Chanel Bag Becomes New Rage of Paris

PARIS (AP) — Every woman worth her fashion salt this winter has what is popularly known as a Chanel Bag.

The object of the widespread desire is a medium-sized, soft-leather, quilted envelope with a long chain handle.

Although Coco Chanel has made the same bag with slight variations for seven years, the fad, with a will quite its own, literally unleashed itself in the fall.

Trademark Used The purse, with its characteristic quilting and chain, has been copied by Paris' two biggest department stores, by specialty handbag stores, even by Monoprix dime stores.

The real Chanel bag is made of softest chamois leather. Navy and black versions are lined in red. Chanel's double C trademark is stamped on the inside flap. It is roomy, opening like an accordion to disclose three separate compartments.

To top it off, a current refinement entwines a fine leather strip through the loops of the delicate chain handle. The ultimate is a white jersey quilted version which no honest shopper could afford to own. Cost of the real thing: $60-$100.

New Uniform True to her principles, couture Chanel does not resent being copied.

"If people can't afford to buy a real Chanel, I'd rather they bought a fake Chanel with the idea of Chanel in mind," she has said.

Paris' big Printemps department store has been authorized to call its quilted models "Chanel style" and has decorated its windows with the slogan "I love chains." Five hundred copies which ranged in price from $14-$25 were sold the first month.

The dime store version, also leather, ingeniously quilts only one side of the purse, thus charging a mere $4. Three thousand dime store "Chanel's" have been sold.

There's no doubt the little purse has become a new Paris uniform.

Two Meetings Planned by WOM

Women of the Moose announce two meetings this week: College of Regents will meet Monday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lewis Goddard, 148 Hansen Lane.

Academy of Friendship will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Moose Home with Mrs. Lee Altland as chairman.

Fresh cranberries were taken on clipper ships. Their vitamin C prevented scurvy.

Cocoa Party

Youngsters appreciate Cocoa-Mint, instant sweet milk cocoa served in a mug with a peppermint candy swizzle stick. Make a batch of Chocolate Mallow Brownies to accompany the cocoa and call it a party.

Teddy Bear Table

Calling Small Fry: Cocoa Party

Any teddy bear of taste would be happy to preside over a young people's table featuring such refreshments as cocoa-mint and chocolate-mallow brownies.

The cocoa, made with instant sweet milk cocoa, is a universal favorite with the young man or lady about town. The peppermint swizzle stick adds the finishing touch. The brownies combine all the appeal of a favorite cookie, a favorite candy, and an irresistible chocolate topping.

Cocoa is the ideal cool-weather beverage for the small fry, whether they're enjoying an after-school snack or giving a party. Instant sweet-milk cocoa contains whole milk, is vitamin and iron enriched in the bargain, and can therefore be made simply by adding hot water.

Making it with hot milk provides extra nourishment. The peppermint stick, an easy party touch, supplies new flavor interest and stripes of gay color. The young folks will enjoy stirring their cocoa and sampling the chocolate peppermint effect.

Semi-sweet chocolate morsels make child's play of baking the chocolate-mallow brownies. Get a jumbo package and use half of it in the brownie batter and the other half for the fudge topping.

The morsels melt smoothly into the mixture of hot shortening, sugar and water; you can whip up the batter in a few minutes. As soon as the brownies emerge from the oven, top them with miniature marshmallows. The heat of the cookies will melt the marshmallows to just the right consistency.

If you're feeling adventurous, try substituting colored marshmallows for the white ones — they come in such delightful shades as yellow, pink and green.

All that remains to do is to melt the rest of the chocolate morsels and pour them over the marshmallow topping. Chill the brownies, cut them in squares, and get ready for a rousing junior party.

Chocolate-Mallow Brownies
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup shortening

PETUNIA!

Nothing could be clearer than my treated bathroom mirror!

And it's easy to treat it so it won't steam up. Petunia! Smear it with a light lather of soap, let it almost dry, then wipe off with dry cloth.

3 tablespoons water
1 12-ounce jumbo package (2 cups) semi-sweet chocolate morsels, divided
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1/4 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup chopped nuts
2 cups miniature marshmallows
1 teaspoon shortening
Combine sugar, shortening and water in saucepan. Bring to a boil; remove from heat.
Add 1 cup of the semi-sweet chocolate morsels and vanilla. Stir until smooth.
Beat in eggs one at a time. Sift in flour, soda and salt. Add nuts. Mix until blended.
Turn into a greased 8-inch square pan. Bake in a moderate oven (325°F.) 25 minutes. Immediately cover top with miniature marshmallows; cool in pan.

Melt remaining 1 cup chocolate morsels and 1 teaspoon shortening over hot (not boiling) water; pour over marshmallows, spreading if necessary. Chill.
Cut into 1 1/2-inch squares. YIELD: 25 brownies.

Cocoa-Mint
1 1/2 cups instant sweet milk cocoa
1 quart hot water*
6 peppermint sticks
Place instant sweet milk cocoa in a pitcher. Gradually stir in hot water. Pour cocoa into cups or mugs. Stir with peppermint sticks.
YIELD: 6 servings.
*For extra nourishment, use milk.

OLDSMOBILE... Traditional excellence that you expect and receive at Thompson 12th & Oak Eugene

'Dear Abby'

—Abigail Van Buren—

DEAR ABBY: Fifteen years ago I left home (at the age of 20) to have a baby. (I was not married.) No one here knows about it. I passed myself off as a widow and raised my son alone. He is a fine well-adjusted lad. His father was a married man from whom I neither expected nor received any financial help in raising my boy. I have a very good position and have made a good name for myself in my community where I am known as "Mrs. So and So."

A prominent, successful man has become my admirer and he wants to marry me. I know I will have to tell him the truth about myself, but what about other people? There might be curiosity and probing about my "former husband," his family, etc. Would I sign my marriage certificate "Mrs. So and So," although I am not in fact legally that person?

MRS. SO AND SO
DEAR MRS. SO AND SO: First, tell the man who wants to marry you about your past. If he loves you it won't matter, and he will spare you the legal red-tape.

DEAR ABBY: I am going to be married soon. I would like to have a doubling ceremony. The problem is that my future husband already wears a wedding ring on that very special finger. It was his mother's wedding ring. (She is now deceased.) He told me that he will never take that ring from his finger because she placed it there. Do you think this was fair to her? He says that he and I will be just as much married without his receiving a ring, too. Am I wrong in asking him to wear MY ring instead of his mother's? Or is he wrong in his attitude?—LITTLE BUT STRONG

DEAR "LITTLE": You are wrong. Let your fiancé wear his mother's ring.

DEAR ABBY: There is a mother in our town who has figured out a perfect formula for getting her daughter dates. The mother phones the Army base and asks the chaplain to send over two lonesome soldiers who have a free evening and no place to go. She gives the boys good meals, and even lets them use the family car. The daughter invites a girl friend over to entertain the other one. These girls could never get dates otherwise. We think this is a very cheap and trashy way to operate. What do you think?—NOT SO DUMB

DEAR NOT: I see nothing "cheap and trashy" about it. In fact, I think it's a very practical "formula."

Dinner Set By PTA Dads

Lincoln School PTA Dads will serve the annual spaghetti dinner Wednesday from 5:30 to 7:30 in the school cafeteria. Robert Malpass is chairman for the event, which is the PTA's only money-making project for the year.

The menu will include spaghetti, salad, rolls, ice cream and drinks, with a special price for children. The public is invited.

Party Line Guest from Honduras

A visitor in Eugene for several weeks is Mrs. Ford Young, who is a guest in the home of her husband's mother, Mrs. Cal Young. Mrs. Ford Young will remain here until her husband has made habitable their home in Belize, British Honduras.

The Youngs suffered heavy damage to their home and possessions in Hurricane Hattie last fall. Mrs. Young spent the recent holidays in Vermont with her father.

Special honors were awarded to Gayle Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Mitchell of Pleasant Hill, the past weekend when the Corvallis branch of the American Association of University Women named her one of 12 "AAUW Honor Women of 1962" on the Oregon State University campus.

Gayle, who is a senior in home economics at Oregon State and a member of Sigma Kappa sorority, was honored with 11 others at a breakfast given by AAUW Sunday at Azalea House.

She was named for her campus achievements in the field of art. The women honored were chosen from the six categories: arts, international relations, mass media, social economic issues (science), status of women (home economics), and education.

The AAUW breakfast is an annual event given for all senior women at Oregon State.

Stopping over for a brief visit with Eugene friends this week were Lt. and Mrs. R. E. (Jim and Sue) Abbott and their children Kenny, 3, and Becky, 16 months. They had been visiting his parents in eastern Oregon and were accompanied there by Sue's brother, Chuck Anibal, a freshman at University of California, majoring in pre-med.

Sue and Jim planned to visit in Palo Alto, Calif., her former home, with friends of her mother, the late Mrs. Fred Anibal. Jim will go to Germany, where he will be stationed, and Sue will remain in Palo Alto until March when she will fly to Europe to join him.

Members of Afternoon Gardeners surprised their co-chairman, Mrs. David Bodtker, with a farewell party the past Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Everett Eggleston. Mrs. Jerry Towne and Mrs. Thomas Blair were co-hostesses for the party.

The Bodtkers are moving to Medford on Monday, where Mr. Bodtker has been transferred by his company. The family includes Doug, 6, and Diane, 3. Mrs. Bodtker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Bryant of Eugene.

At the surprise party the honor guest was given a teapot from Mrs. Eggleston's collection, filled with dollar bills as a gift from the guests. Included in the afternoon refreshments were cookies made by Esther Eggleston from a favorite recipe. In fact the recipe is so favored that she has made these cookies every week in the 35 years she has been married, except during World War II days, when sugar and shortening were unavailable.

Neighbors of Mrs. Bodtker also entertained her at coffee as a "farewell" at the home of Mrs. Norman Bonser.

Add 1/4 cup cottage cheese to each pound of ground beef for a new hamburger flavor and additional moistness.
