Willamette Women's Post 161, American Legion, and Eugene Unit 3, American Legion Auxiliary, wound up a busy holiday season last week when leaders and child welfare chairmen of the two organizations met at Pearl Buck School to present checks to Mrs. H. H. Waechter, director of the school. The $40 from the unit is for a scholarship to the school, the $25 from the post was given as a memorial to Mrs. Nona Tibbetts, mother of one of the post members. It will be used for purchase of some lasting piece of equipment.

Both organizations have been actively interested in the school since its inception. They co-sponsored a coffee in November, inviting the community to view some of the work done by the school and also at Fairview Home, in Salem. Money received
