3 Rodeo Events Offered In Oregon This Weekend

PENDLETON—Rodeo fans love three events Eastern Oregon this weekend.

The seventh annual Eastern Oregon Junior Rodeo for cowpokes aged 9 to 18 is being held at John Day Saturday and Sunday. With a horse show to play afternoon, Grant Fair, Selene is among show judges.

The Evergreen Riding Club will hold its first rodeo Sunday at its grounds at Ukiah, south of here, on Highway 395, and the Pendleton Mustangs Riding Club will hold its spring show at the Dry Tutuilla arena near here Sunday.

OTL Bills Signed

SALEM—The signature of Gov. Paul Patterson gave the go ahead this week for construction projects at the penitentiary and Oregon Technical Institute.

The two bills appropriate $415,000 for cellhouse and power house construction at the prison, and $414,380 for shop building construction at OTI.

Both bills carry emergency clauses, so construction can be ordered immediately.

Life Sentences

SALEM—A bill permitting judges to give life sentences to habitual sex offenders against children was signed into law this week by Gov. Paul Patterson.

Such persons would have their records reviewed by psychiatrists every two years. They would be released when considered cured.

The governor also signed the bill creating a commission to plan a centennial or world's fair for Oregon's 100th anniversary of statehood in 1959.

Possible Debate Site

LA GRANDE—Eastern Oregon College of Education was added Friday as another of the possible sites for the proposed series of debates between Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore) and Rep. Coon (R-Ore).

Coon accepted an invitation from Dr. Frank Bennett, the college president. Coon also has accepted invitation from Baker, Ontario and Pendleton. Bennett said a reply is awaited from Neuberger.

The two are to debate whether Coon's bill for partnership construction of the John Day Dam is in the public interest.

Court Okays Burlesque, Sans Smut

NEW YORK—The 18-year-old ban on "burlesque" in New York City has been lifted by court order, but the shows apparently won't be what they used to be.

State Supreme Court Justice Aron Steuer has cleared the way for a producer to display the burlesque signs that were ruled out in 1937 when the shows got too raw.

Steuer directed City License Commissioner Edward J. McCaffrey to grant a license to Thomas J. Phillips for presentation of vaudeville and burlesque.

ARBITRARY ACTION

Steuer said McCaffrey's refusal to grant a burlesque license was "arbitrary and capricious" and was carrying out his duties "in the light of his personal moral code." The justice also said McCaffrey's action amounted to illegal censorship.

There was no immediate indication of whether the city would appeal from Steuer's ruling.

Phillips, executive director of the Burlesque Artists Assn., had been refused a license by McCaffrey to stage burlesque at the Orpheum Theater in Brooklyn. Phillips promised the shows would be "clean" and "family-type" without the bumps, grinds, strip-teasers and smutty jokes that got burlesque into trouble back in the 1930s.

WORD BANNED

The crux of Phillips' appeal to Steuer was on the right to use the word "burlesque" in connection with shows. The word had been banned along with the smut.

McCaffrey said on April 20 in refusing a license that he was obligated to protect two types of people: (1) those who would be offended by seeing a burlesque show of the type that had been banned, and (2) those who bought tickets to see that kind of a show, only to find that the bumps and grinds were no longer in the shows.

McCaffrey held two public hearings before a final rejection of Phillips' application.

Club Evacuated

MEDFORD—Brown's Club, one of Medford's largest downtown food and billiard establishments closed early Thursday night because of a telephoned bomb threat.

When police were told of the threat that a bomb would go off at 11 p.m., they advised the club to close at 10 p.m. It did and a search revealed nothing, the same result as in similar affairs throughout the Northwest in recent weeks.

Injured Boy Dies

PORTLAND—Donald H. Leap, 9, injured Wednesday when a trolley pole from an interurban car fell on him, died Thursday in a local hospital.

The boy was in surgery for several hours.

Heir, 22, Renounces 'Yoke' of $400,000

NEW YORK—A Yale University senior who says he has "two hands and a head" of his own has won the right to reject $400,000 left to him by his father.

Surrogate William T. Collins this week upheld the decision of Eugene F. Suter Jr., 22, of New York, to renounce the fortune. Trustees of the fund had opposed his action on grounds it would destroy the trust.

About half the area of China is more than a mile above sea level.

NO OTHER INCOME

The young man, son of a millionaire inventor and machinery manufacturer who died in 1943, has no other source of income.

But he told the trustees of the estate acceptance of the fund would violate his "moral and political" principles.

He received about $36,000 income from the trust on his 21st birthday but immediately gave it away: $11,000 to the American Friends Service Committee; $5,000 to the Socialist Party; $1,500 to the U.S. Grant School for Negroes at Yale; and most of the rest to his mother.

Collins, declaring he made his ruling "reluctantly," said the law was not concerned with the wisdom or motive of Suter's renunciation, but only with its legality.

FREEDOM OF CHOICE

He said the law supports Suter's "insistence that as a member of a free society, with a freedom of choice, he cannot be yoked by this inheritance."

The young disdainer of wealth worked on a Vermont farm last summer. He has said he has no specific plans for the future except to "go West someplace."

The court decision is final.

North Viet Nam Extends Deadline

LONDON—North Viet Nam has extended for a month the time in which residents of North Viet Nam may move to the non-Communist south, the British Foreign Office announced Friday.

The original deadline was midnight, May 18. About 700,000 refugees already have quit North Viet Nam and Western officials estimate there are 400,000 more who want to leave.

Units Activated

SEOUL—Activation of two more army reserve divisions Friday brought the South Korean reserve strength to eight divisions in addition to 29 active divisions.

TREES TORN DOWN

BOGOTA, Colombia—A hurricane tore down more than a million banana trees in Magdalena Department Thursday.

NEW POLICE CHIEF

UMATILLA, Ore.—James Robert Pilot Rock, Ore., has been named police chief of this eastern Oregon town, which was without a peace officer for two days.

Roberts, named by city commissioners Friday, replaces Hugh Little, who resigned Tuesday, according to city officials. Little has maintained he was ousted.

Club Evacuated

MEDFORD—Brown's Club, one of Medford's largest downtown food and billiard establishments closed early Thursday night because of a telephoned bomb threat.

When police were told of the threat that a bomb would go off at 11 p.m., they advised the club to close at 10 p.m. It did and a search revealed nothing, the same result as in similar affairs throughout the Northwest in recent weeks.

Nagy Stripped Of Last Post

BUDAPEST, Hungary—The Hungarian press announced Friday that former Premier Imre Nagy has been stripped of his last remaining public post.

Nagy was purged from the premiership last month for alleged right-wing deviationism. He resigned Thursday as vice chairman of the Hungarian Patriotic People's Front, the press reported.

The patriotic front, an organization embracing all aspects of Hungarian society, was founded last September.

WESTERN ROLES—Two-fisted sheriff, James Cagney, questions his deputy, John Derek, about the loss of a prisoner to a lynch mob in a scene from Paramount's "Run for Cover," opening Sunday at the McDonald.

Man Cleared Of Assault

ALBANY, Ore.—Ivan Dale Holland, 22, was cleared Thursday by a District Court jury of three men and three women of a charge of assault and battery on a Lebanon man whose wife has carried on a crusade against a alleged welfare fund misuse.

The jury took less than an hour to free Holland of the March 9 attack on E. A. Gall, 65.

Mrs. Gall had written a letter to a Lebanon newspaper describing what she said were misuses of welfare funds. Authorities said at the time the beating of her husband may have been a result of the letter.

Holland testified he acted in self-defense and that Gall had raised his hand to strike him.
