Pace-setting Seattle and runnerup San Diego square off Thursday night in the opener of the first real "crucial" series of the Pacific Coast League season.

Freddie Hutchinson's Rainiers return home one game out in front of the Padres as a result of winning eight of their 11 games in Sacramento and Oakland. San Diego's erstwhile leaders, meanwhile, won only four of their last 11.

Both teams will use their winningest pitchers in the opener of the five game series. Seattle will start Elmer Singleton (13-8) against San Diego's Eddie Erautt (11-6).

The Rainiers wound up with a 4-1 series victory over the Oaks Wednesday night when Joe Ginsberg homered in the seventh inning for a 5-4 win. San Diego was idle and thus dropped a full game behind Seattle.

ALL HOMERS

Winner Howie Judson (8-5) allowed only four Oakland hits in the first six innings but all were homers. Jim Marshall clubbed two to raise his season total to 23 and Johnny Jorgensen and George Metkovich also took advantage of the short right field fence in Emeryville to hit four-baggers.

In other games, Red Munger survived an 11-hit pasting to hurl Hollywood to a 4-1 win over Sacramento and Portland blanked Los Angeles 4-0 behind Bill Werle's six-hit pitching.

In Sacramento, Munger (13-6) was helped out of hot water by four Hollywood double-plays. Johnny Briggs (10-10) also gave up 11 hits in absorbing the loss. The Stars won the series, 3-2.

Werle hurled a neat six-hit shutout as the Portland Beavers salvaged the final game of their series with Los Angeles.

Werle notched his 12th victory against four defeats as he kept the Angel batters at Bay while Portland had 11 blows off three Angel pitchers. Los Angeles won the series, 3 games to 2.

Portland picked up two runs in the second on consecutive singles by Ed Mickelson, Don Eggert, Frank Austin and Sam Calderone.

Austin came back in the third with another single with two men on base to drive in Joe Taylor, who had walked, for the third Portland marker.

MARQUEZ HOMERS

And in the seventh, Luis Marquez slammed his seventh homer of the season.

The only real Angel threat came in the seventh when Bob Usher and Bud Hardin each singled, but pinch hitter Jim Fanning grounded into a double play to retire the side.

Hatten was replaced by Bubba Church in the sixth and Ray Bauer pitched the ninth inning for the Angels.

All teams start new series Thursday night. Besides San Diego at Seattle, Los Angeles will be at San Francisco, Oakland at Hollywood and Sacramento at Portland.

Favored Netters Win in Washington

SEATTLE (AP) — Top ranked George Druliner of Los Angeles and other seeded players followed form in the Washington State tennis championships and advanced to Thursday's quarterfinal round.

Druliner ousted Martin Schiller, also of Los Angeles, 6-4, 6-2 Wednesday and second-seeded Harry Buttimer of San Francisco bounced Darrell Cusick of Wenatchee, 6-4, 6-0.

In junior men's singles, Robin Hilgeman of San Francisco defeated Bob Quall of Spokane, 6-0, 6-3, and Schiller eliminated another Spokanite, Chuck Bertrand, 6-3, 6-2.

Newcombe

walked three while toppling the A's to their ninth straight defeat. Four runs in the second inning on three singles and Billy Goodman's double wrapped it up for the Red Sox.

Newcombe struck out eight and after Clyde McCullough's single in the second inning, didn't allow a runner until Dee Fondy singled to open the eighth. The Brooks smacked five home runs in his support, two each by Don Zimmer and Duke Snider, who now has 33.

The Cubs rallied for three runs in the seventh to salvage the nightcap with Frank Baumholtz's pinch hit eluding Jim Gilliam's shoestring try in the left for a two-run triple.

The White Sox rapped loser Bob Turley for four runs in the first and tapped Johnny Kucks for four in the third—then Kucks and Bob Wiesler held them hitless the rest of the way. Dick Donovan won his 13th, although chased in a five-run Yank seventh.

Cleveland, now still four games behind, tumbled in the third when the Nats scored four times. Loser Early Wynn set off the inning with an error and Jose Valdivielso capped it with a two-run triple.

Rogovin, released recently by Baltimore, batted home two runs with a double, and Andy Seminick swatted a three-run homer in the Phils' first-game victory. Willie Jones gave Simmons a 3-0 lead with his leadoff homer in the fourth of the nightcap.

The Braves lost their second straight to the Bues despite Ed Mathews' 24th homer that fashioned an early 2-0 lead. Preston Ward hit a pinch homer with two on to tie it 3-3 in the seventh and Jack Shepard lined a pinch, bases-loaded single in the ninth to win it.

Tom Poholsky, who never had beaten the Giants since entering the majors in 1951, gave 10 hits, but had three of the Cards' 15 safeties. Stan Musial leveled his 21st homer with one on.

Ray Moore held Detroit hitless for 6 2-3 innings, then gave way to a 3-2 Tiger lead on homers by Ray Boone and Frank House. Hal Smith hit a pair of two-run doubles as the Orioles pulled it out.

Oaks Willing At Vancouver

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—The Oakland Oaks of the Pacific Coast League would be interested in transferring to Vancouver, B.C., if the proposition was a good one.

So said Brick Laws, club president, after word from the Canadian city Tuesday that chances seemed good for a franchise there next season.

"I haven't talked to anybody in Vancouver in months," Laws said. "Sure, I'd consider the proposition if it were a good one."

Laws definitely is interested in moving his franchise. Attendance has been poor, with the club deep in the second division. The Oaks are tied with Sacramento for last place, 17 games behind pace-setting Seattle, Tuesday night, only 1,102 fans turned out to watch the Oaks beat the first-place Rainiers.

Two other clubs, San Francisco and Sacramento, also are in financial trouble. The Seals haven't been involved in any transfer and rumors of a sale have been discounted.

Youth Shines In 400-Meter Medley Race

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The National AAU Swimming and Diving Championships entered second round competition Tuesday following a stunning record-breaking performance by 16-year-old George Harrison of Berkeley, Calif.

In Wednesday's opening round of the three-day meet, young Harrison set a new American and meet record in the 400-meter individual medley. He shattered the records in the afternoon heat then topped his own mark in the evening finals.

He amazed spectators at the Los Angeles Swimming Stadium in his second heat by covering the distance in 5:23.3, some four seconds faster than his 5:27.4 performance earlier in the day.

NEW DIVING CHAMP

Harrison's times in the evening swim were 1:10.6 for the butterfly, 1:21.4 for the backstroke, 1:40 for the breaststroke and 1:11.3 for the free style.

The former record of 5:29 was set last year by Burwell "Bumpy" Jones of the University of Michigan.

Don Harper, Ohio State junior from Palo Alto, Calif., staged an upset by capturing the three-meter springboard diving crown, dethroning the defending champion and favorite, Joaquin Capilla of the Mexican Swimming Federation.

Harper came through with a perfect dive under pressure of his last try, collecting 67.50 points with his back one and one-half with a two and one-half twist. It gave him a winning total of 597.85. Capilla had 595.05.

FREE STYLE RACE

Favored George Onekea Jr., 16, of Hawaii, made a spectacular comeback to overtake George Breen of New York and win the 1,500-meter free style event. Onekeka was clocked in 18:52.3, while Breen was timed in 18:52.9.

After the first day's competition defending AAU champion North Carolina State was tied with the New Haven Swim Club for the lead in team standings. Each had as core of eight points.

Berkeley City Swim Club and the Hawaiian Swim Club each had 7, Mexico Swimming Federation had 5, U.S. Navy 4, Walter Reed Swim Club 4, Los Angeles Athletic Club 3, Del Mar 3, Indian Springs Aquatic Club 1 and Ohilo Aquatic Club 1.

Israel Ban Blasted By Games Official

NEW YORK (AP) — Col. Henry D. Henshel, a prominent executive of the United States Olympic organization, demanded Thursday that the Olympic flag be lowered at the Mediterranean Games now in progress in Barcelona because Spain barred Israel's participation.

Spain first invited Israel and then withdrew the invitation under pressure from the Arab states, he said. The Mediterranean Games, like other regional games, are closely connected to the Olympic organization.

"I demand that the Olympic flag be taken down at Barcelona because they are making a mockery of the Olympic ideal," said Henshel in an interview. "This raises the serious question whether Spain should be admitted to future Olympic Games.

Equipoise Mile Won by Platan

CHICAGO (AP) — Hasty House Farms' Platan came from far behind in the stretch to win the $61,600 Equipoise Mile before 19,647 fans at Arlington Park Wednesday.

Second was Reverie Knoll Farms' Smokescreen and third was the early pacesetter, Maine Chance Farms' Jet Action, the 5-2 favorite.

Calumet Farms' Mark-Ye-Well, seeking to continue an Arlington comeback, was boxed most of the way and finished 13th in the field of 16.

Platan, 5-year-old son of Platter, got a spendid ride from veteran Johnny Adams and added $38,500 to the Hasty House coffers.

Platan was clocked for the mile on a fast track at 1:35, matching the Equipoise Mile record set by With Peasure in 1947 and equaled by Star Reward in 1949 and Oil Capitol in 1950.

No Fracture For Coleman

CHICAGO (AP)—Jerry Coleman, New York Yankee infielder, who was struck above the left eye by a pitched ball Tuesday night is "in pretty good shape and probably will leave the hospital tomorrow," a physician said Wednesday.

Dr. John Claridge, Chicago White Sox team physician, said, "Coleman won't be playing baseball for a few days, but his blood pressure is normal and he's going to be O.K. He suffered a concussion, but the X-rays showed there was no fracture."

Dr. Claridge said when Coleman leaves Mercy Hospital, possibly Thursday night after another day's rest, he will return to New York instead of accompanying the team to Kansas City for a weekend series with the Athletics.

The hard luck Coleman was struck over the left eye in the seventh inning by a pitch thrown by White Sox pitcher Harry Byrd. The accident occurred only a few hours after the popular second baseman returned to the active list following a three-month layoff due to a broken collarbone suffered April 22.

Dr. Claridge said the fact that Coleman was wearing a heavy plastic helmet saved him from serious injury.

Fuentes Gains Split Decision

NEW YORK (AP) — Ramon Fuentes of Los Angeles, won a split decision over Hector Constance of Trinidad Wednesday night by staging a solid finish in a 10-round battle of counter punches at Madison Square Garden. Constance weighed 147½, Fuentes 151.

The closest thing to a knockdown came in the ninth when Fuentes, bleeding from the mouth and a cut on his chin, almost dropped the Calypso Kid with a right to the jaw. Failing to take advantage of his big chance to end the bout, Fuentes let Constance get away.

Judge Frank Forbes saw it 5-4-1 and judge Joe Agnello 7-3, both for Fuentes. Referee Al Berl scored it for Constance 5-4-1. The Associated Press card was 5-5.

Suggs, Hicks Rated Tourney Favorites

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP)—Little Louise Suggs, the nation's top money winner from Atlanta, Ga., and steady Betty Hicks of Manhattan Beach, Calif., were the title favorites Thursday as the $6,500 Homestead Women's Open golf tournament got under way.

Miss Suggs and Miss Hicks were teamed in the four-day, 72-hole best-ball match. Top prize for the winning team of two girls is $1,450.

Herman Peery, pro at the host Cascades course, noted that the course is only 6,470 yards, par 71, but commented, "Regardless of what anyone says, the Cascades course is built for long hitters and the gals that can hit them the farthest are my pick to win top money."

Reds Call Smith From San Diego

CINCINNATI (AP)—Milton Smith, young Negro third base star for San Diego of the Pacific Coast League, will join the slipping Cincinnati Redlegs in Philadelphia Thursday.

Gabe Paul, general manager, made the announcement Wednesday afternoon.

Smith is second in batting in the Pacific Coast League, with a .338 average. He has knocked in 61 runs, and hits a long ball.

Smith, bought by the Redlegs some time ago, was not scheduled to report until next year.

Ray Jablonski, third baseman and outfielder, was sent to San Diego several days ago. He failed to hit or field well this year.

Rotenone Treatment Due for Reservoirs

PORTLAND (AP) — Killing of trash fish in Malheur, Warm Springs and Beulah reservoirs was set by the State Game Commission Wednesday for this October.

The southeast Oregon trout-producing reservoirs will be chemically treated with rotenone for the removal of roach, chubs and suckers which have been on the increase in recent years.

The poisoning was planned after fish biologists learned that the reservoirs would be drained almost completely for irrigation use. They felt it would be an opportune time to get rid of trash fish in the reservoirs and tributary streams.

CONVICTS DISAGREE

Rocky Rated 10-6 Over Sugar Ray

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The smart money around town was sure Thursday that Ray Robinson will be easy pickings for Rocky Castellani in Friday night's nationally televised bout but many convicts on Alcatraz bet their rations on the former champ.

The Harlem Sugar Man paid a visit to the grim federal prison in the middle of San Francisco Bay Wednesday where he talked earnestly to them about his own fatherless boyhood in Harlem.

But the inmates didn't want that kind of a fight talk. They only were interested in the Castellani bout.

"Champ, how you gonna do? How you gonna do?" voices called out from behind the metal doors. And just before Robinson left, quite a few yelled, "Champ, we're betting our ice cream and tobacco rations on you."

That didn't change the talk any on the outside world.

Jimmy Murray, who promoted the Marciano-Cockell fight, said he was "amazed" that Robinson had been matched with Castellani so early in his comeback.

"Much too soon," Murray said. "Rocky will whip him."

Several fight experts who have hung around tenderloin gyms for years here say that Robinson seems to have trouble keeping his gloves up after two rounds of sparring.

Latest odds have Robinson a 10-6 shortender, the first time he has been an underdog for an important fight in his life. But be that as it may, he has packed them into Dolph Thomas' gym, drawing bigger crowds as a has-been than when he was training here in 1952 to defend the middleweight title against Carl "Bobo" Olson.

Time was Robinson was a hard guy to corner and he didn't like to talk much. Now he is very congenial with the reporters although he has refrained from making any rash predictions.

"I'll just do the best I can," he said, sticking to the modest script he unrolled when he arrived here from New York two weeks ago.

However, Manager George Gainford continued to proclaim a knockout victory and derided the Castellani camp.

"The only way we could get Castellani to fight him was to convince Al Naiman, his manager, that Sugar Ray was through," Gainford said. "Castellani has always been afraid of Ray."

The winner presumably is in line for a shot at Olson's crown. Gainford said that he is planning to have Robinson fight a couple of warmup bouts in Honolulu first if he beats Castellani.

Decision Lost By Saddler

MANILA (AP) — World featherweight champion Sandy Saddler lost a 10-round decision and Italy's Italo Scortichini — who wasn't even on the card—was cut by a flying bottle in a wild affair at Rizal Memorial Stadium Wednesday night.

Maj. Jack Sullivan, referee, and two Filipino judges argeed that Flash Elorde, classy Philippine featherweight, had won the decision in the non-title bout by a wide margin. One judge said Saddler held, butted and hit with his elbows and that cost him some rounds.

Saddler's manager angrily protested both the decision and police handling of the crowd.

It was a bloody fight and the estimated crowd of 10,000 roared its disapproval of Saddler's infighting tactics as the final gong rang.

Scortichini, who won the Philippine middleweight championship earlier this month, was hit by a bottle and suffered a three-inch gash on the head as he stood in Saddler's corner.
