

Emeralds Take League Lead

PLYWOOD, GUARD WIN

Warren's Share Minor Red Lead

Warren Hardware's victory Monday night over Glen & Vern's left it and Shell Dealers with three triumphs and no defeats and set the stage for Wednesday's showdown between the two unbeaten Minor Red teams, while U.S. Plywood and Register-Guard escaped the cellar with their first victory of the season during city softball action at Washington Park.

Warren Hardware whitewashed Glen & Vern's in five innings, 8-0; Martin Signs trampled River Road Merchants, 18-7; and U.S. Plywood moved from the basement by edging Active Club, 7-6, for its first Minor Red decision. Register-Guard shoved Foresters into last place by a 9-5 count in the only Minor White battle.

Jerry Laing limited Glen & Vern's to one hit, a single by

Phinney Wins Shoot Trophy

OAKRIDGE — George Beebe, Eugene, was high over all with 97 and Oliver Phinney, Oakridge, claimed the George Thatcher Memorial Trophy here Sunday in trapsshots registered by the PITA and staged by Cascade Gun and Rod club.

"Beebe shot a perfect 25 to win a Class A shootoff with Lew Wells, Sacramento, who hit 24, after they had tied at 50. John Hurd, Eugene, was Class B winner with 48, while David Kocer, Oakridge, was second with 48.

Tops in Class C was Rudy Bydberg, Westfir, who had 44 to edge Lloyd Hauptman, Chemult, at 43.

Phinney had to battle through two shootoffs before he gained the memorial trophy. Phinney, Clarence Ryker of Estacada, and George Jantzer of Medford each finished with 48 in the handicap event. Phinney and Ryker shot 23 and then Phinney had a 24-23 edge in the second shootoff.

That left Ryker winner and Jantzer runnerup in the handicap for 18-21 yards.

Victor at 22-25 yards was John Welner, Eugene, who beat E. N. Willetts, Eugene, in a shootoff after each had broken 47.

Grace Wells, Sacramento, Cal., had 45 to win ladies handicap and Mrs. James Whitaker, Oakridge, was runnerup at 37.

Roland Galdabini, Cottage Grove, went through two shootoffs to defeat David Kocer, Oakridge, for the junior handicap crown. After a tie at 46, each broke 25 and then Galdabini won 23 to 22.

Time trials for the hardtops Sunday ranged from 21:99 to 23:56 seconds. Fast time was driven by Jim "Chief Crazy Horse" Baxley and was a new hardtop track record.

Storti Winner Over Chiefs 10-1; Players Scuffle

RECREATION PARK, Wenatchee — In a fist-flinging brawl, the second of two rhabarbs here Monday night, Eugene's Emeralds collected eight runs in a big fifth inning to wallop the Wenatchee Chiefs 10-1.

The largest crowd of the season, partially attracted by the antics of Jackie Price, watched George Storti handcut the erstwhile Northwest Baseball League powerhouse with five hits for the right-hander's sixth win of the season. The 3,037 fans saw their Chiefs and when the dust settled all the bases were empty. But it was ruled that Matile would have to return to second base—with only seven runs scored there were no ejections.

Thomson came to bat again and was safe on another of Wenatchee's four errors. Matile scoring, Heese grounded out to end the inning—with Roberts surviving the 12-man assault.

CHIEFS THREATEN — Wenatchee threatened in the bottom of the fifth when Duretto opened with a single—the first hit off Storti. Jim Moore hit into a double play. Vanni then blasted out a double, but held third on Herb Anderson's single. Roberts popped out to end the inning without a tally.

Only Wenatchee run came in the seventh when Moore walked and scored behind Vanni's second straight two-bagger.

Sacrifice—Watson. Stolen bases—Preston. Double plays—Duretto-Watson, Matile-Jackson, Toso. Time—2:20. Umpires—Kelly and Runyan.

Matile, up for the second time in the inning, singled to short, scoring Preston. Hayes, also attempting to score, was caught at the plate for what would have been the final out—but he threw a blockbuster at Bob Duretto and the catcher dropped the ball.

It was a good, hard, clean play, but players and other personnel rushed from both dugouts to become entangled in the melee. One Wenatchee player was felled, but most of the punches were blocked. Umpires Runyan and Kelly managed to quell the riot

SPokane (AP) — A home run by Salem's Bill Shields in the top of the ninth inning broke up a tight pitching duel and sent the Senators on their way to a 6-2 win over the Spokane Indians in a Northwest League baseball game Monday night.

A crowd of 865 fans watched their first game of a four game series.

Shields' 390-foot homer as lead-off man in the ninth broke up a 2-2 tie. The Senators went on to score three more runs in the inning and leave the Indians far behind.

Salem's Red Whitson and Spokane's Phil Page pitched tight ball right up to the big rally. Salem rapped out 12 hits, Spokane 7.

Spokane picked up a run in the first inning on Eddie Murphy's double and Bill Staley's single. They added their only other run in the second on a walk, an infield out and Page's double which the Salem centerfielder lost in the sunset.
