Kansas City Girl Bride of Man From Springfield

Howard T. Scholz and Miss Jean Elizabeth Hagan were married June 5 at the Annunciation Catholic Church in Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Scholz is the son of Mrs. Theodore H. Scholz of Springfield. His bride is the daughter of Mrs. Charles S. Hagan of Kansas City.

The ceremony took place at 10 a.m. with the Rev. M. F. McAuliffe officiating. A breakfast at the home of the bride followed immediately. Later from 2 to 4 p.m. a reception was held, also at the home of the bride.

The bride's gown was of white silk taffeta fashioned with a snug bodice, tiny buttons up the back, short tucked sleeves, and a wide portrait neckline edged in re-embroidered lace. The bouffant redingote-style skirt of taffeta, which revealed a front panel of tulle, was edged in lace applique and circled into a sweep train. Her double wrist-length veil of illusion fell from a bonnet of tiny white lilies.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Charles N. Hagan. The bride carried a white bride's Missal with white stephanotis attached to the satin ribbons.

Matron-of-honor, Mrs. Martha Penniston, bride's sister, wore an ankle-length gown of mint green silk organza over taffeta. The tucked bodice with cap sleeves and a wide V-neckline was accented by a full, gathered skirt. The hat was a circle of white flowers and yellow daisies. She carried yellow roses. Miss Donna Oldtmann, bridesmaid, wore a gown and hat identical in style and color to that of the matron-of-honor. Misses Mary and Ann Mortimore were flower girls.

Best man was Kenneth Scholz, groom's brother. William Blaschke was groomsman and Harold Hagan and Donald Heath ushered. After a trip through the northern and western part of the country, the couple will make their home in Eugene.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD GENE KINGERY (Glenda Mae Butler) are at home at Kingery ranch, Yoncalla. They were married June 18 at Drain.

Couple at Home Near Yoncalla

Miss Glenda Mae Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Butler of Yoncalla, became the bride of Donald Gene Kingery Friday, June 18, in the parsonage of the First Baptist Church at Drain. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dare Kingery, also of Yoncalla. Home of the couple will be at the Kingery ranch where the younger man is associated with his father in the operation of a large stock ranch.

The Rev. J. T. Smith, pastor, officiated at the 6 p.m. ceremony. The parsonage was decorated with roses, snapdragons and other mixed bouquets.

The bride wore a blue linen suit with white accessories and carried a white Bible with bouquet of carnations.

Miss Shirley Ann Butler, sister of the bride, wore a navy blue suit with white accessories. Her bouquet was of red and white carnations. Lloyd Means, brother-in-law of the groom was best man.

Mrs. Dare Kingery served the tiered wedding cake at the reception in the parsonage. Mrs. James Dodd served punch and Mrs. Lloyd Means poured coffee. Mr. Kingery was graduated from Yoncalla High School with the class of 1950.

Dexter Bride Carries White Prayerbook

DEXTER—Miss Florence Pickens and Wallace Bedortha were married Friday, July 2, at 2 p.m. at the First Christian Church of Springfield, the Rev. Jack Pettigrew officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Pickens of Dexter, the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bedortha of Pleasant Hill. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gray street suit with white prayerbook, which she had as a gift at her first Communion as a small child.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Chester McCracken. Clifford Bedortha, brother of the groom, was best man.

Music was rendered before the service by Jack Forman of Walton at the piano.

The ceremony was attended by immediate members of each family and the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Tillie Pickens.

The couple left immediately for a short trip to the coast. Both are graduates of Pleasant Hill High School.

Brown Girls Home

Judy and Susan Brown, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Don W. Brown, 385 River Road, are at their home following a two-week visit at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eber Brown at St. Helens. Judy's friend, Diana Miller of Santa Clara, accompanied the girls to St. Helens for the two weeks during which all three girls helped their grandparents pick strawberries. Diana's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy P. Miller and family, went to St. Helens over the weekend and brought the girls home.

Dakota Couple Here

Mr. and Mrs. Ross N. Doty and daughter, Karen, have as house guests at their home Mr. Doty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Doty of Corsica, S. D. The elder Dotys, who will spend the summer here, came by auto with their son-in-law, Lt. Col. Lloyd Engelland, who later left for Alaska with the U. S. Army.

Bridal Shower Fetes Mrs. Richard Tweet

ALPINE—A shower honoring Mrs. Richard Tweet, a recent bride, took place in late June in the school diningroom. Hostesses were Mrs. Arthur Bittner, Mrs. Emil Price, Mrs. Frank Johnston, Mrs. Don Coleman and Mrs. Elsie King.

Miss Marion McBride, sister of the honored guest, and Miss Lois Dykstra, a cousin, assisted with gifts.

Mrs. Elma McWhorter presented a number of piano-ac-cordion selections. Thirty-five guests were present.

Make Your Own Dangly Earrings

This summer's brides can make their own dangly earrings of chalky white ball buttons. Just buy a loop earring base and glue white buttons or jet buttons (or both) to them.

Families Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Christensen and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jackson and son of Sioux Falls, S. D., were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Marie Wenner in Eugene. The Christensens, Mrs. Wenner and Betty spent a few days recently with Mrs. Christensen's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lund, at Shedd.

Party Honors Family

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Osborn and Betty, Bonnie and Wayne, of Mt. Vernon Church of Christ were guests recently at a going-away party given in their honor before they moved to Los Angeles. Mrs. Phillip Hushour was general chairman.
