Case of the Missing Bank!

• A lady who's been out of town phones the United States National Bank of Portland to report the downtown Eugene Branch at 8th and Willamette has mysteriously disappeared. We check and sure enough—no bank. Then suddenly we remember—we haven't disappeared, we've moved to temporary quarters at 8th and Charnelton. We'll be serving you from there until our beautiful new banking office is constructed in the near future at 8th and Willamette.

Many Girls Tell Secret of Engagement and Wedding Plans

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Coen of Eugene announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Barbara June, to 1st Lt. Lloyd D. Young of Mannheim, Germany, son of Mrs. Minnie L. Young of Guston, Ky. The couple plans to be married early in March, in the eastern United States.

Miss Coen has been abroad for more than two years, visiting many countries of Europe. She has been Special Service program director at the Flaming Sword Service Club in Heidelberg, Germany, but will terminate this position this month. She is a graduate of University of Oregon.

Lt. Young, who was graduated from Western Kentucky State College, will attend the field artillery associate officers' course at Ft. Sill, Okla., beginning in March. He has been serving with the 67th Artillery in Mannheim. Following Army service, Lt. Young plans to complete his law course at Tylane University in Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Carley of Eugene announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Rea, to Thomas C. Gunn Jr. of Newark, Calif.

Both Miss Carley and Mr. Gunn are at Stanford Research Institute in Menlo Park, Calif., she as research assistant and he as associate editor of the research publication.

Miss Carley attended Colorado College at Colorado Springs and received her bachelor of science degree in chemistry and business at San Francisco State College. Mr. Gunn received his bachelor of science in chemical engineering and his master's degree in business administration at Stanford University.

The wedding date has not been set.

Campus Couple Exchanges Vows

Central Presbyterian Church was decorated with white stock, carnations and tulips and candelabra for the marriage of Miss Patricia Shackelford to Howard E. Will Jr., Feb. 12. The Rev. George Ashwood performed the double-ring ceremony at 7 p.m.

Miss Shackelford is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shackelford of Yuba City, Calif., and Mr. Will is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Will of Philadelphia. Both families came to Eugene for the wedding.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of white lace and organza over taffeta. The gown was fashioned with a v-neck on the lace bodice. Her shoulder veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and she wore her mother's pearl necklace. She carried a white orchid surrounded with stephanotis on a white Bible.

Miss Patricia Gail Patchett, maid of honor, wore a princess style gown of light blue crystalline. Her flowers were a cascade of white carnations and red garnet roses.

Don Gottesman was best man, Robert L. Napier and Ernest Drapela were ushers.

Miss Jerrie Ann Wilson, sorority sister of the bride, sang "The Lord's Prayer," "Wedding Prayer" and "Why Do I Love You."

A reception was held at the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority on the University of Oregon campus. Mrs. Hugh Byfield of Yuba City, Calif., the bride's aunt, cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. Robert Napier. Miss Jane Horning and Judy Williamson served coffee and punch. Miss Sandra Robinson was in charge of the guest book and Miss Judy Richards greeted guests at the door.

For their wedding trip to the coast the bride wore a green wool suit with black accessories. The couple now is at home in Eugene at 1163 W. 11th Ave. Mr. Will is a graduate student and counselor at Sheldon Hall at the university and Mrs. Will will complete work for her degree in June.

They will spend the summer at Presidential Lakes, N.J., and will return to teaching positions in Southern California in September.

Dinner Planned

Willamette Court, Order of the Amaranth, will meet for potluck dinner Monday at 8:30 p.m. in the Masonic Temple.

The committee consists of Mrs. L. M. Watson, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kingsley, Mrs. Flora Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Holeman, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seibert, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vos and Mrs. Robert W. Wilson.

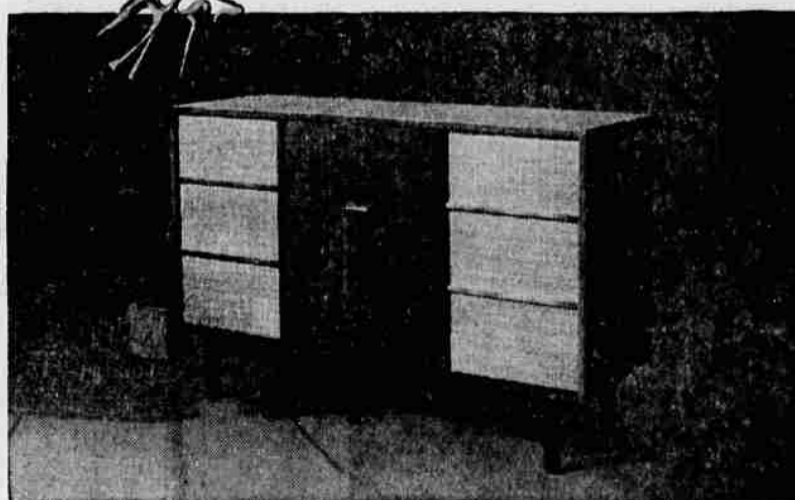

(Kennell-Ellis photo) MRS. HOWARD E. WILL JR. (Patricia Shackelford) said her marriage vows Feb. 12 at an evening ceremony in Central Presbyterian Church.

(Fehly photo) MISS PAULA PHILLIPS is engaged to Joseph Orosz, the wedding to take place in April.
