Gifts, Grants Given to U.O. For Scholarships, Research

The University of Oregon was richer by $23,406.41 as a result of gifts and grants accepted on the university's behalf by the State Board of Higher Education in Portland Tuesday.

The largest single gift was from the Town Club of Eugene, which donated $1,000 for the Town Club Scholarship Fund. Other gifts follow:

Elks Lodge No. 357, Eugene, for the Dean Walker Scholarship Fund; University Co-ed Housing Alumnae Assn., Portland, $150, Grand Chapter of Oregon Eastern Star, $100, Thomas F. Brooks, Bend, $100, Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, Portland, $100, John J. Rogers, Eugene, $500, Women's Architectural League, Portland, $544.41, and Delta Delta Delta, Eugene, $225, for scholarships; and $165 from various donors for the Albert Caswell Memorial Fund.

Grants accepted by the board follow: $500 additional grant from the National Park Service to continue the archeological survey at The Dalles under direction of Prof. L. S. Cressman; $11,200 additional grant from the Atomic Energy Commission to continue research on corrosion of zirconium under direction of Prof. Pierre Van Rysseberghe; $8,047 additional grant from the U.S. Army Ordnance Department to continue research on aryl-substituted cycloalkenes under direction of Asst. Prof. L. H. Klemm; and $650 from the Research Corporation of New York to continue the research of Asst. Prof. George Gorin in oxidation of cysteine.
