

MRS. KENNETH R. BUFFINGTON (Marilyn Maines) was married in an evening ceremony May 13 in First Congregational Church, and the couple is to make their home at Willamina, following a wedding trip to Southern California.

MRS. GILBERT WALLACE MOORE (Irma Irene Coe) said her marriage vows May 14 in First Christian Church. The couple will make their home in Eugene following a wedding trip to Victoria, B.C.

Couple's Home at Willamina

A gold locket, which was her bridegroom's gift to her, was worn by Miss Marilyn Maines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester J. Maines of Eugene, with her bridal dress when she was married to Kenneth R. Buffington of Willamina in First Congregational Church. The ceremony was performed at 8 p.m. Saturday, May 13, by the Rev. Wesley G. Nicholson, pastor. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Robert Buffington of Willamina, and the late Mr. Buffington.

The bride's gown was of silk organza, floor-length, made with sabrina neckline outlined in lace applique. The full skirt had a chapel train, which was edged in wide bands of scalloped lace ornamented with sequins. Her fingertip veil of illusion, edged with lace, was attached to a miniature crown of seed pearls. Her father gave her in marriage.

The maid of honor, Miss Miriam Hastings, wore a dress of crystal satin in azure blue, ballerina length, with cummerbund of contrasting pale blue. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and daisies, tied with ribbons to match her cummerbund. The four bridesmaids, Miss Connie Kempton of Los Angeles, Miss Luella Kelm, Miss Bonita Buffington of Willamina and Miss Elaine Twite, all wore dresses in ballerina length, styled like Miss Hastings' gown. Their dresses reversed the colors, being of pale blue, with darker cummerbund. They also carried white carnations and daisies, tied with dark blue ribbons.

Debbie Harrington of Oregon City, niece of the bride, was her flower girl. She wore a frock in azure blue.

Best man was Edward Caserelli, and ushers were Larry Davis, Donald Millan, Robert Pettit and Ronald Maines. Two of the ushers also lighted the candles.

Organ music for the ceremony was played by Mrs. Robert Brakel, church organist.

Moore-Coe Bridal Vows Pledged

Wedding rings were exchanged by Miss Irma Irene Coe and Gilbert Wallace Moore in an afternoon ceremony May 14 in First Christian Church. The Rev. Carlton Buck officiated at the service before a background of pink snapdragons, white stock and pink carnations, and pink tapers in candelabra.

Miss Coe is the daughter of Mrs. Anna I. Coe of Eugene. Mr. Moore is the son of Mrs. Viola Brooks of Aurora.

The bride chose a full-length wedding gown of silk organza fashioned with a long-sleeved bodice of lace re-embroidered with sequins. Medallions of the lace were repeated on the skirt, which had a large butterfly bow at back. Her float-length veil of illusion was held by a small lace cap. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and carnations, and wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. Robert E. Coe of Portland gave his sister in marriage.

Miss Donna Beckwith of Salem, maid of honor, and Miss Marlene McClanahan of Eugene, bridesmaid, wore gowns of pink silk organza styled with pleated bodices and carried cascades of pink carnations.

Raymond Knutson of Portland was best man and ushers were Charles Hunt of Portland, Roger Hannum and Arthur Toyooka. The latter two also lighted the candles.

Gilbert Kistler sang "Because," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Nell Murphey Dickson played the organ music.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor, where Mrs. E. W. Norton and Mrs. Robert Ayers cut the cake. Miss Betty Coe, sister of the bride, served punch and Mrs. Robert E. Coe poured coffee. Miss Barbara Loomis presented the guest book.

The bride wore a beige coat over a green dress and apple green accessories for their wedding trip to Washington and Victoria, B. C. The couple will make their home in Eugene at 336 E. 11th Ave. Mr. Moore is an agent for the U. S. Internal Revenue Service.
