

Wedding Bells Have Part in Decorations

By ANN CONNELL
Register-Guard Society Editor

Wedding bells were a significant part of decorations and details of the wedding of Miss Connie Juneola Brehm to Frank C. Duncan in Trinity Baptist Church Friday evening, May 12. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Buren Higdon, pastor, at 7:30 p.m. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Brehm of Springfield and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Marie Duncan of Eugene.

Bells were tied to pews of the church. An arbor was arranged on the platform as a setting for the ceremony, its trellises decorated with evergreens, yellow gladiolus and bells. Richard Terwilliger, soloist, sang "Because of You," "Whither Thou Goest," and "Wedding Prayer." Miss Carol Terwilliger was organist.

A cluster of frosted wedding bells, encircled with yellow rosebuds, centered the bride's bouquet, which was a cascade of yellow roses and white carnations.

Miss Brehm was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of white dotted nylon made with full butterfly sleeves, a modified scoop neckline edged in narrow Venise lace, and a full skirt in two tiers. Her float-length veil of silk illusion was attached to a circlet of pearlized orange-blossoms. She wore also a heart pendant which was a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Nikki Niederer, maid of honor, wore a bouffant dress of mint green nylon, with matching jacket which had large puffed sleeves. She carried yellow carnations, with tiny white bells tied to their ribbons.

Similarly styled were the dresses of the other bridal attendants, Mrs. Denny Dennis and Miss Joyce Laremore, but they were of yellow nylon. Both carried bouquets of mint green carnations, also with miniature bells tied to their streamers.
