

Alumnae Plan Fashion Show

Delta Gamma Alumnae will sponsor a fashion show and card party Tuesday, Feb. 8, at 8 p.m. in the chapter house, 1584 Alder St.

General chairman for the event will be Mrs. John Banks, who has named the following committee chairmen to assist her:

Mrs. Henry Nilsen and Mrs. Nat Giustina, tickets; Mrs. Milton Sparks, decorations; Mrs. Ehrman Giustina, models; Mrs. Roger Wiley, publicity; Mrs. Arthur Ingram, prizes; Mrs. Keith McGilivray and Mrs. Douglas Spencer, refreshments.

Last year, a portion of the proceeds from the fashion show were given to Oregon State Blind School. The remainder was used for a CARE package to provide reading materials for blind people; and locally, to purchase a phonograph for a blind child, to provide a piece of rehabilitation equipment for another child, and to furnish food for a guide dog.

The style show this year will be presented by Kaufman Bros. Cards will be in play, with prizes to be donated by local merchants. Home-made cakes will be served during the refreshment hour.

Anyone interested may obtain tickets from any member or may call Mrs. Nat Giustina at 4-4554.

AROUND THE TOWN

Mademoiselle Editor to Direct ESA Style Parade

"Springtime in Paris" is the theme of the second annual style show of Alpha Zeta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, which will be held at the Elks Club Thursday, Feb. 10. Dessert will be served at 7:30 p.m. followed by the style show and cards.

Fashions from Russell's will be modeled and Miss Pamela Lindus, West Coast editor of Mademoiselle Magazine, will appear as commentator. Mrs. Gordon Duncan and Mrs. Duane Omlid are chairmen of the event, which again will benefit the Children's Hospital School.

The school is the state project of Epsilon Sigma Alpha and February is designated as the month for each chapter to make its contribution to the project.

In keeping with the theme of the show, fashions shown, both for children as well as adults, will be slanted to spring. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the organization or at the door the evening of the benefit event.

Committee reports on the progress of plans for the fashion show were main business at a regular meeting Wednesday.

Judy Radabaugh Honored at Party

Play is Chosen By Players Group

Willamalane Players chose "Two Blind Mice" for their first production when they met recently, and set Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. for try-outs. A single copy of the play is on file at University of Oregon, Humanities Annex 3 in Theatre Arts. On Monday there will be additional copies at Willamalane Memorial Building.

Characters of the play include two elderly women government clerks, and two ultra-smart women, with 14 male roles. These are a pompous senator, a bright young man, an earnest young doctor, several members of the armed forces, and others.

Dues have been set at $3 per year, and payable at once. Mrs. Milton Joranger, acting treasurer, will accept dues at the next meeting.

Letters of congratulation on organizing a players group in Springfield have been received from Tacoma, Wash., and Coos Bay.

Rose Society Fun Night Set

Annual "Fun Night" of Eugene Rose Society is scheduled Friday at Garden Club House, 1645 High St. A potluck dinner is planned at 6:30 p.m. for members and guests, to be followed by a short business meeting and games.

The annual "Fun Night" is a costumed affair based on a rose theme, either by dress or by suggestion. Prizes will be given for the best costumes. However, members are urged not to stay away because they do not wish to dress in costume.

A few names offered as suggestions follow: For music lovers, Fritz Kreisler, Mission Bells, Opera, Rhapsody, and Serenade; for the ladies: Floradora, Fashion, Gay Gypsy, Picture, Peace, Princess Elizabeth, Grand Duchess Charlotte, Pinkie, and Show Girl; for the men: Chief Seattle, Doctor, Mountie, Buccaneer, Forty Niner, and Mandarin.

Members are asked to take table service for themselves and their guests. Coffee, cream and sugar will be furnished by the Rose Society. The following committee heads have charge of the arrangements: Decorations, Mrs. Charles Anderson; food, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dietrich; set-up, Reed Vollstedt; program, Mrs. Levi Smith; publicity, Mrs. Donald Milford.

New members may join the Eugene Rose Society at this time.
