Excitement Precedes Cottage Grove Rodeo

By BETTY ALLEN
Register-Guard Correspondent

COTTAGE GROVE—Cowboys from this area planning to participate in the five standard events and team roping at performances of the rodeo here Saturday and Sunday must register by Friday noon at the rodeo office.

Both performances will provide action in saddle bronc riding, bareback bronc riding, bull riding, calf roping and steer wrestling. Team roping will be an added attraction.

Top stock, furnished by Christensen Brothers of Eugene, will test the mettle of some of the nation's outstanding rodeo performers. Bob Cook, secretary for Christensen Brothers, reported that this year's rodeo is expected to feature twice as many entries as last year.

The "purse" is listed at $1,200, plus cowboys' entry fees, to provide prize money. Stock which was used at the national finals rodeo at Dallas, Texas last December will be in the arena.

Other rodeo events are shaping up. The Cottage Grove Shrine Club has scheduled a work party for 6:30 p.m. Tuesday at the rodeo grounds to get their concessions lined up for the busy weekend.

They will serve two Buckaroo Breakfasts, one Saturday, another Sunday, from 6 to 11 a.m., and a barbecue on Saturday from 5 to 8 p.m.

Parade plans were outlined Monday at the rodeo office by O. M. Patten and his committee, reporting an unusually large number of entries at this early date.

The queen has been crowned, residents are donning western outfits and an air of excitement is beginning to hum over this busy community.

Latin America To Be Discussed

John J. Johnson, a professor of history at Stanford University and an expert on Latin American affairs, will speak Thursday on the University of Oregon campus.

The lecture, titled "Latin America, the Politics of Protest," will be held in the Erb Memorial Student Union browsing room at 7:30 p.m. It will be open to the public.

Johnson, former chief of the U.S. State Department's South American Branch of the Division of Research, the American Republics, has traveled widely in Latin and South America.

He is on campus to meet with students enrolled in the university's summer World Affairs program.

Building Permit Issued for Dorm

June's building permit valuation for Eugene took a big jump Monday when a permit for $1,586,000 valuation was issued for the new University of Oregon dormitory at 1365 Agate St.

The city collected no fee for issuing the permit because state-owned buildings are exempted.

The dormitory will be four stories high with a total floor area of 88,500 sq. ft.

Waldo S. Hardie & Son, Eugene, is general contractor. Architects were Church, Newberry, Roehr & Schuette.

Three Drivers Arrested On Liquor Counts

Three motorists were arrested in Eugene Monday night and early Tuesday morning on charges of driving under the influence of intoxicating liquors, two of them following auto mishaps.

Dale Clyde Smith, 25, of Rt. 2, Box 511, Eugene, was arrested at 9:30 p.m. at 13th Avenue and Monroe Street after colliding with an auto driven by Eleanor Jean Hansen, 2455 Jefferson St.

In Eugene Municipal Court, Smith was fined $200 after pleading guilty to driving under the influence and was sentenced to 10 days in jail for driving with a suspended driver's license.

Venna Phillips, 38, of 1395 W. 15th Ave., Eugene, was arrested at 1:30 a.m. Tuesday following a collision at 11th Avenue and Oak Street with a car driven by Sidney Lyman Britton, 19, of 241 E. 15th Ave.

Mrs. Phillips pleaded innocent to a charge of driving under the influence and the case was continued for trial in municipal court.

A third motorist, Homer Neil Sittner, 32, of 245 E. 31st Ave., Eugene, was arrested at 12:45 a.m. Tuesday at 24th Avenue and Willamette Street. He pleaded innocent to a charge of driving under the influence and the case was continued for trial.

Party Posts To Be Filled

Because there were so many tie votes in the May 20 precinct elections for committeewomen and committeemen, drawings will be held by the Lane County Elections Dept. at 10 a.m. Wednesday and Friday.

Mrs. Margaret Solomon, acting elections department director, said the Wednesday drawing will determine the election of Democrats in more than 75 precincts. The Friday drawing will decide Republican winners.

She explained that in many precincts there were four or five write-in candidates for the committee positions. Each candidate drew just one vote.

At the drawings, all the names in the tie will be placed on sheets of paper and placed in a box. Then the drawing will be made and the winner announced.

Mrs. Mildred Russell, Lane County Democratic party chairman, and Foster Anderson, Republican county chairman, will do the drawing, Mrs. Solomon said.

Salem Man Gets Razing Contract

E. S. Ritter, Salem building wrecking contractor, was awarded the contract Monday for razing of the old Eugene Technical-Vocational School.

A bid of $1,750 from Ritter was accepted at a special meeting of the Eugene School Board Monday night.

The Eugene Technical-Vocational School has moved from the old building at Fourth Avenue and Madison Street to new quarters at 200 N. Monroe St. The old building, a frame structure, has been declared a fire hazard.

Members of the board asked Supt. Millard Z. Pond to see that any metal plates, cornerstones, or other historical items are saved. Pond said he would ask Ritter to return any such items to the school system.
