Grove Riding Club Purchases Tract; Plans Use by Non-Profit Groups

COTTAGE GROVE—Final negotiations for purchase of 41 acres of land, a mile and a half south of Cottage Grove, including the rodeo grounds, were completed last Tuesday by the board of directors of Cottage Grove Riding Club and Mrs. Hattie Sharp, from whom the club has been renting the grounds. The contract signing and presentation of the down payment took place Friday.

Purchase price for the 41 acres was $18,000, with a down payment of $5,000, with 10 years to pay the balance.

Future plans for the Riding Club include a home for the South Lane County Fair Board, 4-H Club, Future Farmers of America and other non-profit organizations. "The Riding Club will do its best to cooperate with other Lane County non-profit organizations to make a better county," said John Wells, clerk of the board of directors.

Plans were discussed Tuesday for the forthcoming annual professional rodeo in mid-summer. A definite date for the rodeo is to be announced.

Lewis Caldwell was elected treasurer of the board. Mrs. Paul Miller, Mrs. Ed Pyeatt and Mrs. James Shepherd were appointed as the new publicity committee.

The committee in charge of the Amateur Talent Show also met with the group. The Show, an old-time box social, will be at Dorena Grange Hall Friday, Jan. 28 at 8 p.m.

The show is open to anyone up to 18 years old, with any type

Educators At Conference

The winter conference of the Oregon Assn. of Secondary School Principals opened Friday at the Erb Memorial Bldg. at the University of Oregon.

The two-day conference ends Saturday.

Speakers are J. G. Umstadt, professor of education at the University of Texas; and Paul E. Jacobson, dean of the University of Oregon school of education. Jacobson will discuss current educational problems, and the Texan will talk on an appraisal of the secondary school.

Rex Putnam, superintendent of the state department of education, is another guest speaker.

Social functions include a crab feed set for Friday night at Eugene High. Later the educators will attend the Oregon-OSC basketball game at McArthur Court.

Principals from junior high schools and high schools of the state are attending. O. Meredith Wilson, president of the U of O, was scheduled to give the welcoming address. Presiding is Cliff Skinner, president of the OEA Secondary School Principals.

Car Hits Pole, Driver Injured

A Eugene man was shaken up Thursday evening when his car went out of control in Glenwood and crashed into a power pole.

Charles Ernest Head, 35, of 318 Knoop Lane, was taken to Sacred Heart Hospital for a checkup and treatment for shock, and then released.

He told state police that he was eastbound and that he braked the car at Springfield junction to avoid another auto. His front wheels went out of control when they ran onto the "jiggle bars" at the intersection, throwing the 1954 hardtop into the pole.

All lights in the intersection were put out of order and a Eugene Water and Electric Board crew had to repair the damage.

State police said they are continuing their investigation.

Office Evacuated

TOKYO (AP)—The U. S. Army evacuated its downtown Tokyo headquarters Friday when a tank containing poisonous chlorine gas sprang a leak and flooded the building. The Army said there were no serious injuries.

of talent accepted. Prizes, to be furnished by the Riding Club, will be $10 for first prize, $6 for second prize and $4 for third prize.

Anyone interested in registering for the Show is asked to call 515-R, 411-J-3, 1222-J-2, 872-R-4. Early entries will be appreciated by the club. Judges will be selected from the community.

Committee in charge of the Show is Orville White, Mrs. Raymond Powers, Mrs. Pyeatt and Mr. Mosby.

The public is invited to attend the event. Admission will be by a box for the box social.

Next regular meeting of the club will be at the clubhouse Tuesday. It will be a potluck dinner at 7 p.m. with business meeting to follow at 8 p.m.

Trapp Files Reply to Suit

Joel D. Trapp, a Eugene business man is being sued by his partner for "wrongful dissolution of partnership," has filed an answer in circuit court denying all major allegations of a complaint filed against Trapp last December.

Trapp's partner, John C. Nichols Jr., is asking $5,000 general damages, alleging Trapp "wrongfully dissolved" a partnership the two men had for operating Joel's Star Loan and Jewelry at 575 Willamette St.

Trapp stated in his answer that Nichols has failed to pay one-half of the costs of constructing the one-story building which houses the business, although there have been "frequent requests" for payment.

The answer asked the court to deny Nichols' request for damages against the defendant.

Elks to Hold Dental Party

Eugene Elks will have their annual Dental Clinic Party and Dance Saturday.

Each year the lodge holds the affair for the sole purpose of raising funds for the support of the lodge's dental clinic.

Doors will open at the temple at noon. A Dutch lunch will be served. Dancing will begin at 9:30 p.m. There will be two orchestras — Ted Charles in the Planter Room and Freddie Yahn in the main ballroom.

All Elks in the area are invited.

The dental clinic, at 20th Ave. and Oak St., is operated for the benefit of needy children. A number of local dentists donate their time and the Elks pay the cost of supplies and equipment.

Musical Planned

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Gloria Swanson, the 56-year-old grandmother who rose to stardom in the silent films and staged a comeback in "Sunset Boulevard" in 1949, now plans a musical version of that movie on Broadway. Richard Shapely and Richard Hughes are writing the musical score, a friend of the actress said.
