

MRS. CHARLES LINCOLN TAYLOR (DeLores Stevenson) said her marriage vows May 13 in Conservative Baptist Church at Springfield. The couple will make their home at Springfield.

White and Red Theme for Rites

Baskets of white stock and red carnations set the color theme for the marriage of Miss Delores (Dee) Marie Stevenson and Charles Lincoln Taylor May 13 in the Conservative Baptist Church at Springfield. The Rev. Owen Douglas officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Stevenson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Stevenson and Mr. Taylor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Taylor, both families of Springfield.

The bride chose a floor-length gown of white lace over ruffled net, fashioned with long sleeves and a Sabrina neckline. The back of the skirt was of tiers banded in satin with a satin bow. Her waist-length veil, banded with lace, was held by a pearl tiara.

She carried a cascade of red roses with a white orchid, arranged on a white Bible, and she wore a 47-year-old wedding ring belonging to her grandmother. Mr. Stevenson gave his daughter in marriage. Miss Connie Stevenson, her sister's maid of honor, wore a white silk gown trimmed with red velvet and white lace, with a large red satin bow at back. She carried a nosegay of red carnations. Other attendants, whose gowns and flowers were identical, were Mrs. Harold Long of Corvallis and Miss Carol Winsor of Eugene.

Miss Diane Taylor of Springfield and Mrs. Thomas Fleming of Salem lighted the candles. Sandra Taylor was flower girl and Gene Stevenson was ringbearer.

Harvey Howard was best man and ushers were Leroy Stevenson and David Douglas.

Gary Harris sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Owen Douglas played the organ music.

A reception followed in the church parlor, where Mrs. Warren Lawler and Mrs. William Mo-lenda, both of Seattle, cut the cake. Mrs. Ovel Stevenson and Mrs. Janet Hassell served coffee and punch. Miss Norma Nauss and Miss Janice Jones received gifts.

For their wedding trip to Washington the bride wore a coral suit with beige accessories. The couple will make their home in Eugene.
