

Quota Speaker Tells Needs of Eugene Public Library

Shearer, member of the library board.

The public library, he noted, was built in 1906 by a Carnegie grant of $10,000 and on property given by the city which valued the site then at $3,000. Approximately $1,000 per year was appropriated by the city council then for annual upkeep of the institution.

Duplicate Bridge Club Arranges Junior Tourney

The Duplicate Bridge Club arranges the junior tourney which started last Thursday evening and will be continued each day night. Registration still open and those interested are to call 4-0614 for further information.

A senior group also had its Thursday evening tourney which was played using the movement. Winners were: Bryant DeBar and George at first; second place was won by Mrs. Mogens Brix and R. H. Orth; third place was a tie between Mrs. Russell E. and Mrs. R. H. Orth and Diamond Henshaw and J. W. Henshaw.

Thursday evening's Master Point tables, with several from Corvallis and one from Roseburg participating. Positions were: Douglas and Warren Knudsen, first; Claude Potter and Rudolph second; R. H. Orth and Saks, third; Mrs. Bryant and Waldo Salmons, fourth.

Four top-winning spots in the East and West points were: George Belknap and Sam Ruben, first; Mrs. L. E. McClintock and G. W. Marshall from Roseburg, second; Mrs. McCoskie and Mrs. Morris from Corvallis.

21 will mark the first evening Master Point will serve to offer the club's members and players the second of this kind, which will be held Thursday of each month. First Monday will continue a monthly Master Point.

Thursday evening play has started for the convenience of those interested in Duplicate, but cannot attend Monday night. The club's meeting is at the Eugene Garden Club, 1645 High St., with play starting at 7:30 p.m.

MISS NANCY JOHNSON, regional director for Westinghouse Home Economics Institute, will give two demonstrations on laundrying at Rubenstein's Furniture Store Friday.

Demonstrator On Washing Slated Friday

Miss Nancy Johnson, Pacific Coast regional director for Westinghouse Home Economics Institute, will be at Rubenstein's Furniture Store Friday to give two demonstrations on laundrying knowledge.

Time of the demonstrations will be 2 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:30 in the evening. Miss Johnson will demonstrate all the latest tested and approved home laundry techniques and will show proper laundering of all the new "miracle" fabrics. Miss Johnson may be remembered by some for her appearance at Eugene High School in April for the Homemakers' Party.

An appreciation gift will be presented to each adult who attends the demonstration. Miss Johnson will use a Westinghouse washer in her demonstration but the information she will give will be beneficial to those using any brand of washer. She will answer questions.

As a regional director, Miss Johnson travels almost constantly, conducting lecture-demonstrations and cooking schools for audiences ranging from 50 to 1,000 homemakers.

She works closely with home economics departments of colleges and electric utilities.

Table-Setting Committee Prepares for Contest

Committee heads for the table-setting contest sponsored by John Phetteplace Guild met recently at a dessert luncheon at Laurelwood Golf and Country Club. They met with representatives from the participating organizations in the silver show and representatives from Skeie's Jewelry Store and Rubenstein's Furniture Company.

The contest will be Oct. 29 and 30 at Rubenstein's, during store hours.

Each organization can pick any theme it wants. Mrs. Leah Morrison from Skeie's explained the procedure for selecting china and silver and Jack Holden from Rubenstein's explained the use of the tables. This year the first prize will be $100 given by Skeie's Jewelry Store; $50, second prize, and $25, third prize, awarded by the John Phetteplace Guild. All tables will be judged by popularity vote; there will not be a judge's vote this year.

Present to represent their organizations were: Mrs. Thomas Whitson, Zeta Tau Alpha Alumnae; Mrs. L. Angst, Delta Zeta Alumnae; Mrs. Daniel Kempston, Junior Service League; Mrs. Leona Baker and Mrs. Arthur McClesney, Unity Chapter, American Gold Star Mothers; Mrs. Arthur Richardson, Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae; Mrs. Louis Bonson, Eugene Jayceeettes; Mrs. Henry Champeaux, Zuleima Club; Mrs. George Schwarz, Chi Omega Alumnae; Mrs. Robert Ferrins, Eugene Weavers' Guild; and Mrs. Rozaline Walton, Xi Gamma Alumnae. Other organizations participating are: Eugene Spinners, Daughters of the Nile, Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club, Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae, and Insurance Women of Eugene and Lane County.

Autographing Party Slated At Russell's

An autographing party for Grace Jordan, author of "Home Below Hell's Canyon," will take place Friday from 2 to 4 p.m. in the book department at Russell's, it is announced. Mrs. Jordan, wife of Gov. Len Jordan of Idaho, will be in Eugene at the week end, in connection with the dedication of Eric Allen Hall, new journalism building on the University of Oregon campus. She is a former member of the journalism staff here, having taught short story writing before her marriage in 1924, when she was Grace Edgington.

Mrs. Jordan's book, which is said to be written largely from her own and her husband's actual experiences through the hardships of sheep farming, has run through three printings, has been made into Braille by the Library of Congress, and will be serialized in November. It has been autographed in twelve cities.

Perfume That Clings

Q.—Dear Penny: I adore perfume, but for some reason or other its fragrance just does not last on me. I have told several of my friends that I want a new perfume, but first I must find out about a lasting one.—Mrs. J. M. A.

A.—A particularly good idea for women who claim that perfume does not "stay with them" is Chantilly Liquid Skin Sachet. It smooths on the skin very easily and lingers on and on because of its sachet base. The Chantilly fragrance really "clings" to you. I'm sure you'll love it! Get the original Liquid Skin Sachet, Chantilly by Houbigant, "the perfume that clings." Only $1.85 plus tax.
