

Party Follows Hawaii Theme

Teen-age friends honored Miss Karen Schreiner with a Hawaiian birthday party recently at 1050 Cal Young Road, home of Miss Jerrie Schreiner. Guests were greeted at the door with leis and Hawaiian music.

Large palm trees, in a setting of hibiscus and other flowers, formed a background. Two miniature islands centered an azure blue table which represented the sea. Tiny crepe paper natives amid palms and a thatched hut provided one island scene; a volcano formed the other.

Games were played, an amateur radio broadcast, in which Garth Elmore and Paul Morgan tied for first prizes, was a special hit. Buffet refreshments were served in baskets. Guests, forming a circle, sat on the floor in Hawaiian fashion.

Those attending, besides those named, were Miss Dorothy Snyder, Miss Colleen Johnson, Miss Linda Holting, Miss Janice Richins, Miss Edna Ward, Miss Pat Cleveland, Miss Shirley McGuire, Fred Crafts, Kent Yockey, James Elias, Charles Huss, and Sheldon Thorne.

Oakland Couple Wed 40 Years

OAKLAND—Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Chenoweth were honored at an open house recently on the occasion of their 40th anniversary. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Medley. About 100 friends called to congratulate the Chenoweths.

Instrumental music was furnished by Delmar Record and Laurel James. Their granddaughter played the accordion and Mrs. Vern Holgate and John Hakanson sang.

Decorations were in pink and white. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Mabel Allen, Mrs. Carl Thornton, Mrs. Leroy Chenoweth, a daughter-in-law, and Mrs. George Chenoweth, a sister-in-law. Miss Lora Shute and Virgil Chenoweth were married at the home of the bride's parents near Sutherlin. The couple has spent most of their 40 years of married life near Oakland. They have one son, Leroy, and two grandchildren.

A Princess Of Fashion For Day or Night Time

No. 290

It's as young and stylish as you could ever wish, with the lovely princess lines designed to smooth your waist and billow out into the most feminine of flared skirts! What's more, it's created to double as jumper or date dress, depending on the time of day, and your mood too. As a date-dress, it's versatile; there's a brief little collared bolero with new-length just-above-the-elbow cuffed sleeves, made to match. For daytime wear, there's a casual blouse included. It's the core of your wardrobe all in one pattern — and so very 1955-looking, too!

FABRIC SUGGESTIONS: The sky's the limit, really, but you can pick to suit your purpose — heavy handsome cottons, in plains or spring-suggestive prints, velveteen and corduroy, are all suitable for both day and evening wear. Try bengaline, taffeta, or any of the silk and crepe family, if you're planning strictly for the social whirl.

STAR PATTERN NO. 290 is cut in sizes 10, 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. MATERIAL REQUIREMENTS: Size 16: Dress, 3 1/4 yards 39-inch Bolero, 1 1/2 yards 39-inch.

For the STAR PATTERN NO. 290 shown above, send 50c in coin to STAR PATTERN Department, Eugene Register-Guard, Rincón Box 3032, San Francisco 19, Calif. DO NOT send to Eugene!

Evening Service Said for Couple

A single-ring ceremony in the parsonage of Bethesda Lutheran Church recently married Mrs. Edith Louise Walder and John Harrison Conley, both of Eugene. Mrs. Walder's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Trapp of Springfield. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Ingward Olsen, pastor, at 9 p.m.

The bride wore a blue taffeta dress in waltz length, made with plain bodice having cap sleeves and skirt with gored fullness in back. She wore diamond earrings which were a gift from the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of orchids and pink carnations. She carried, for sentiment, a silk handkerchief 70 years old which had belonged to her mother.

Mrs. Roy Haxby of Eugene was the bride's attendant, and H. C. Conley was best man.

The couple will be at home at 2183 Washington St., Eugene.
