

MRS. STANLEY G. ULLRICH (Ann Wilhelm) carried an historic family rosary at her marriage Feb. 13 in St. Mary's Catholic Church. Her mother's cousin, Father Schaefer of Portland, officiated. The couple will live at Roseburg.

Daughter of Pioneer Family Wedded

The Rev. Francis Schaefer of St. Thomas More parish in Portland came to Eugene to celebrate the Nuptial Low Mass which married his cousin, Miss Ann Wilhelm, to Stanley G. Ullrich on Saturday, Feb. 13, in St. Mary's Catholic Church. He has served in this capacity for all members of the family since ordination. The ceremony took place at 10 a.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Schaefer Wilhelm, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ullrich, all of Eugene.

Pink tulips and white stock were altar arrangements and also formed bouquets on tall candelabra which held tapers, in decoration of the church. Music for the ceremony was by Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cooley and Robert Hamill.

The bride, who was escorted by her brother, Charles Robert Wilhelm, wore a graceful gown of white crisp white taffeta, made with long sleeves, the scoop neckline edged in baby scallops, the front of the bodice ornamented with an applique of lace and embroidery, highlighted with sequins. She wore an illusion veil, fingertip length, held by a clip-style headpiece of Alencon lace and seed pearls.

She carried a tailored bouquet of green-and-brown orchids combined with white velvet foliage, and left the bouquet at the Blessed Virgin's altar following the reception, in the tradition of Marylhurst graduates.

The bride also carried a crystal rosary which was a gift from her aunt, Miss Elizabeth Wilhelm of San Francisco. It was made by Sister Loretta Ann of Marylhurst, using crystal beads which were given by the bride's grandfather, the late George Wilhelm, to her grandmother, on their 25th wedding anniversary. In addition, she carried a sheer white handkerchief given to her by her great aunt, Miss Ann C. Schaefer.

Miss Beth Wilhelm was her sister's honor maid, and other bridal attendants were Miss Barbara Keller of Estacada and Mrs. Wayne C. Jenkins. All attendants wore empire gowns of bluish pink taffeta with lace applique on the bodice and short cap sleeves. Miss Wilhelm wore a wrist bou-quet of pink carnations and Elf roses. Similar bouquets of carnations were worn by the other two attendants. All wore headpieces, bandeaux of pink velvet ribbon topped by tailored bows.

David Eldridge of Astoria was best man for Mr. Ullrich, and ushers were Edward Krupka and Raymond Cox.

The wedding reception took place after the church service, in the King Cole Room of Eugene Hotel. Mrs. C. J. Schaefer of Coos Bay poured coffee and Mrs. George Scott of Eugene, aunt of the groom, served punch. At another punch table, C. J. Schaefer and J. F. Brorby, uncles of the bride, and William Dresser of Beaverton were in charge.

Wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Janet Alayne Woods, sister of the groom, and Miss Joan Barbison. At the gift table were Miss Susan Schaefer and Miss Mary Anne Scherer, cousins of the bride, and assisting about the room were Mrs. J. F. Brorby and Mrs. Dorothy Parks Scott. Miss Clara Wolf presented the guest book. The bride's table was arranged with bouquets of pink and white carnations, and violet blossoms sprinkled over the cloth. Servers wore corsages of pink Elf roses and violets.

The young couple left on a wedding trip, the bride wearing a navy dress with matching short jacket and accessories in navy and white. Her corsage was of miniature orchids. They are to be at home in Roseburg at 1138 N. E. Freemont St. The bridegroom is employed by a plywood company.

Guests from out of the state included the bridegroom's great aunt, Mrs. Paul Rosburg of Mapleton, Iowa; Miss Lee Ann Butts of Stockton, Calif., and the Misses Ann and Carlin Howe of Seattle.
