Emmy Show Was Polite Mish-Mash

Some Interest But No Drama

By FRED DANZIG of the United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—In one corner, we had Fred Astaire. In the other, Arthur Godfrey. Two great heavyweights.

And in the center, I had the radio. I didn't want to miss the doings at the Polo Grounds, where Ingenier Johansson and Floyd Patterson, two other heavyweights, were dishing out some awards.

Would Emmy make us forget Oscar? Would Ingo put Floyd away again? Would Raymond Burr beat Robert Stack? Or Loretta Young beat Jane Wyatt? To each question, the answer is no.

OSCAR WAS NATURAL. NBC-TV's 90-minute special, in which 22 Emmy awards were dispersed came across as a relaxed, friendly, polite mish-mash that held interest if not drama. By giving us the sounds of the victors and not the candid, instantaneous sights of them, the Emmy show failed to match the Oscar telecast in naturalness and impact.

The Emmy special also tripped itself up a few times while trying some electronic footwork between West and East Coast and the commercial cut-away.

However, the show crowned a new champ in the field of comedy. This took place while Patterson was flattening Ingo, between a handful of awards to "The Untouchables," which Ingo wasn't Monday night, and one to "The Fabulous Fifties," or, for Patterson, "the fabulous fifth."

FAST FUNNY ROUNDS. I refer to Bob Newhart, who came through two fast, hilarious rounds of Monday night's show. Newhart made his network debut last Tuesday on "The Garry Moore Show" and was superb as an auto driving instructor stuck with a nutty lady driver. Monday night, he scored again as a submarine skipper addressing the crew after a two-year underwater cruise and as a TV director trying to bring Soviet Premier Khrushchev's Washington arrival to the network screen.

His stuff is refreshing — and funny.

There was another big moment. It was Mahalia Jackson's singing of "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," which soared out as Patterson, on ABC radio, was clobbering Ingo during the third round.

In accepting the Emmy for Laurence Olivier "outstanding single performance by an actor," Charlton "Ben Hur" Heston gave a speech that was more impassioned than his own Oscar acceptance speech on April 4. Obviously, Charlton is improving all the time.

CHARM IS OOZEE. As co-hosts, Astaire and Godfrey oozed charm and friendliness, but I thought Astaire was being ill-used when he had to turn the crank of a machine to turn up the winning names. Incidentally, Astaire's announcement of the fight's outcome seemed to confuse the audience in the theater. We've finally found his weakness—he's no sportscaster.

All in all, it was a great night for Bob Newhart, "The Untouchables," Huckleberry Hound and, of course, Floyd Patterson.

The Channel-Swim "Omnibus," the award-winning experimental TV series, will return to the tube next fall as a Sunday afternoon attraction on NBC-TV. Alastair Cooke returns as host of the hour-long programs, which are produced by Robert Saudek Associates.

OTHELLO BY HANDS. A sign-language production of "Othello" will be presented on NBC-TV Sunday, July 3. Students of Gallaudet College, the school for the deaf in Washington, D.C., will be the cast.

Search Crew Finds Plane

RENO, Nev. (UPI)—Searchers returned Tuesday to a remote mountain area some 15 miles west of here to recover the bodies of four persons killed in a small plane crash last Dec. 30.

Sheriff's deputies tentatively identified the victims as Mr. and Mrs. Larry H. Gardner and a Mr. and Mrs. Forrester, all of Seattle. The bodies were too decomposed for positive identification at the site of the wreckage.

The plane left Seattle for Las Vegas on Dec. 30. It was last seen at Oroville where the party refueled. A severe blizzard in the Reno area apparently caused the plane to crash straight into the mountainside, sheriff's deputies said.

Ward Graham, Teamster Local 324 secretary, said the union was seeking 14½ cents an hour "to get them on a level with Eugene and Portland." The hourly wage now is $2.58 an hour.

Graham said the Teamsters, comprising nearly all the help in nine plants, said the union members previously had voted strike approval. After Monday's meeting he said: "Anything can happen now."

Plants involved include four in Salem and others in Albany, Corvallis, Lebanon, McMinnville and Toledo.

Institute Enrolls Junction City Girl

Lucy Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Montgomery, of 1130 Nyssa St., Junction City, is enrolled in the 1960 session of the Junior Engineers and Scientists Summer Institute at Linfield College, McMinnville.

Miss Montgomery is one of 86 high school girls from seven western states attending the two-week science institute.

Scientists of Tomorrow, a Portland non-profit corporation, initiated the science program at Linfield five years ago.

The two-week session is a program of orientation on careers, opportunities and course requirements in science and engineering.

Prelate Appointed

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Pope John XXIII has appointed American-born Msgr. Martin John O'Conor as head of the press and exhibitions secretariat for the forthcoming Ecumenical Congress, it was announced Monday. Msgr. O'Conor presently is head of the pontifical commission for radio, television and the cinema.

WHAT TO DO WITH IT—Modernists want the Senate-War-Navy Building, which stands next to the White House in Washington, torn down because it is an ugly pile of granite. Antiquarians want it preserved as a good example of 19th century architecture. Its many-columned entrance is shown above. It houses the Budget Bureau, the National Security Council, Office of Defense Mobilization and General Services Administration. When told it was fireproof, Gen. Ulysses Grant remarked, "That is a pity."

Airline Pilots Ending 10-Day Wildcat Strike

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Eastern Airlines pilots returned to work in large numbers Tuesday, yielding to pressure from the courts and their union to end a crippling, ten-day wildcat strike.

An EAL spokesman said it appeared that 35 to 40 flights would take off Tuesday from Miami, where the strike was born, and the system will be back to normal schedules by Wednesday.

A National Airlines strike set for Tuesday night was averted when the union agreed to resume contract negotiations with management with a federal mediator sitting in.

SICK REPORTS

A wave of sick reports by pilots continued to hamper operations of Pan American World Airways. Eastern said 35 of its Miami pilots telephoned for flight orders Monday night. The line said the break "sounds very encouraging."

Eastern's flights out of Miami dwindled from a normal 55 daily to none when pilots struck at midnight June 10 in a protest against federal flight check inspectors' sitting in third-pilot seats. Two to seven flights took off from Miami in the past three days. A federal judge ordered all pilots back to work, but Eastern's dispatchers couldn't reach most of the fliers to give them assignments.

The Air Line Pilots Assn. (ALPA), which said it had not sanctioned the walkout, ordered pilots back to Eastern cockpits Monday saying "anarchy is not the answer" to the pilots' troubles. A U.S. Appeals Court Judge in New Orleans turned the ALPA down on a request to stay a Miami back-to-work injunction.

FLIGHTS LEAVE

The first flights left for Boston, New York, Washington, Newark, Cleveland, Detroit, Indianapolis and Chicago.

ALPA officials in Miami discussed the possibility of a Pan American strike but announced no action. Some overseas flights of Pan Am were canceled in the rising tide of sick reports from pilots who also object to federal inspectors riding in third-pilot seats. A federal judge in Chicago ordered the fliers back to duty.

National and the ALPA have been at odds over pay, working conditions, and retirement benefits. No issue has been made of inspector-seating.

Milk Hauler Strike Looms

SALEM (AP)—A possible strike by Teamsters employed by mid-Willamette Valley milk distributors loomed Tuesday after negotiations between the distributors and Teamsters deadlocked Monday.

Spokesmen said the union and the distributors were 3½ cents apart after the session conducted by U.S. Conciliator LeRoy Smith of Portland. The negotiations, involving some 185 workers, began April 16.

Portland labor consultant Dan Hay, representing management, said the distributors had offered 11 cents as an hourly across-the-board increase.

Ward Graham, Teamster Local 324 secretary, said the union was seeking 14½ cents an hour "to get them on a level with Eugene and Portland." The hourly wage now is $2.58 an hour.

Graham said the Teamsters, comprising nearly all the help in nine plants, said the union members previously had voted strike approval. After Monday's meeting he said: "Anything can happen now."

Plants involved include four in Salem and others in Albany, Corvallis, Lebanon, McMinnville and Toledo.

Former FCC Member Dies in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—Frieda B. Henneck, 55, a talented beauty who earned success in a man's world as a New York lawyer and first and only woman ever appointed to the Federal Communications Commission, died Monday.

She had been in critical condition after brain surgery Thursday.

Her term on the FCC expired in 1955. The following year, she married William H. Simons, Washington real estate man. Since leaving the FCC she has practiced law in Washington.

coverage of the President's trip to the Far East, with comments by CBS correspondents along the way.

8 p.m., Rifleman (12)—Blood Brothers." Good episode. Lucas and Mark find a wounded man on the road and bring him to North Forks for treatment. When three weird-looking vigilantes from another community come after the patient, Lucas is forced to interpret the meaning of justice. Production and acting, and even the writing, are out of the top drawer. (Repeat)

8:30 p.m., Red Skelton (6)—Red's fear is quite humorous, as he plays a quivering witness to a gangland murder hiding out from the killers. Audrey Totter guests as Red's wife, and writer Dave O'Brien plays one of the hoods in this take-off (kind of) on the gangster shows. (Repeat)

8:35 p.m., Dance Party (13, 8)—Shades of Milton Berle! Kathryn Murray dances with the Wazaran Troupe of nine Turkish acrobats.

'They' Rode, Says Barbara

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (UPI)—Vegetarian Dr. Barbara Moore headed for the state Capitol at Columbus Tuesday, vowing that if her two countrymen who preceded her in their walk across the United States try to claim record she will take them to court.

As she set out on her walk early Tuesday, she was 41 miles west of Columbus and was traveling about three or four miles an hour. She wanted to make Columbus Monday night but stopped at 5:45 p.m. to rest for the night.

She told newsmen that tagged along beside her that if British Air Force Sgts. Merwyn Evans, 33, and Patrick Maloney, 34, tried to claim a trans-continental record "I will subpoena them."

The 56-year-old woman said that she had talked to people that claimed they had seen the two sergeants riding.

"They just had a good hitchhiking holiday across America," she said. The two sergeants hiked from San Francisco to New York in 66 days, 4 hours and 17 minutes.
