

Democrats Critical Of Power Remarks

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reaction of Pacific Northwest lawmakers to President Eisenhower's State-of-the-Union message divided on political lines.

Democrats took a pessimistic view, labeling the President's remarks as "disappointing" or "reiteration" of previous speeches. At least one Republican, however, said he was glad to hear the President "again announce his belief in the partnership principle because it is the progressive and forward-looking approach to development of power in the Northwest."

That view was voiced by Rep. Ellsworth (R-Ore.) who said the President's speech "indicates a change from the hidebound reactionary attitude of our political opponents that all hydroelectric power development in the Northwest should be paid for with the taxpayers' money."

Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore.) said the message "ignored... the obvious need for a high multi-purpose project at Hells Canyon... although the President has given his blessing to a more costly undertaking in the upper Colorado area."

SAID ILL-ADVISED
Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore.) said domestic issues discussed in the message indicated the President was being ill-advised by "reactionaries in his palace guard."

Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) said the reiteration of the partnership philosophy of resource development "fails to face up" to the Pacific Northwest's "fundamental need" for additional power.

He said the Priest Rapids Dam legislation, which the President cited as an example of partnership principle, "has produced only a lawsuit instead of the much hailed cooperation that reportedly would result."

'PROOF OF PUDDING'
Sen. Magnuson (D-Wash.) also seized on the President's mention of Priest Rapids Dam as a partnership project, saying that if the dam is built "it will be done by the public utility districts in Washington alone without any help from the federal government."

He said he would like to see the budget recommend "one single dollar for Ice Harbor, Hells Canyon or Priest Rapids."

"That's proof of the pudding, not words."

Congresswoman Edith Green (D-Ore.) also stated she was not in agreement with the President's remarks on resource development and is "anxious to see the President's recommendations for education spelled out in considerable detail."

PLANS DIFFER
The association said in its motion that Idaho Power's applications should be dismissed because dam building plans proposed in briefs filed by the company and the FPC legal staff differ from those described in the applications.

The staff recommended in a brief that the three proposed dams be licensed.

The association asked in its motion that portions of the company and staff briefs be stricken if the applications were not dismissed.

The FPC said the motion "requests the commission to render a final decision in these proceedings" and the commission would "have to consider a substantial portion of the record in order to determine whether the motion is sufficient to justify such a decision."

ADDITIONAL TIME
The record in the case, after a year-long hearing on Idaho Power's applications, includes 159 exhibits and volumes of transcript covering 19,258 pages.

The FPC suggested that the association be given additional time for filing of its reply to the FPC staff and Idaho Power briefs—to offset time lost as a result of the dismissal motion.

Examiner Costello later announced suspension of deadlines for the filing of reply and rebuttal briefs, which were to have been submitted Jan. 10 and Jan. 31.

He said Evelyn Cooper, lawyer for the association, indicated recently she probably would ask that the Jan. 10 deadline be extended 40 days if her motion were denied and 21 days if it were "partially denied."

Some extension probably will be given, Costello indicated.

Jane Russell Signs $1 Million Contract
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Jane Russell has a new movie contract that will give her a million dollars for six pictures in five years, but the payments will be spread over a 20-year period.

Howard Hughes of RKO Pictures, who drafted the contract, said Thursday that three of the films will be released by 20th Century-Fox. The contract gives the shapely actress the privilege of making pictures for other companies, including Rusfield Corp., the one she operates with her husband, former football star Bob Waterfield.

Fields Vanish Again Inside Red Hungary

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. officials disclosed Friday that Noel and Herta Field have again vanished from American sight inside Communist Hungary.

The Fields, freed last Nov. 17 after five years in a Hungarian jail, were reported by the Hungarian press last month to have sought asylum in Budapest. Official efforts to affirm or deny these reports have been unavailing.

In fact, officials said, the U. S. legation at Budapest no longer knows the whereabouts of the mysterious American couple.

AT SAME ADDRESS
Officials here said U. S. Minister Christian M. Ravndal has been pressing the Hungarian Foreign Office for information. They said Ravndal was told two days ago that the Fields were at the same Budapest address at which he had visited them last Nov. 18, the day after the Hungarian government officially announced they had been freed and spy charges against them dropped.

When Ravndal sent aides to the address Wednesday, officials said they were told the Fields had checked out around Dec. 15. It was one more bizarre chapter in the case of the disappearing Field family. Noel's brother Hermann, 44, was freed by Communist Poland last October after five years' imprisonment. Rejoined by his wife in November, he dropped out of the public eye somewhere in Switzerland. The State Department has issued him a passport, but is not saying where he is.

Another member of the family who disappeared behind the Iron Curtain is Erika Glaser Walach, 31-year-old foster daughter of the Noel Fields. She was last reported in a Soviet prison camp.

BOTH AILING
Ravndal reported last Nov. 18 he found Noel and Herta "well off," and happy to be free again. He said both were ailing and wanted to enter a Budapest hospital for treatment.

American officials have been wary about expressing any opinion on whether the Noel Fields would ever return to the United States. Noel, 50, who worked for the State Department before World War II, has been named in congressional hearings as a one-time member of a Communist cell in Washington.

Sign Trade Pact
MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Russia and Communist Yugoslavia this week signed their first trade agreement since 1948. The formalities were carried out in the Soviet trade ministry. The pact, to run for a year, envisages an exchange of goods from both sides totaling 20 million dollars.

Wage Boost Favored By Lawmakers

Most in Accord With President

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's proposal to raise the nationwide minimum wage from 75 to 90 cents an hour had a generally good reception in Congress Friday.

Eisenhower's renewed request for changes in the Taft-Hartley Law to advance its "basic objectives" did not appear to have much more practical chance of achievement than last year, when Congress rejected his revision bill.

Sen. Clements (D-Ky.), the assistant Democratic floor leader, said the new Democratic Congress "will raise the minimum wage." He declined to forecast how much.

20 PERCENT BOOST
Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.), outgoing chairman of the Senate Labor Committee which will handle the legislation, included the 90-cent figure in a bill he introduced, and said he would fight to have it enacted. That would be a 20 per cent boost over the present minimum, fixed in 1949.

Sen. Hill (D-Ala.), prospective new chairman of the committee, indicated a lower figure might be more acceptable, although a number of other Democrats have called for $1 or more. Hill said he would have no objection to a boost equal to the rise in the cost of living since 1949—about 13 per cent.

MOST IN SOUTH
The 15-cent hourly increase recommended by Eisenhower would give an automatic wage boost to an estimated 1,300,000 workers, most of them in the South. Some southerners appeared unfriendly to the whole idea of an increase, partly on the ground it would indirectly affect farm labor costs. Outside the South, what criticism there was centered on the fact that the President didn't request an even higher minimum.

AFL President George Meany called the 90-cent figure "puny." CIO officials also termed it inadequate.

Negro Singer to Make Debut at Opera House

NEW YORK (AP)—Marian Anderson will make her debut at the Metropolitan Opera House Friday night—first Negro ever to sing there.

"I'm not sure this happening," she commented. "This is the high point of my career."

The famed singer, once described by Maestro Arturo Toscanini as "a voice that comes once in a century," will play the fortune teller in Verdi's "Masked Ball."

In the audience will be her husband, Orpheus H. Fisher, an architect; and their two daughters.

Miss Anderson said that as a girl she "dreamed of the Met" and once saved money to attend a performance only to find she didn't have half enough for the cheapest ticket.

But now "things that have happened have been so gratifying," she said.

Rudolph Bing, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Co., said last October he engaged her for the role because he thought she would be "wonderful" in it.

Asked at the time whether it meant Negro singers would be welcomed into the company, he said it would depend simply on whether a singer suited the role.

"I wouldn't hire anyone because he is a Negro and I wouldn't refuse to hire anyone because he is a Negro," said Bing.

Miss Anderson said: "With opera, regardless of race, no one wants to aspire to the Met unless he or she is very serious about it."

"But the wonderful thing to know is that it is there to attain, if you are worthy of it."

Her grandmother Mrs. Mollie Netcher Newbury was one of Chicago's most famous businesswomen. She operated the Old Boston Store on State St. She died Dec. 12 at the age of 87.

Mrs. Bragno is the wife of Edward A. Bragno, president of a wine manufacturing and wholesale company.
