

Women of All Faiths Invited to Monday Tea; Musicale Wednesday

By ANN CONNELL
Register-Guard Society Editor

EIGHTH ANNUAL Interfaith Fellowship tea, inviting women of all faiths to attend without charge or donation, will take place Monday from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. in Gerlinger Hall on the university campus. The event is sponsored, as always, by the Interfaith Fellowship Foundation, made up of Jewish, Catholic and Protestant women and governed by a board drawn from the three faiths.

Officers who will be on hand to greet guests will be Mrs. Walter Bearsto, president; Mrs. Earl Cone, alternate; Mrs. Oscar Strauss, treasurer; Mrs. Maurice Jacobs, alternate; Mrs. James Davlin, secretary; Mrs. Edward Leavy, alternate.

Mrs. Henry R. Burch has arranged the entertainment, in mid-afternoon. Mrs. Nung Oh Yun (Emi Sunahara) will play piano selections, and Seng Chong Saw, student from Malaya, will sing.

Co-chairmen of the tea are Mrs. Gilbert Kistler of First Christian Church and Mrs. George Hemphill of Central Presbyterian. They have appointed the following committees:

Invitations, Mrs. David Pressman, chairman, Temple Beth Israel; Miss Mozelle Hair, First Christian Church; Mrs. L. D. Sponzel, St. Mary's Catholic.

Table arrangements, Mrs. Albert Schaefer, chairman, and Mrs. Albert Porter, St. Mary's Catholic; Mrs. Robert Litin, Temple Beth Israel, and Mrs. W. P. Hamilton, First Methodist Church.

Hospitality, Mrs. Arthur Pengra, chairman, First Baptist Church; Mrs. Edward Krasneski and Mrs. Richard Sherris, both St. Mary's Catholic Church; Mrs. Nathan Rubenstein, Mrs. Louis Sherman, Mrs. Norman Pressman and Mrs. Lester Seligman, Temple Beth Israel; Mrs. Barry E. Lause, Westminster Presbyterian Church; Mrs. Ron Griffith and Mrs. Donald L. Hunter, Emerald Baptist Church.

Refreshments: Miss Georgia Dale chairman, and Mrs. Joseph Temple, St. Mary's Catholic Church; Mrs. George Brinkman, Trinity Methodist Church and Mrs. Sol Goldstein, Temple Beth Israel.

Serving: Mrs. Orvel Bassett, chairman, United Lutheran Church; Mrs. Chester Leatherwood, St. Mary's Catholic Church; Mrs. Hubert Willoughby, First Baptist Church; Mrs. Arthur Jay, Temple Beth Israel; Mrs. Leo Washington and Mrs. Ralph Redman, St. Mark's Methodist Church; Mrs. Iral Nelson, St. Paul's Catholic Church.

Guest book, Mrs. Howard Durbin and Mrs. Leo Stalp, St. Peter's Catholic Church; Mrs. Paul Radcliffe and Mrs. Harry Ritchie, Temple Beth Israel; Mrs. Charles Teague, First Baptist Church, and Mrs. Omar Fendall, First Methodist Church.

Publicity, Mrs. James Davlin, chairman, and Mrs. Edward Leavy, St. Mary's Catholic; Mrs. O. E. Lroy, Central Presbyterian Church; Mrs. Maurice Jacobs and Mrs. Oscar Strauss, Temple Beth Israel.

SECOND CONCERT in Mu Phi Epsilon's Morning Musicale series is set for Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the University of Oregon school of music auditorium. Previous concerts have been in Gerlinger Hall.

The program will feature Jerome Jelinek, assistant professor of violincello at the university who will perform Haydn's "Concerto in D Major, Opus 101, for Cello and Orchestra."

Assisting Mr. Jelinek will be the University of Oregon Symphony Orchestra, George Boughton, conductor.

Tickets for this series of three scholarship recitals will be available at the door Wednesday morning, or from any Mu Phi Epsilon alumna in the city. All proceeds from ticket sales go to support Mu Phi's music scholarship fund.

The change in place of performance was necessitated by the number of performers.

Jerome Jelinek was appointed to the staff of the University of Oregon school of music in 1937. He received the B.Mus. and M. Mus. degrees from the University of Michigan, where he studied with Oliver Edel; later he studied for several years with Luigi Silva in New York City. In 1956, he was awarded a Fulbright grant and studied with Douglas Cameron at the Royal Academy of Music in London.

Mr. Jelinek's concert notices attest to the fact that his playing has been warmly received throughout Germany, England, and the United States. For a number of seasons he was a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. He was awarded the 1958 Hyam Morrison Medal for 'Cello, one of the Harriet Cohen International Music Awards.

ANNUAL SHROVE Tuesday card party sponsored by Court Oregon, Catholic Daughters of America, which has been going on for more than 40 years, will take place this year on Tuesday, March 1, in Columbus Hall.

Actually, Court Oregon, organized in 1909, gave annual card parties for several years for various benefits, one being to aid retarded children, according to the memory of Mrs. Nellie Franza, founder and "Court Mother" of Court Oregon. The seminary burse, a fund which aids needy young men in study for the priesthood, was adopted as its purpose in 1918, and this custom has been followed since.

Tables will be set aside for bridge, canasta and pinocchle. The public is invited to attend. Tickets are available from members of the order or at the door.

A TRIP to the Orient with an early school friend, Mrs. Mildred Hamill of Anchorage, Alaska, will start next week for Mrs. Alice Troeh of Eugene. Mrs. Hamill, who is a noted artist, flew from her home in the north Thursday to Vancouver, Wash., and the Eugene women planned to meet her there this week end.

Both women have sisters living in Vancouver, which was their former home.

Together they will fly to San Francisco to make their actual trip start Friday, Feb. 26, aboard the S. S. Iberia, and the English cruise ship. They will spend about a month on shipboard, visiting Honolulu, then Yokohama and Kobe in Japan, and continuing to Hong Kong.

From this international port, the women will take a side trip by air to Bangkok in Thailand for a trip to Angkor Wat. When they return to Hong Kong, a new Territorial Tour is scheduled for them there before they leave for home. They plan to fly from Hong Kong directly to Anchorage, and Mrs. Troeh will continue home after a few days, arriving about April 15. The women have arranged to meet friends abroad in several ports, who will guide them in viewing the sights. This is not an established, conducted tour.

MISS LINDA OWEN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Owen of Eugene is spending winter quarter "south of the border" as a student at Mexico City College. Miss Owen, who enrolled at University of Oregon in the fall as a sophomore in liberal arts, went south with an Alpha Phi sorority sister, Miss Sandra Cook of Palo Alto.

The girls live in private homes, assigned by the college. Miss Owen lives with eight other "north of the border" girls. Mexico City College, where the average enrollment is 850 stu-

PARDON US...OUR SLIPS ARE SHOWING

... red faces are the fashion
at Kaufman Bros. tomorrow . . .
ONE DAY ONLY!

Once a year we are forced to admit that our buyers are not infallible, that even they can make mistakes. But to err is human and the following will prove just how human we are . . . we're sure you're going to come in and humanize us like crazy as we strive valiantly to find people to go with the unpurchased goods of last year. We can honestly say that these prices are irresistible. In fact, they're absolutely ridiculous. Come in and bask in the glow of our 'blushes' . . . come early, when we are the very reddest.

Suddenly it's 1960 . . . and — the fateful marking pencil having already descended on these maturing dresses a time or 3, it is time that they descended from their lordly rack and left this store forever. From the large size party dress at the back to the size 9 black crepe up front . . . we sentence them to sell at just 5.00.

Sweaters have a unique attraction for some buyers. Ours is no exception. They were attracted by some of the strangest designs . . . for instance, there is this one stack of luxurious fur blend sailor-collared sweaters, sound cute? — they are but they have no sleeves. Then there is the stack of glamorous scooped neck slippers, lovely if you happen to have 25" shoulders. And fuzzy sweaters . . . we loves 'em. Vests, slippers — that new color called 'clay' didn't sell either . . . and then there are the odds and ends that persist in just hanging around . . . The price on these is unique also . . . 2.00

The sportswear buyer has passed a new rule . . . don't ever ask the display artist to help buy. This was legislated after an investigation of the incumbent left-overs. To wit: khaki shirts, purple gambler stripes blouses, blouses like Da Vinci smocks, jeweled crepes, sheers, lame' or velvet glamour tops, a group of size 44's. The rule will go into effect immediately and be it known that these remaining items will be sold at little money for quick riddance. 1.00, 1.50, 2.00

Conflict has arrived . . . in the form of some quite handsome imported Italian handbags. One buyer loves them, one buyer hates them, so even though they be new, in order to avoid conflict . . . they must go. Help preserve the peaceful relations for us at only 3.00. If you don't like these there are lots of other old bags marked down to 50c and 1.00

Knit skirts? Every year the manufacturers change their colors leaving us holding a handful of mismatches. Glorious fur blend skirts looking for tops, maybe you are the lucky lady who has the top. The skirt to match will only cost you 6.00 also few corduroys that are quilted 3.00 and some straight skirts in high colors 3.00 and 4.00

Deserving of honorable mention is this little caper . . . low boots with ripple crepe soles in silver and gold or camel and black, believe me there's a lot of comfort in these odd looking fellows, we've also tossed in a lot of odds and ends, the whole works only 1.00 pr.

In final summation of our case . . . we ask the customers to relieve us of 7 little white houses (banks) 50c, an unknown number of waterproof umbrellas 1.00 and 2.00; 5 pair of Mars-ian striped tights, some plain 50c; a motley assemblage of foundations, bras, girdles from 50c up; 5 prs. bermudas 2.00 up; a truly fine assortment of leather belts, (don't know why you people don't buy heraldic belts) 50c and 1.00; a sterling group of bulky sweaters at 5.00; 5 cow bells on gold chains 25c; 3 'C's' that look like gold toothpaste 25c; how about a package of Yule trimmed book matches for bridge prizes 25c; black panties 25c; nylon half-slips 1.50; this is an over-all picture of the mistakes we've made this year and we're asking you to put them away for the rest of their natural lives.
