

Park, Recreation Plans Told to Women's Council

A picture of the park and recreational plans for Lane County was presented to about 14 members of the Eugene Council of Women's Organizations at the monthly luncheon of the latter group Friday at the Osburn Hotel. Speaker was Gene Renard, superintendent of the parks and recreation department of Lane County, as set by the Parks and Recreation Commission.

The speaker told of the alarm felt by citizens who realized some years back that growth and industrialization of the area was going forward at a prodigious rate.

SOCIETY, WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS

ANN CONNELL, Society Editor

WELFARE LEAGUE'S new Thrift and Gift Shop will open soon at 1363 Oak St., where this old house has been refurbished with paint in charcoal gray and bright pink trim. Flowers in tubs are being added, and the porch light carries out the general quaint effect of "horse and buggy days." Volunteer workers who tend the newly-set plants and new lawn, sprinkling twice daily, are shown here: From left, Mrs. Thaxter Reed, Mrs. Richard Strite and Mrs. R. E. "Bill" McNutt. The shop is planned to serve as a "women's exchange" to offer fresh home-baked foods, arts and crafts goods made by local folk, and better-grade used clothing, all handled on consignment (except those articles offered by Welfare League itself), with proceeds to go to charity.

Yacht Season Draws to Close

Eugene Yacht Club will run the last point race of the season Sunday on Fern Ridge Lake. A week later, Sunday, Aug. 29, Power Day is scheduled.

Two recent events were the moonlight cruise over the lake Saturday evening, starting at 8:30 p.m. Coffee and marshmallows were served at the club shelter from 10:30 to 11:30 p.m. Dessert was brought by members. Cruise committee was Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Langfeldt and

Mr. and Mrs. William Wheeler. The Coast-to-Coast Trophy Race was run Sunday.

Bake muffins in tiny muffin cups and sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese before putting into the oven. Delicious with butter at teatime!

Baby Shower At Vaughn Tuesday
