

FAR WEST PERFORMERS—Larry Brooks (left) of Oregon is shown after gaining the finals in the Far West tennis championships Saturday. He was defeated in the finals by Jim Norland of Washington State. Three golfers (right), including Oregon's Jerry Cundari, holding pin, finish Saturday rounds in the Far West golf tournament.

Norland Wins Tennis Crown

Jim Norland, a master marksman with his backhand, won the Far West singles championship here Saturday and paced Washington State to the team title in a major upset over Oregon State and Oregon.

The Cougars collected 11 points, defending champion Oregon State finished second with 10, Oregon was third with nine and Idaho wound up fourth with three points in the two-day tournament.

Norland, who had upset top seeded Gordie Brynildsen in the semifinals Saturday morning, defeated Oregon's second-seeded Larry Brooks, 2-6, 7-5, 6-4, to become the first Cougar to win the singles crown since Merwin Miller was the champion in 1941 and 1942.

It was the first team championship for the Cougars in the 25-year history of the tournament, and it was unseeded Norland's surprising play which produced the necessary points.

Brynildsen, who had been the defending singles champion, joined with Dave Oehling to salvage the doubles title with a 2-6, 6-2, 6-4 win over Washington State's Dave Ringer and Dallas Edwards.

In the consolation singles, Oregon's Don Sehn outlasted teammate John Cavanaugh, 10-12, 6-1, 6-2, for the top spot.

Showers fell several times during the day, delaying play for a total of about an hour and a half, but the cool weather seemed to be helpful to the contestants after the 80-degree heat on Friday.

SEMI-FINAL SINGLES: Brooks (0) d Edwards (WSU) 5-7, 6-4, 9-7; Norland (WSU) d Brynildsen (OSU) 6-1, 6-2.

SEMI-FINAL DOUBLES: Brynildsen-Oehling (OSU) d Vaughn-Robinson (0) 6-3, 6-2; Edwards-Ringer (WSU) d Brooks-Knight (0) 5-7, 6-1, 6-2.

CHAMPIONSHIP SINGLES: Norland (WSU) d Brooks (0) 2-6, 7-5, 6-4.

CHAMPIONSHIP DOUBLES: Brynildsen-Oehling (OSU) d Edwards-Ringer (WSU) 2-6, 6-2, 6-4.

Jones Requests Occasional Work

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Giants, who have had to lean heavily on pitching to stay out front in the National League, had a new worry Saturday. Veteran Sam Jones, one of the Giants starters, has arm miseries.

The 34-year-old Jones who has a 3-2 record, said he has asked Manager Alvin Dark to drop him from the starting rotation for two to three weeks and use him in relief.

Braves Grab Torre With Crandall Out

MILWAUKEE (AP)—With veteran catcher Del Crandall on the shelf with a sore arm for at least another week, the Milwaukee Braves Saturday called up Joe Torre from Louisville.

Torre, 20, led the Class C Northern League in batting last year with a .344 mark, including 16 homers and 74 RBI's in his first year in organized ball as a member of the Eau Claire, Wis., club.
