Red Poles Sentence 'Americans' to Death

LONDON (AP)—Communist Poland announced Saturday night that two of "a group of agents of the American Secret Service," convicted of espionage, have been sentenced to death.

The Polish official news agency, PAP, said, in a broadcast monitored here, that the district military court of Warsaw had pronounced the sentences.

The accused were Jerzy Lewszewski and Jozef Babiarz. The broadcast described Babiarz as a deserter from the Polish army "who went over to the enemy and carried on espionage work."

Springfield Firemen Put Out 2 Blazes

Two small fires were extinguished by the Springfield Fire Department Saturday afternoon.

Firemen were called at 1:08 p.m. to put out a roof fire at the home of James T. Bible, 942 East N St. The blaze was caused by sparks from a defective flu, firemen said. Damage to the roof was slight.

At 4:40 p.m. firemen put out a grass fire in a vacant lot at 1221 Q St., near North Gate Homes. The blaze was brought under control before it reached a house next to the lot. There was no damage.

Red Artillery Expert Dies

LONDON (AP)—Deputy Soviet Defense Minister Marshal Leonid Govorov, one of the 5 Soviet leaders who were reported marked for death in Russia's so-called "doctors' plot," died Saturday.

The death of the defender of Leningrad and one of Russia's outstanding artillery experts, was announced by Radio Moscow in a broadcast monitored here.

Moscow Radio said the marshal died after "a prolonged and grave illness."

In January, 1933, Marshal Govorov was named as one of the 5 high officers of the Soviet army who were supposedly slat-
