KIWANNIANNES, an organization of wives of members of the two Eugene Kiwanis clubs, Eugene and Emerald Empire, which was formed only last fall, will launch its first public endeavor on St. Patrick's Day, March 17, which is the coming Wednesday. The club will give a public card party in Knights of Pythias Hall, proceeds of which are to go to the Pearl Buck School building fund.

Assistance to the school is the project for the year for this new organization, which is headed by Mrs. Harvey York, president. There are 60 members. The group meets monthly, on third Mondays, alternating noon and evening sessions.

Chairman of the card party is Mrs. Harold Lounsbury, and the committee assisting her in all details includes Mrs. York, Mrs. Guy Harmon, Mrs. John Bristow, Mrs. Carroll Roberts, Mrs. Richard Marshall, Mrs. Loy Rowling, Mrs. Robert Loomis, Mrs. Paul Peterson and Mrs. Brown Hertzinger.

Tickets for the party may be purchased from any member of Kiwanians, or at the door Wednesday evening. Play will begin at 8 p.m.

LIONS CLUB Auxiliaries will have an area meeting Wednesday in the Springfield Memorial Bldg. In honor of the official visit of the state president, Mrs. L. L. Hickok of The Dalles, and other state officers who may accompany her. The meeting will take place at a 7 p.m. dinner, and will be preceded by a punchbowl gathering at 6:30 p.m.

Six auxiliaries of the area are joining in this meeting, and the planning committee, of which Mrs. Richard Allen of the Eugene auxiliary is chairman, includes members from all six, as follows: Eugene, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Otis Kapsa, Mrs. A. L. Hawn; Cascade (Eugene), Mrs. Gordon Robertson, Mrs. Walter Welch, Mrs. Philip Koike, and Mrs. Donald Read; Springfield, Mrs. Clifford Pierce, Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. Dale Canady and Mrs. Norman

Larsen; Lowell, Mrs. Harry Walters and Mrs. Cliff DeJarnette; Mapleton, Mrs. Clarence Cessnaun and Mrs. Ronald Ray; Oakridge, Mrs. C. M. Harris and Mrs. D. Randal Clark.

Coming up March 22 is a morning coffee and book review sponsored by Kappa Kappa Gamma alumnae, of which group Mrs. John Cockrell is president. The event is planned for Tuesday, March 22, at 10 a.m., and will be in the chapter house at 821 E. 15th Ave. It is a benefit for Skipworth Juvenile Home.

Dr. Wendell H. Stephenson, professor of history at University of Oregon, will review the book, "A Self-made Man in America," by Irvin G. Wyllie. The book is subtitled: "The Myth of Rags to Riches."

Mrs. John Bosse is chairman of the morning benefit, and anyone wishing to make advance reservation may phone her, 4-3404, or Mrs. S. W. Groesbeck, 4-8214.

Five candidates have been nominated by women's organizations of Eugene for the Jaycee-ettes woman of the Year award, which is to be presented at a luncheon and style show in Eugene High School cafeteria Saturday, March 26. Tickets for the luncheon have been going fast, we're told. It is a benefit for Pearl Buck School.

The five young women named by participating groups are: Mrs. William Manley, William-
