

Cleveland Lead Cut by Detroit.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Cleveland Indians' American League lead was trimmed to a thin half-game Friday night when the Tribe took an 11-4 lacing from the Detroit Tigers and the second place New York Yankees whipped the Baltimore Orioles, 7-5.

Foul Costly In 880 Race

LOS ANGELES — Arnie Sowell, Pittsburgh's great middle distance runner, today refused to blame Tom Courtney of Fordham for knocking him out of the 880-yard run in last night's Coliseum Relay.

Courtney was disqualified out of his victory in the half-mile in one of two disqualifications as chilly weather kept even meet records to a minimum, to the mild disappointment of the crowd of 56,173.

One of the relay marks set was by Wes Santee, America's premier miler, who ran the four laps in 4:05.5 to set a new mark for the event. Billy Tidwell, another Kansan from State Teachers, was second nearly 20 yards back of Santee while Phil Coleman of Chicago was third.

The other two relay marks were in the javelin throw and the hop step and jump. In the javelin, world record holder Bud Held was eliminated despite his protests when his fourth qualifying throw failed to land point down and break the ground. Cy Young, the Olympic champion, emerged the winner after Held was disqualified. Young won with a throw of 256 feet, the best of his career.

In the hop, step and jump, Brazil's Ademair Da Silva leaped 50 feet, 9 1/2 inches to break the relay record of 47 feet, 10 inches but he was a little less than a foot short of the mark of 51 feet, 7 inches set in the 1932 Olympic games here.

It was 30 minutes after Courtney was announced as the 880 winner in 1:50.3, fastest half-mile of the year for a college runner, before the judges decided he had fouled Sowell and disqualified him.

Ron Delaney, the Villosa frosh, was moved into first place, Len Spurrier, the unofficial world's record holder into second, Lang Stanley up to third and Mal Whitfield to fourth.

Cougars Down Vandals, 9-5
MOSCOW, Idaho — Idaho, struggling through one of the worst seasons in memory, fell before Washington State 9-5 Friday for its 12th straight Northern Division baseball loss.

The Cougars got to Vandal starter Aubrey Stevens for seven runs on eight hits in the first two innings. Reliever Tom Vopat allowed only two runs and his successor, Roger Ranta, threw no-hit ball for Idaho in the final three innings.

But the Cougars, whose biggest blow was a double by Ron Foysy in the first, had the necessary points to coast to victory.

W.S.C.'s Jerry Barlow allowed Idaho only nine hits before relief in the ninth.

Axemen Golfers Beat Corvallis, South Salem

Eugene's prep golfers defeated Corvallis and South Salem in match play Friday at Salem as the Axemen tuned up for defense of their state title in the state meet Monday and Tuesday at Glendoveer course in Portland.

Broncs 11, Bears 4

YAKIMA — The Lewiston Broncs collected their 12 hits in bunches Friday night to take an 11-4 Northwest League baseball victory from the Yakima Bears.

Echo Wins Bath

EMMILLA — Echo High School, the district champion, defeated A.D.M. in the district winner, 9-5 Friday to win the title in the state high school baseball tournament.

Beavers Pare Playing Roster

PORTLAND — To reduce to the Pacific Coast League player limit of 21 the Portland Beavers Friday sold one man and rejected another.

Whitman Extends Hitting Streak

By UNIFIED PRESS
The San Diego Padres rolled to their seventh straight victory Friday night with an 8-2 decision over Sacramento behind the effective pitching of John Carmichael, who is making a belated bid for rookie of the year honors in the Pacific Coast League.

KAZAK HOMERS

Carmichael, who had a 20-10 record with Yakima of the Western International League last year, gave up nine hits in Sacramento but was tough in the clutch. He was backed by a 12-hit attack including Eddie Kazak's third homer. The Padres gave him a four-run cushion in the first inning off loser John Briggs 3-4.

ATHLETICS EDGED

In other American League action Art Dittmer tossed a smooth two-hitter against the Chicago White Sox to lead the Kansas City A's to a 1-0 triumph, while the Washington Senators, behind the hurling of Bob Porterfield and Johnny Schmitz, turned back the Boston Red Sox, 3-1.

PHILS ROUTED

In the National League, the Philadelphia Phillies showed they were not quite ready to be hurled by beating Brooklyn, 5-3. It was the Brooks' fourth loss in a row and cut their lead to 6 1/2 games because the second place New York Giants squashed Pittsburgh, 6-3.

CHICAGO ROUTED

Cincinnati routed St. Louis, 10-7, and the Chicago Cubs defeated the Milwaukee Braves, 4-2.

DITTMER COMPLETE

Dittmer was the complete master of the White Sox, permitting just two singles, walking three, hitting one and striking out five. No opposing batter got beyond first base. The A's scored the winning run in the first inning on singles by Enos Slaughter and Vic Power and a sacrifice fly.

PORTERFIELD AND SCHMITZ

Porterfield and Schmitz permitted the Red Sox only six hits. Porterfield, who has been plagued by hard luck during his major league career, was forced to retire after five innings when his pitching arm stiffened as a result of being struck by a line drive by Billy Klaus in the second. He got credit for his fifth decision, though.

PHILS COLLECTED

The Phils collected enough runs in the first three innings to drop the Dodgers, tapping Billy Loes for two each in the second and third. Andy Seminick added an insurance home run in the ninth. Robin Roberts, who has won half the Phillies 10 decisions, went all the way for the winners.

PHILS HAD 15 OF 16 GAMES

The Phils had lost 15 of 16 games before Friday night.

BILL TAYLOR

Bill Taylor, another of the Giants' pinch hitters extraordinary, broke up the ball game when he swatted a home run with two mates on to break a tie. The blow came on the first pitch by Max Surkont and sent the Buccos down to their eight straight loss. The Giants had to come from behind to tie it with two in the seventh. Reliever Hoyt Wilhelm was the winner.

CINCINNATI TROUNCED

Cincinnati trounced the Cards the easy way, collecting six runs on two hits in the eighth inning. The big blow of the inning was a bases-loaded home run by Smokey Burgess. The triumph was the Reds' fourth in a row and snapped a five-game winning streak of the Cards.

CUBS HAD TO GO 19 INNINGS

The Cubs had to go 19 innings to pull out the victory over the Braves. Rookie Bob Speake hit a home run with one on in the 10th off Warren Spahn, who took over in the eighth. That was the game.

WENATCHEE STARTED

Wenatchee started the scoring in the sixth with one run but fell behind as Spokane added two each in the seventh and eighth. The locals moved ahead with a 4-run spurge in their half of the eighth only to have Spokane take over with six runs in the ninth.

WENATCHEE RAPPED

Wenatchee rapped three Spokane pitchers in its grand finale and wound it all up with a slugfest enthusiastically participated in by all players from both teams. The fistfights started after Edo Vanni, Wenatchee manager, was heard to say one of his players had been tripped by a Spokane man at third. Only bruises resulted.

SPokane's Eddie Murphy

Spokane's Eddie Murphy got two doubles during the tilt, one a three-runner in the ninth.

COLINS SHARE BEAVERS

If there were Academy awards for black eyes and sore heads, four-year-old Mary Catherine Colteux, left, of Clifton, Kan., and Ronald Martin, 5, of Salina, Kan., might win the honors. The children, cousins, were hit on the head by baseball bats just a day apart at different places, but under the same circumstances. They just ran into bats being swung by playmates.

LOOK, MA, NO HANDS

Waiting to do his bit in a parochial school music festival at Youngstown, Ohio, this youngster sat calmly with his hands in his pockets, giving his bubble gum a good workout. There were 2,261 other students from 24 schools on the program and 6,000 people in the stands—but they didn't bother him one bit.
