

Christian Church Scene of Wedding

The marriage of Miss Karla Jean Hudson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell J. Hudson of Eugene, to Gary L. Eschler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Eschler of Powell, Wyo., took place recently in the Christian Church at Glenwood. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Larry Bingaman.

Miss Hudson, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of white taffeta with sequin trimming on the long-sleeved bodice. Her elbow-length veil of silk illusion was edged with lace and was held by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white orchid surrounded with white carnations.

Miss Barbara Nordman of Redmond, maid of honor, wore a ballerina-length dress of pink and a pink mantilla. She carried a bouquet of matching carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Lynda Raybourn of Eugene and Miss Shelia Nordman of Redmond. Their dresses were of a pastel pink plaid in ballerina-length with white cummerbunds and they wore pink mantillas. Their flowers were white carnations.

Gregory Watters and Michael Watters lighted the candles.

Alan Hudson was best man. Ushers were Gary Kean and Mike Hudson. Bouquets of pink and white carnations and snapdragons decorated the altar. Miss Carolyn Egbert sang "Walk Hand in Hand" and "The Lord's Prayer" with Miss Patty Robbler playing the accompaniment.

A reception followed in the church parlor. Mrs. Arthur J. Watters cut the cake. Mrs. Richard Schrum poured coffee and Mrs. Lester Beeson served punch. Miss Kathy Jo Drew presented the guest book.

For traveling, the bride wore a green and white plaid suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple now is at home in Burns where Mr. Eschler is stationed with the U. S. Air Force as a radar technician. Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Eschler, parents of the groom, and their son, Steven, came from Wyoming for the wedding.

Cottage Grove Girl Wedded In Civil Rites

COTTAGE GROVE — Mr. and Mrs. John M. Dickinson of Cottage Grove announce the marriage of their daughter, Nancy Ina, to Raymond Rice of Curtin, son of Mrs. Mildred R. Moore of Empire and James Rice of Curtin. The single-ring ceremony was performed by Warren DeLaVerne, justice of the peace, May 19, at his office in Drain.

The bride was attired in a white suit with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses. She wore a 50-year-old strand of pearls which belonged to her maternal great-grandmother and had been worn by several of her sisters at their weddings.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay T. Dillon, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, attended the couple. Also present for the ceremony was another sister of the bride, Miss Nona Jean Dickinson.

The reception took place at the home of the bride's parents, with Miss Nona Jean Dickinson serving refreshments.

The couple is at home at Curtin after a wedding trip to the coast.

MRS. DONALD LEE GUTMAN (Arnolda Nelson) is at home near San Francisco following her recent marriage in St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church in Veneta. Both families are of that community.

Arnolda Nelson Wed To Donald Lee Gutman

Daly City, near San Francisco, will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lee Gutman (Arnolda Nelson) who were married May 21 in St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church in Veneta.

The ceremony took place during low Mass at 11 a.m., the Rev. Michael Ricciardelli officiating. The altar held bouquets of pink carnations and white stock, and other baskets of flowers were rose-colored hawthorne, pink flowering almond and white spirea. Organ music was played by Miss Denise Benjamin, and special music included "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus" sung by Mrs. William Walton and Mrs. Edward Lack.

Mr. Nelson escorted the bride. She wore a dress of Chantilly lace over satin, with fitted bodice and wide skirt over hoops. The bodice, with high neck and low sleeves, was ornamented with iridescent sequins at the neckline; the skirt had tiers of lace at the back. She wore a fingertip veil, held by a lace tiara trimmed with sequins and having a teardrop pearl on the forehead. Her flowers were a white orchid with stephanotis. She also wore a diamond pendant borrowed from a close friend, for luck.

Miss Sandra Nelson, bride's sister, was maid of honor in a gown of blended pastel lavender and pink nylon over taffeta, in ballerina length. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations.

Two other sisters, Miss Betty Ann Nelson in pink and Miss Mary Ann Nelson in lavender, were bridesmaids. They carried nosegays of pink carnations. Ring bearer was Scott Gutman and flower girl was Donna Thompson.

A reception after the wedding took place in the gymnasium of the Noti Grade School.

The cake was cut by Mrs. Arnolda Nelson of Noti, grandmother of the bride. Mrs. Ray Marion assisted in serving the cake. Mrs. George Sertie poured coffee, and punch was served by Mrs. Dale Shearer and Mrs. Richard Boettger. In charge of gifts was Mrs. Harvey Schortner Jr., and Miss Joyce Britt had the guest book.

The couple traveled to Lake Tahoe, en route to their home in California, the bride wearing a beige summer suit with black accessories. The bridegroom is control operator at the San Francisco International Airport.

Rickard Family Slates Reunion

The Rickard family's 35th annual reunion will be held Sunday, June 19, in the Ferguson Grange Hall west of Junction City. Basket dinner will be served, with coffee and punch furnished.

Pioneer members of the Rickard family crossed the plains in 1853 and were members of the lost wagon train. Two members of the second generation are living. All family members are invited to attend.
