By PAUL HARVEY III
Of the Register-Guard

An eight-game North Eugene winning streak goes on the line tonight at South Eugene. And it probably is the most serious test of the season thus far for North Eugene.

The Highlanders made it eight straight Friday night—and third in District 5-A-1 play—with a 59-43 triumph over Thurston.

It actually wasn't the most difficult win for the Highlanders. But the Colts, seemingly out of it in the first half, fought back into the thick of things in the third period.

Thurston got as close as eight points and it might have been closer if Bob Craven, a junior reserve, hadn't connected with a total of 20 points to pick up a sagging Highlander offense.

South Eugene goes into tonight's 8 o'clock game with North Eugene the underdog. But the Axemen have a victory over Medford which upset Klamath Falls earlier this month.

For a few minutes it looked as though North Eugene would turn the game into a rout. It was 7-0, four of the points by Bill Thomas, before the Colts could score. Thurston trailed the rest of the way.

OSU Downs Zags, 78-64

CORVALLIS (AP)—Oregon State's Beavers rallied to their tenth basketball victory of the season against one defeat Friday night, but it took an explosive scoring performance midway through the second half to pull out a 78-64 victory over Gonzaga.

Mel Counts, Terry Baker, Jay Carly and Steve Pauley combined their talents to produce a 12-point streak when the Beavers were behind 49-44, and thereafter Oregon State was never threatened.

Counts, the 7-foot sophomore, dumped two jump shots in that string and Baker added a couple of hooks.

Gonzaga led until that point, seven minutes into the second half. The Zags were sparked by Jack Gambee, whose brother Dave formerly starred for OSU. Gambee led Gonzaga to a 46-40 halftime advantage and collected 19 points for the game.

Carly led the scorers with 22. Baker collected 19 and Counts 17.

Both teams shot exceptionally well from the free throw line. Gonzaga sank 20 of 24 and Oregon State canned 24 of 29. Gambee had a perfect night from the foul line, nine for nine.

Huskies Surprise USC Five

SEATTLE (AP)—Washington's Huskies got a 37-point effort from big Bill Hanson Friday night and upset the fourth-ranked Southern California Trojans 55-67 in a Big Five conference basketball game.

The outcome was decided in a furious three minutes in the second half, just after John Rudometkin had pulled Southern California into a 42-42 tie with three consecutive lay-ins.

In the next three minutes the Huskies tallied 15, the Trojans six.

The normally smooth attack and pinpoint passing of Southern California was tipped off balance by the chest-to-chest checking of the eager Huskies. Forced into repeated errors, and Despite only one field goal in the first quarter, the Colts still found themselves back only 16-7 at the stop. The Highlanders maintained that nine-point spread much of the second quarter.

But, in the waning minutes of the first half, Craven—who already had scored four points—put in three field goals from outside as the Highlanders scored 10 points to two for the Colts.

That 34-17 halftime lead increased by two points at the start of the third quarter. Then the Colts began to trim the difference.

Six free throws and a lone field goal had the bulge down to 36-25. Twice in the late stages of the third quarter the difference was eight, the last at 40-32 heading into the final eight minutes.

Craven hit a pair of 15-foot jump shots in the early moments of the fourth quarter and the Highlanders were on their way. The biggest margin was 17 points.

Oddly enough it was free throws that brought Thurston back within striking distance. Free throws, which cost Thurston a possible upset of Roseburg a week ago, accounted for 19 of the Colts' points.

Tom Staten led the losers with 12 points. Center John Franz put in 11 for the Highlanders.

Two brothers with five arms between them? It looks that way but only four of them belong to Thurston players Tom Staten (43) and Jim Staten (51). The other one belongs to North Eugene's John Franz, not in picture. Even with the apparent advantage of an extra shooting arm, Thurston fell before the Highlanders 59-43 Friday night.

Frosh Five Loses, 71-65

PORTLAND—Ken Nanson's three consecutive field goals midway through the second half wiped out an Oregon Frosh lead and sent the University of Oregon Medical-Dental School on its way to a 71-65 win Friday night.

The Frosh jumped into an early lead and maintained it until the final seconds of the half when Nanson dropped in a field goal to put the Medics in front 32-31.

Former South Eugene High School stars Bob Blair and Don DuShane helped lead a Frosh rally that saw the Frosh build a five-point lead with ten minutes to go. But Nanson's streak put the Medics in front for keeps.

Idaho Rally Tops Webfoots By 72-64

MOSCOW, Ida. (AP)—Oregon's crippled Webfoots outscored Idaho 58-50 from the field, enjoyed a 10-point advantage in the first half and were in front by 13 in the second half, shot 483 from the field to Idaho's 439—but the Idaho Vandals defeated the Webfoots 72-64 here Friday night. Second game of the series is scheduled for tonight.

The victory was the 12th straight home triumph for the Vandals who last lost 68-66 to Oregon Jan. 6 of 1961.

Although the margin of victory was eight points, the Vandals collected seven in the final 21 seconds to assure the victory.

A missed free throw by Oregon's Charlie Warren, who had 26 points, would have put Oregon ahead by a single point with 43 seconds remaining—and the Vandals went on from there to break open the off-tied game.

Rich Porter, an outside gunner, paced a second-half rally after the Webfoots had taken a 34-29 halftime advantage and moved 13 points in front, 42-29. Wally Knecht, starting senior pivot man for Oregon, was on the bench but did not play because of an ankle injury suffered 10 days ago. Knecht also missed a recent series against Stanford.

Idaho seemed a sure loser but Porter, a junior guard from Kellogg, started hitting long-range jump shots to make a contest of it. Six Porter points highlighted a Vandal spurge that brought the score to 42-41.

Oregon regained a five-point lead but Porter clicked again for two baskets and Reg Carlson dumped a rebound as the Vandals finally edged ahead, 47-46.

It was close for a few more minutes but after a 58-all tie, Oregon fell slowly behind as three starters—John Mack, Tom Tuttle and Jim Johnson—fouled out and Idaho made the most of a steady parade to the free-throw line.

Oregon was called for 23 fouls while Idaho had only 13 infractions. Oregon could make only 6 of 16 free throws while Idaho was converting 22 of 32.

Porter, who scored 19 in the second half, wound up with 28 points. He connected on 10 straight free throws. Bill Simmons of Oregon finished with 19 points, scoring 15 in the first half.

NORTH BEND — South Eugene, with a 10-point burst, cracked open a close 5-A-1 basketball game and downed North Bend 56-45.

North Bend, trailing by seven at the start of the last stanza 42-35, pulled within three at 46-43 with four minutes remaining.

But the Axemen, mainly on free throws, scored eight straight points while holding the Bulldogs scoreless to wrap up the game.

South Eugene, which meets rival North Eugene tonight on the Axemen court, tallied 19 field goals in the game, 14 of the lay-in variety.

They finished the game with a 380 percentage on 19 field goals of 50 attempts.

The Bulldogs shot only 208 on 11 for 53, but stayed in the game with 23 out of 30 free throw attempts.

Part of South Eugene success was due to North Bend's inability to get the ball across the center line. The Bulldogs lost the ball 25 times in back court.
