REGULARLY-SCHEDULED, GOVERNMENT-CERTIFICATED AIRLINE

Wednesday Deadline Set For Parliamentary Meet

Clubs and organizations of all kinds in Springfield have until Wednesday to make reservations with the Business and Professional Women's Club for the Parliamentary Procedure Workshop scheduled for Sunday at Willamette Memorial Building.

Officers and members of men's and women's groups will participate in demonstrations, questions and answers and the evaluation conducted under the leadership of Dr. Eleanor Gutman, formerly parliamentarian of Oregon State Federation of B & PW clubs and Mrs. Cecelia Galey of Sweet Home who has served the national body and is a practicing attorney. Mrs. Carolyn Crowe is local general chairman.

Registration, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Reginald Erskine, will be at 10 a.m. Sunday. Lunch will be served at 12:15 p.m. with demonstrations at 1:30 p.m. The welcome will be given by Mrs. Ellis Henderer, president. Keynotes will be guest speakers who will explain basic uses of parliamentary rules and why they should be used. They will point out how easily these rules may be used and demonstrate their benefits to officers and members. This session will be related to following sessions.

Seven sections will be housed in different parts of the building so different portions of parliamentary procedure may be studied and demonstrations prepared for the afternoon general meeting.

Group one will demonstrate correct methods of conducting business sessions. It will illustrate approved items and order. Mrs. Thomas Powell will preside at this section.

Mrs. Ellis Henderer, Springfield B & PW president, will prepare group two to amend a motion, amend an amendment and rescind action previously taken.

Procedures used to lay a motion on the table, to remove it from the table and to object to the consideration of a motion will be the portion handled by Mrs. Veva Morgan and members of group three.

Ways to reconsider a motion and enter it in the minutes, when to divide a motion and methods of voting will be exemplified by group four.

Group five will demonstrate ways to postpone indefinitely or to a definite time.

Group six will discuss "the previous question," and distinguish it from "question," and withdraw motions.

Mrs. H. H. Myers will lead the group seven devoted to conduct of nominations, presentation of nominations to membership, ways of voting, announcement of voting results. In addition, there will be a demonstration of procedure in referring matters to committee.

Arrangements for housing and hospitality will be made by Mrs. Roy Severson. Mrs. Gwen Renfro will head the program committee.

The noon luncheon will have a program showing ways of making groups feel at ease, methods of introductions. Mrs. Dorothy Moore will be mistress of ceremonies.

Officers and members of groups are invited to participate in the day-long workshop. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Erskine days, 7-3604, or evenings, 6-2447. Members of Springfield B & PW Club will have tickets to sell. Mrs. Beulah Loken is chairman of luncheon arrangements.

Miss Peggy Barsby To Head Rainbow

JUNCTION CITY—Miss Peggy Barsby was elected worthy advisor of Order of Rainbow for Girls at a recent meeting. Others elected were Miss Janice Madsen, worthy associate advisor; Miss Sandra Gilmore, Charity; Miss Carol Clarke, Hope; Miss Karen Madsen, Faith.

Mrs. Kleinman Joins Husband

Mrs. T. H. Kleinman and two daughters, Randi and Vicki, and a son, Danny, left Eugene this week to join her husband who is a captain in the U.S. Air Force stationed in Puerto Rico.

Mrs. Kleinman and children have been visiting this summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse J. Gbdlove. The family will travel by airplane.

Capt. Kleinman has been assigned as an Air Force Navigator at the Puerto Rican base, after being recalled to active duty with the military forces.
