Visitors from Marcola, Springfield, Eugene, and Cottage Grove lodges attended. Eighty persons, including local people, were present.

House showed that member clubs gave a total of $147 in cash, 378 quarts of canned fruit, 20 quilts, many boxes of used and new clothing, toys and dolls to organizations which they aid. These institutions include Doernbecher Hospital in Portland, Children's Farm Home at Corvallis, Skipworth Juvenile Home, Children's Hospital School and Pearl Buck School in Eugene. They also gave to the Red Cross and National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Some scholarships were given to Boy and Girl Scouts. Reports were made by Mrs. Cliff Abrams of River Road, Mrs. Myrtle Purves of Eugene, Mrs. W. V. Briggs of Glenwood, Mrs. Allen Wheeler and Mrs. J. I. Neeley, both of Pleasant Hill. Members of Santa Clara were complimented on their outstanding contributions.

Mrs. Lloyd Fuller, president, introduced Mrs. Walter F. Hansen, legislative chairman, who presented eight proposals which had been approved by Springfield Altrusa Club for transmission to representatives in Salem. No group endorsement was made but 40 women signed the proposals.

Immediately after the luncheon served by members of River Road Women's Club, Mrs. L. B. Schmidt, program chairman, presented Mrs. N. E. Olson who sang "I Love a Little Cottage" ("O'Hara") and "The Lilac Tree" (Gartlan). Mrs. Larry P. Watson accompanied her at the piano.

Dr. Wesley G. Nicholson, pastor of First Congregational Church, showed pictures taken in the Holy Land last summer and answered questions.
