Charles Demings Have Anniversary Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deming celebrated their golden wedding anniversary April 17 at an open house at their home in Meadowview.

Hosts were the couple's three children and their families: Mr. and Mrs. Warren DeMaria, Reno, Nev.; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Engler, Everett, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Fisher and children, Michael, Scott, and Randy, Meadowview.

Among the guests were four persons who had attended the wedding 50 years ago: Mr. and Mrs. Ern Duckworth of Elmira, Mrs. Deming's brother and Mr. Deming's sister, who were witnesses; Mrs. Charles Bailey and Darwin Hale, both of Noil.

The serving table was decorated with an arrangement of yellow snapdragons and roses. The tiered wedding cake was topped with a bride and groom and trimmed in gold leaves, roses and bells.

Mrs. Harry Schrenk and Mrs. E. C. Young poured. Mrs. Ray Sanborn and Mrs. Harold Schrenk cut the cake. Mrs. Harold Thompson and Mrs. Joe Hill served the punch. Others assisting included Mrs. Curtis Sanborn, Mrs. Richard Backberg and Mrs. James Harford. Mrs. Larry Woolley and Mrs. Ben Simpson had charge of the gifts and the guest book.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Jack Larkin, Seattle, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. George Herrmann, The Dalles; Lucille Steamer, Astoria; Jack Maris and Mrs. George Simmons, Portland; Mrs. Orvil Rice and son, Randy, Empire; Mr. and Mrs. Benton Schrenk and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Schrenk and children, Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Bart Morrow, Lebanon.

Y-Teens to Sell Candy Saturday

Y-Teens of Eugene and Springfield area will stage an all-out candy sale Saturday, April 23. Girls from various Y-Teen groups will begin selling at 10 a.m., working both in downtown districts and in residential areas.

Proceeds from the sale will go to Central Lane Y Building Fund. Candy to be sold will be packaged in half-pound boxes with the Y-Teen seal on the covers, and consists of chocolate-covered after-dinner type mints.

LDS Books Annual Dance

Willamette Stake, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, will present its annual Green and Gold Ball Saturday, April 23, in the cafeteria of Eugene High School. This is the one formal dance of several such affairs given by young people of the church during the year, sponsored by the Mutual Improvement Association, youth group.

Willamette Stake includes the LDS churches in the area from Salem to Roseburg, which makes for large attendance. Last year there were 600 at the ball.

General chairmen are Harold Gardner and John Bell, the latter having charge of the floor show. Decorations are to be provided by the Salem group. The theme is "Spring Fantasy," and it is planned to utilize spring blossoms and shrubs.

Music will be furnished by Gene Slayter's orchestra. Ticket chairmen are Carl Johnson and Mrs. John Shirley. Mrs. Rulon Lee of Corvallis is refreshment chairman.

Patrons and patronesses for the ball will be Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lake, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wright, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mortensen, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Webb, and Dr. and Mrs. Wesley Goulding, Corvallis.

Garden Club Plans Benefit

Eugene Garden Club will have a benefit card party Tuesday at the clubhouse, 1645 High St. Dessert luncheon will be served, starting at 1 p.m.

Proceeds from the party will go to three state projects: State loan scholarship fund to be given a girl studying horticulture in an Oregon school; the national cemetery for Oregon veterans to be located in Portland; the new home offices of the National Federation of Garden Clubs of America, to be built in the Shaw Botanical Gardens in St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Glen Casady, Eugene Garden Club president, has appointed Mrs. L. M. Watson and Mrs. O. R. Leslie as co-chairmen. Mrs. Watson has announced the following committee chairmen: Arrangements, Mrs. Charles Anderson; table decorations, Mrs. Carl Hammer; tallies and cards, Mrs. O. K. Burrell; dessert, Mrs. Leo Hanrahan; tickets, Mrs. Glen Casady; prizes, Mrs. O. R. Leslie; publicity, Mrs. Everett Eggleston.

Reservations for the party may be made by calling Mrs. Glen Casady—3-3717, or Mrs. E. S. Johnson—3-6525. Play will start at 2, each table being free to choose its own game. A choice plant or bouquet of flowers will be the prize for each table.

ESA Dates State Meeting This Weekend

Epsilon Sigma Alpha will open its state convention in Eugene Friday evening with Alpha Rho Chapter, of Springfield as hostess club and Alpha Zeta Chapter of Eugene assisting. Sessions will be in the Eugene Hotel, according to Mrs. Orville Miltonberger, general chairman.

A tour of the Weyerhaeuser plant will be a pre-conference affair, conducted under the leadership of Miss Gerry Chellis.

Mrs. I. J. Bean of Roseburg, president, will call the convention into formal session Saturday morning with greetings by Miss Faye Isaacson and Mrs. Hal Skinner. Workshops have been arranged by Mrs. Emerick Hultin and Mrs. Robert Lee.

Four Lane County women will be named as candidates for office by Mrs. George Marling, second vice president of the state organization and chairman of the nominating committee.

They are Mrs. Leon Landry, for president; Miss Grace Iseminger, for corresponding secretary, both from Eugene; Mrs. Orville Miltonberger, for treasurer; Miss Bonnie Nicholas, for historian, both from Springfield.

Dance arrangements will be made by Mrs. Robert I. Hamilton, Mrs. Gordon Duncan, Mrs. Ray Wrigglesworth and Mrs. George Romine.

Mrs. Hamilton and Miss Shirley White will direct the tour of the children's Hospital School Sunday afternoon. Assistance to the school is the main project of the sorority.

Dinner to Honor Gold Star Group

Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary made plans at their April meeting held at Veterans Memorial Bldg. to honor Gold Star Mothers and Fathers at a dinner May 25.

A program of musical numbers will entertain the guests, and DAV Auxiliary Juniors will present a drill and give corsages to Gold Star Mothers.

No social meeting will be held in April in order that members may attend the DAV carnival to raise funds for hospital work.

Mrs. Margaret Collins was voted a membership award in recognition of her many trips to the Roseburg Hospital and contributions of homemade candy she has provided for the patients there.

Election of officers and delegates for the convention June 15 in Tillamook was announced for the May 11 meeting.
