MUSICAL GIFT—Inspecting some of the records that the John Phetteplace Guild recently presented to the Children's Hospital School are Mrs. Edgar Wiberg, Guild president, and two of the school pupils, Herbert Cobb, 8½, and Janet Kellis, 4. In addition to the records, the Guild has donated to the school $700 which was collected through various projects, including the annual silver show.

Matrix Table Honors Four As Women of Achievement

Eugene members of Theta Sigma Phi, and local civic leaders and journalists have received invitations to the seventh annual Matrix Table Banquet April 14, 7:30 p.m., at the Multnomah Hotel Rose Bowl in Portland.

Honored guests will be the 1955 Women of Achievement named by the alumna members of the journalism honorary. These include: Kay Bollam, director of The Oregonian Hostess House;

Berte Weichmann, executive designer for Jantzen, Inc.; Louise Humphrey, acting manager of Oregon Business and Tax Research and Mrs. Clifford Zolinger, founder of Senior Craftsman of Oregon and expert in the field of gerontology.

Also announced will be the winner of the Edith Knight Hill Memorial Award. This award, is presented to the person who has made an outstanding contribution to Oregon.

Edith Knight Hill was known to Oregon newspaper readers as Marian Miller. For many years she conducted a column in The Portland Oregonian. Past winners have been Dr. Burt Brown Barker, Ben Hur Lampman, Stewart Holbrook and George Palmer Putnam.

Featured speaker will be Helen Murray Hall, Hollywood, Cal., manager of advertising and promotion for the National Broadcasting Company, western division. She will talk about "Women Behind the Screen in Network Television."

The Matrix Table Banquet is a traditional affair sponsored each year by all alumna and student chapters of Theta Sigma Phi and serves as a gathering place for some of Oregon's best known men and women.

Guild Officers To Be Installed

Mrs. P. L. Herbig, vice president of the Central Deaneary of Episcopal Church Guilds, will install officers of St. John's Episcopal Church Guild Thursday, beginning with a noon luncheon in the church. Mrs. Sherman Everett will be general chairman for the luncheon.

Officers to be installed will be Mrs. Irving Olson, president; Mrs. Alexander Seavy, first vice president; Mrs. Lon Burford, second vice president; Mrs. Harry Winsor, secretary and Mrs. Carl Porterfield, treasurer.
