Beatty Edges Jazy in Mile

LOS ANGELES (AP)—America's mile running star, Jim Beatty, edged out Michel Jazy of France in a bitter duel Saturday night in the feature race of the annual Los Angeles Invitational indoor track and field meet.

Climaxing an evening that witnessed the downfall of the nation's sprint queen, Wilma Rudolph Ward, the veteran Beatty overhauled the Frenchman in a rousing run in the final 1/4 yards of the mile in time of 4:04.8.

Jazy was clocked in the same time.

Beatty, America's outstanding runner at this distance, competing for the new Los Angeles Track Club, had to go all out with his famous final kick to defeat the flying Frenchman from Paris.

Leory Neal of Occidental set the early pace but Keith Forman of Oregon suddenly charged to the front with three laps to go as the crowd set up a roar.

Forman's lead didn't last long. Jazy, a curly-haired, good-looking young man who ran second to Herb Elliott in the 1960 Rome Olympics' 1,500 meters, moved into the lead with two laps to go.

Beatty moved up to his shoulder as they swept into the gun lap.

They were step for step for the remaining 25 yards but Beatty gradually got to the front by a matter of inches.

Forman finished third in 4:09.6.

The race had been billed as a two-man battle and it lived up to expectations.

Jazy, who does not speak English, was obviously disappointed but took the defeat in sportsmanship manner.

"Jazy ran a very smart race," Beatty said later. "I thought it would be to my advantage to get behind Jazy, but he never let up."

"I underestimated his speed, but his ability on the curve."

"He looked like a veteran on the boards."

This was Jazy's first experience on such a track.

"The first half was slower than we expected," Beatty continued. "We thought it would be about two minutes (it was 2:05)."

"I was luck to win. I won it, it was a close race and I'm pleased."

"I was surprised when Keith (Forman) passed me. I expected it to be Jazy."

Mrs. Ward was beaten by her teammate from Tennessee State, Jean Holmes, in the 60-yard dash.

Miss Holmes hit the tape in 7.0 flat and Wilma, after a poor start and a sluggish dash, managed to get second in 7.1, with Rosie Bonds of Riverside, Calif., third in 7.2. It was one of the rare defeats for 21-year-old Wilma, 1961 Sullivan award winner.

Favored Frank Budd of Villanova, world outdoor 100-yard dash record holder, won the 60-yard dash for men in 8.1.

Parry O'Brien, who holds the national indoor shotput record at 63 feet 1 1/2, won in 59-7 1/2. He came from behind to defeat Jay Silvester with 59-4.

In a race that had the crowd in an uproar, seasoned Jim Grelle of the Los Angeles Track Club held off a stirring stretch challenge by young Tom Sullivan, Villanova freshman, to win the 1,000-yard run in 2:10.7.

Sullivan was clocked in the same time. Grelle took the lead with two laps to go, with Sullivan trailing last. Sullivan made his bid on the final lap but couldn't quite collar the seasoned Grelle.

Archie San Romani, Oregon, was third in 2:11.6.

Veteran Hayes Jones of Detroit, opened the meet with a sparkling victory in the 60-yard high hurdles. Jones' time of 7.1 equalled the Sports Arena record which he established last year.

Steve Haas of Occidental registered a solid upset in winning the 500-yard run in 57.8 in a race that was billed as a duel between Rex Cawley of Southern California and Ullis Williams, Arizona State freshman.

Ralph Boston wound up the meet with an expected win in the broad jump. The world outdoor and indoor record holder settled for 24 feet, 11 inches.

Hip Play

Washington State's 6-foot-7 rebounding ace Charlie Sells grabs a loose ball under the basket in the first half of Saturday night's Oregon-WSU basketball game at McArthur Court. Charlie Warren of the Ducks tried futilely to grab the loose ball, but all he got was a piece of Sells' hip. The Ducks won the game, 81-71.

Wil-Hi Stops Springfield

By LLOYD E. MILLEGAN

Hitting from the field at a .533 clip, the Willamette Wolverines rolled to their highest point total of the season Saturday night, downing the Springfield Millers 62-56.

Senior forward Ron Boyles paced the Wolverines with 20 points as four of the victors were in double figures.

Dieter Henry was high scorer for the Millers with 17.

It was a fourth period stall that paid a victory dividend for the host Wolverines.

Taking a 10 point lead into the fourth period the Millers saw their lead wickly dwindle to six on a free throw by Floyd McCutcheon and three point play by Henry.

Then coach Les Wright's Wolverines, with 6:42 remaining, went into their stall.

Three straight Springfield fouls followed with the one and one in effect, but the Wolverines could only connect for two points, raising their margin to eight.

Then Henry hit again from underneath and 6-3 forward Ron Willoughby followed from 20 feet out to cut the Willamette lead to four.

But that was the closest the Millers came.

For Palouse Sweep Oregon State Five Edges Idaho, 71-68

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP)—Oregon State scored an unprecedented sweep of the Palouse country Saturday night by thumping Idaho, 71-68. It was the first time in history that a Beaver team has won four road games in one season from Idaho and neighboring Washington State.

Oregon State, an easy winner Friday, had to work for its 12th straight victory and 13th in 14 half and held the upper hand for six minutes in the second half.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP)—A Japanese swimming team on a tour of New Zealand bettered the world's record in the men's 440-yard medley relay event Saturday night with a time of 4 minutes 11.9 seconds.

The clocking was 1.9 seconds better than the previous mark set at Sydney three weeks ago.

Idaho's Chuck White, ejected from the game Friday, was the best player on the floor, scoring 31 points. Steve Pauly and Mel Counts had 15 apiece for Oregon and Jay Carty added 14.

Oregon Hoopers Trip WSU, 81-71

By DICK STRIFE

Register-Guard Sports Editor

Oregon's offensive rebounding — making the second shot good — was the main forte for coach Steve Belko's Oregon Webfoots in an 81-71 basketball victory over Washington State at McArthur Court Saturday night.

A crowd of 3,548 watched the Webfoots come from behind repeatedly, but unlike Oregon's 91-81 overtime triumph Friday night, the Webfoots held command through most of the high-scoring skirmish. The victory was Oregon's fifth in the last seven meetings with the WSU Cougars.

Charlie Warren, although ejected by referee Frank Fidler with 2:24 showing on the clock, collected 29 points to come within 59 points of a new Oregon career scoring record.

The "junk" shooter now has a total of 1,034 points with 12 games remaining. The record is 1,092 for Charlie Franklin.

Coach Marv Harshman's veteran Cougars, paced by Terry Ball's 23-point performance riddled Oregon's defense frequently with a devastating fast-break offense.

Washington State was ahead by six points before taking a 40-38 halftime break.

After Oregon rolled to a 8-0 lead in the opening three minutes, Washington State battled back for a 10-10 tie and the lead see-sawed throughout the remainder of the half. Ball kept the WSU Cougars in the ball game with seven field goals and 16 points.

The Cougar advantage would have been greater, but Charlie Sells missed six straight free throws.

Warren's fantastic performance, including 19 rebounds, should have been lessened by his disqualification. After Warren had made his 11th field goal, WSU's Ernie Woods fell to the floor with him. Fidler explained that it appeared as though Warren was not making an effort to untangle, "and there was nothing else I could do," the Seattle whistle-blower explained.

Sharing outstanding performance with Warren was the ball-hawking and tenacious play of Johnny Mack who was faced with the difficult—and almost impossible—task of effectively checking Ball. By the same token, WSU's Charlie Sells, who fouled out with 4:27 showing on the clock, also did a creditable job checking Warren.

After Oregon sent the game into a deadlock following WSU's halftime advantage, the Webfoots moved in front by eight points. But Oregon lost the lead and didn't regain it again until the last eight minutes on a shot by sophomore Jerry Anderson.

The score was tied again at 63-63, the 11th time, with 6:31 remaining, but Warren's free throw made it 64-63 for Oregon. The Webfoots never relinquished the advantage from then on.

The game was much closer than the final score indicated. With 1:25 remaining, Dwight Damon hit from the side to close the margin to 75-71. But Wally Knecht hit one of two free throws and then Anderson, who added 15 points to his 24 Friday night, made two free throws and the issue had been decided.

Washington State out-shot Oregon from the field by 420 to 382, but Oregon commanded the rebounds and had fewer errors.

South Eugene knocked Marshfield from the ranks of the unbeaten Saturday night with a 67-57 victory over the state's fourth ranked prep basketball team.

The Axemen did it with aggressive play, a high-flying first half offensive show and a 29-point effort by forward Jim Lockard—19 of Lockard's points on free throws.

The loss knocked Marshfield from a first place deadlock in the District 5-A-1 race and left idle North Eugene and Roseburg tied with four straight league wins.

Not until the third quarter did Marshfield wake up. And, for a few minutes, it looked as though the Pirates—who had won 10 straight — might fight back and pull the game out.

But South Eugene, ahead by 21 points at halftime, let that difference get no closer than 10 points. Free throws, 10 of them in the final eight minutes, kept the Axemen out of reach.

Lockard, who got only five field goals in his 29-point performance, had a perfect night at the free throw line, connecting on 19 in a row. He actually missed two but foul line violations each time gave Lockard another try.

When Marshfield did get rolling in the third quarter, it was guard Gary Crabaugh who sparked the drive with the help of Jim Elliott.

Crabaugh, the top scorer in District 5-A-1, collected nine of his 17 points in that quarter while Elliott was getting 10 of his 15 points. But each cooled off in the fourth period.

Then it was Stan Tr
