered the shiny objects while showing a color movie of the eclipse in London last Monday. He flew back to Norway and examined still pictures he took at the same time and saw the same objects.

Personal Opinion

Bjornulf took the pictures aboard a Scandinavian Airlines plane at 13,500 feet altitude while photographing the eclipse of the sun last Wednesday for scientists.

He said he had no idea the objects were on the film until he saw the movie in London.

"My personal opinion is that the shining white spots on the pictures are some reflex phenomena, although I am quite sure that it is not due to any reflection in the camera lens."

He ruled out lens reflection because the objects appeared on film taken by two different cameras.

A photographic expert in London who saw one of the still pictures said sun reflections from the airplane wing through the plane's laminated glass may be responsible.

MIG Pilot Spends
Time in University

NEWARK, Del. (AP) — No Kum Sok, who flew a Russian-made MIG jet into U.S. hands in Korea and collected a $100,000 reward, is spending the summer polishing up his English and his table tennis.

The 23-year-old former North Korean pilot is doing well at both, according to his fellow students at the summer school of the University of Delaware.

No Kum Sok's name has been Americanized to Kenny by his dormitory mates. His other Americanizations have been mostly on his own, and include a strong taste for cowboy movies.

"I still don't know much about the United States," he said in an interview. "But it's only because I don't know the language."

"I figure it will take me a year or so before I can speak it like the Americans."

Kenny attends classes in sports shirts and slacks, like most other students. So far he hasn't dated an American girl.

He isn't living high, wide and handsome on his reward money. He spends most of his spare time going to the movies, as long as they are cowboy pictures, and
