Rivals Seek Radio Permit

PENDLETON W—Filing of an application with the Federal Communication Commission for a license to operate a radio station in Pendleton was announced this week by John Carroll, Pendleton businessman.

Carroll has operated the Carroll Equipment Co. since 1940 and has been in business here since 1935. He also runs a registered Angus cattle ranch. He said his proposed Umatilla Broadcasting Enterprises plans a 1000 watt daytime-power station on the 1050-kilocycle frequency. Gordon Allen of Salem applied to the FCC about three weeks ago for a Pendleton station license on the same frequency. Allen operates stations in Springfield, Salem, Lebanon and Seattle.

Pendleton now has one station, KWRC.

UO Instructor's Story Published

"A Try From the Gulf," a short story by James B. Hall of the University of Oregon's English department, has been published in the October issue of Harper's Bazaar.

Hall, who has been on the staff here since 1953, is the author of a novel published earlier this year. "Not By the Door" is the title of the book. He has also had short stories appearing in the O. Henry collections and in the Martha Foley collection, and poetry by Hall has been included in anthologies.

Three Will Speak on Theme Of UO's First 'Charter Day'

"The University's Responsibility in the Tradition of Freedom" is the theme of the first Charter Day observation held by the University of Oregon.

Events of the celebration are to be centered around this theme with three distinguished speakers developing different points of the thesis. The morning speaker on Charter Day, next Tuesday (October 19), will be British scientist Julian Huxley. Dr. Zechariah Chafee, Jr., of Harvard law school will be the evening speaker. The formal address at the afternoon inauguration of President O. Meredith Wilson will be by Dr. Clarence H. Faust of the Ford Foundation, and Stanford University.

The ceremonies of the inauguration will be in McArthur Court at 2 p.m.

Dr. Faust has had a distinguished career as an educator. He is a man who studied to be a minister and who was ordained and served in this work for several years before entering teaching in 1929, at the University of Arkansas. From 1930 to 1947 he taught in the University of Chicago, then went to Stanford, where he has served as director of libraries, dean of humanities and sciences, and acting president. He was appointed to head the Ford Foundation's Fund for the Advancement of Education in 1950.

This will be a return to the Oregon campus for Dr. Faust, who was one of the distinguished speakers on the program for the University's observation of its 75th Anniversary in 1951. He was the dinner speaker at the formal celebration of the anniversary. Dr. Faust is also a personal friend of President Wilson, heading up the Fund of which Dr. Wilson was secretary prior to his appointment at Oregon.
