MRS. DONALD L. DENNIS (Betty Murphy) and her husband are at home now in Eugene, following their marriage Feb. 12 in First Church of the Nazarene.

Lace, Tulle, and Satin Form Wedding Gown

Lace and tulle over satin formed the wedding dress of Miss Betty Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess C. Simmons, of Eugene, for her marriage Feb. 12 to Donald L. Dennis in First Church of the Nazarene, Eugene. The ceremony took place at 8 p.m., the Rev. Duane E. Muth, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. Dennis of Eugene are parents of the bridegroom.

Mr. Simmons gave the bride in marriage. Her gown was made with bodice of Chantilly lace over satin, with scalloped sweetheart neckline and long sleeves, pointed at the wrist. The skirt also was of lace, underlaid by two layers of tulle, and over satin. The lace was scalloped in apron effect, the tulle and satin formed the train. She wore a fingertip veil attached to a heart-shaped crown of lace, and her flowers were a white orchid with red carnations, arranged on a white ribbon.

Maid of honor was Miss Carolyn Ketchum, in a waltz-length dress of red net over off-white tulle, worn with red velvet bolero jacket. She carried a heart-shaped bouquet with white carnations, tied with white ribbons.

Miss Ruth Barber of Eugene and Miss Wanda Goulding of Springfield, bridesmaids, were similarly attired, in all-red gowns, and they also carried heart-shaped bouquets.

Candles were lighted by Paul Murphy, brother of the bride, and Bonnie Rust of Portland, bridegroom's cousin.

Best man was Eugene D. Thiesen of Eugene, and Merton Nitschke and Bruce Fleener, Eugene, were ushers.

Candelabra and palms were background for baskets of white stock and white carnations, used as decorations. Luther Thompson, soloist, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," with Mrs. Kenneth Hunt playing accompaniment.

The wedding reception took place after the ceremony in Fellowship hall adjoining Mrs. Walter Rust, the bridegroom's aunt, served the heart-shaped cake, encircled with red carnations, which was the centerpiece of the refreshment table. Mrs. Bud Butler served punch. Groom's cake also was served, Miss Carolyn Parsons and Miss Muriel Levas assisting with serving.

The young couple left on a wedding trip to California, and are at home at 728 W. 5th Ave. Among out-of-town guests was the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. William Dennis of Pasadena, Calif.

Junction City Girl is Bride In Ceremony

JUNCTION CITY—Miss Dixie Lea Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Adams, became the bride of Dick Dale Dimick in a candlelight ceremony in the Baptist Church Saturday, March 5. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Dimick of Foster. The Rev. Joyce Stanley Kendall, pastor of the Junction City Methodist Church, performed the 7:30 p.m. ceremony.

Yellow tapers in candelabra with large yellow bows, flanked by tall baskets of daffodils, Dutch iris and acacia formed the setting for the ceremony. Miss Sandra Gilmore sang "Because" and "O Promise Me," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Harold Darling.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over white satin. The lace bodice was made with a net yoke with lace applique, and tapered panels of lace were inset to the hemline in the tulle overskirt. She wore a rhinestone necklace and earrings, a gift from the bridegroom, and carried an orchid on a white Bible. Her veil was edged with wide lace and fell from a tiara of mock orange blossoms and seed pearls.

Mrs. Harold D. Rice, sister of the bride, was matron of honor in pink lace and net over tulle. The lace bodice was edged with net ruffles and insets of lace formed deep points in the net overskirt. She wore a band of pink forget-me-nots in her hair and carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations with pink streamers. Miss Janice Adams, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid in an aqua tulle gown made with a silver embroidered bodice with net ruffling at the neckline and a net covered jacket. She wore matching flowers in her hair and carried a matching ribbon.

Flower girls were Cheryl Ann Greenough and Carolyn June Rice, nieces of the bride. They wore identical pink nylon and lace dresses with miniature pink velvet bows and blue forget-me-nots scattered over the skirt and bodice. They had pink bands in their hair and carried white baskets filled with pink and white carnation petals.

Miss Faye Shumate and Miss Clara Wright lighted the candles. R. R. Randolph of Sweet Home was best man and ushers were Robert Grubbs and Robert Feigles.

The reception took place in the high school cafeteria where Mrs. J. E. Smith of Silverton cut the cake, and Mrs. B. Nickeson, both cousins of the bride, served the coffee. Mrs. Niels Borgaard, aunt of the bride, poured punch. Mrs. Myron Greenough had the guest book, and gifts were in the charge of Miss Jean Beyerlin, Miss Shirley Lawrence and Mrs. Percy Lawrence.

The bride's going-away costume was a pink sharkskin suit with white accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet. They are now at home at Sweet Home after a short honeymoon trip to eastern Oregon.

Couple Wed At Elmira

Miss Delores Jeanne Archer became the bride of Galen N. Farnsworth Sunday, Feb. 27, in Elmira Church of Christ. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Clair Meade of Elmira and Harold Archer of Garberville, Calif. Mr. Farnsworth's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Farnsworth of Wolf Creek Road, Veneta.

Large urns of daffodils and pussywillows decorated the church where Mr. Marshall Collier, pastor, officiated at the 12 noon ceremony. Music was by Miss Ruth Bowlsby, who sang "Together Life's Pathway We Tread," accompanied by Mrs. C. S. Bowlsby, who also played the wedding march.

Miss Archer, whose sister Carol, was her only bridal attendant, wore a light blue suit with white hat and blue accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of pale pink carnations. The attendant wore a gray suit, pink hat and corsage of deep pink carnations.

Doyle Farnsworth was his brother's best man.

Bouquets of spring flowers decorated the home of the bride's mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Meade, for the reception. Mrs. Meade and Miss Carol Archer served refreshments to 40 guests.

Mrs. Farnsworth wore her wedding suit when leaving for a short wedding trip to the Oregon coast. The bride will continue her studies at Elmira Union High School while the groom is attending University of Oregon. They are at home on old Elmira Road.
