

1961 Dog Licenses on Sale; Penalty Added After Mar. 1

Dog licenses for 1961 went on sale Monday in the county clerk's office on the second floor of the Lane County Courthouse.

County Clerk Olga Freeman said an extra clerk will be on hand to sell the licenses through March 1, the last day in which licenses can be purchased without a penalty. After that day, a penalty of $2 is added to the regular fee.

Licenses for male dogs and spayed female dogs are $1.50. Female dog licenses are $3. Each license entitles the purchaser to a metal dog tag.

Dog licenses also can be obtained at the office of city recorders in Eugene, Springfield, Cottage Grove, Florence, Oakridge, Junction City and Lowell. Mrs. Freeman said dog licenses also may be obtained by mail if the owner states the breed of dog, age, name, color and size (small, medium or large).

Any dog which has permanent canine teeth is required to have a license. Fees from the licenses go into a special fund which is used to pay damages to livestock owners and also to pay for care of impounded dogs.

Relics of 1200 B.C.

AMMAN — Relics dating to Egypt's Rameses II, about 1200 B.C., were discovered last week by a Dutch expedition in Deir Alla village, 10 miles northeast of Jericho.
