

State Senate Safe for Demos; House Nip-and-Tuck

By PAUL W. HARVEY JR.
Of the Associated Press
SALEM (AP)—The Democrats are almost certain to retain control of the Senate in the 1963 legislature. But it's a nip-and-tuck affair as to which party will rule the House.

There are strong indications, on the basis of the list of filings, that the 1963 legislature will be experienced. In the 60-member House, 24 Democrats and 21 Republicans are seeking re-election. Seven former members are trying for comebacks. In the 30-member Senate, there are 14 holdover members—12 Democrats and two Republicans. Four Democrats are seeking re-election.

Because of reapportionment, there are three contests in which a pair of legislators are running for a single seat.

Sen. Walter Leth, R-Salem, is running against Sen. Francis W. Ziegler, R-Corvallis. Rep. Kessler R. Cannon, R-Bend, opposes Rep. Ben Evick D-Madras. Rep. Robert F. Smith, R-Burns, opposes Rep. Emil A. Stunz, D-Nyssa. The Democrats controlled the 1961 Senate 20 to 10.

With their 12 holdover members, they are odds-on favorites to keep control.

In the House, the Democrats have a squeaky 31-29 margin. It's anybody's guess as to which party will come out on top in November.

Rep. F. F. Montgomery, Eugene, House Republican leader, said the two crucial counties are Lane and Clackamas. The party that takes those probably will control the House, he thinks.

The legislature will lose some of its key members.

Sens. Carl Francis, R-Dayton, the dean of the legislature, and Loyd M. Key, D-Milton-Freewater, are victims of reapportionment.

Sen. Robert W. Straub, D-Eugene, is quitting to run for Congress. Sen. William A. Grenfell, D-Portland, is going for Multnomah County commissioner.

Sen. Robert F. White, R-Salem, died soon after the 1961 session, and Sen. Monroe Sweetland, D-Milwaukie, isn't running for anything.

Two holdover senators are running for higher office. They are Sen. Thomas R. Mahoney, D-Portland, for circuit judge, and Sen. Walter J.

Pearson, D-Portland, for governor. If they lose, they'll still be senators.

In the House, 15 members didn't seek re-election. But 10 of them are running for other offices.

The five who aren't running for anything are Reps. Leon S. Davis, R-Hillsboro; George Layman, R-Newberg; Doug Heider, R-Salem; Raphael R. Raymond, R-Helix; and George Annala, D-Hood River.

House Speaker Robert B. Duncan, D-Medford, and Rep. Carl Fisher, R-Eugene, are running for Congress.

Candidates for the Senate are Reps. Arthur P. Ireland, R-Forest Grove; R. L. Elfstrom, R-Salem; Tom Monaghan, D-Milwaukie, and Ed Fadeley, D-Eugene.

Reps. Mel Gordon, R-Portland, and Ed Benedict, D-Portland, are candidates for Multnomah County commissioner.

Rep. Bill Bradley, D-Gresham, is running for sheriff; and Rep. George Van Hoomissen, D-Portland, is going for district attorney.

Ten persons, all members of the House before the 1961 session, are trying for comebacks.

Three of them are Democrats for the Senate. They are Glen Stadler, Eugene; and Harold B. Christopher and Don S. Willner, both Portland.

These ex-House members are trying for the House again—John D. Mosser, Portland; Shirley Field, Fred Meek, J. E. Bennett and Berkeley Lent, all of Portland; G. Russell Morgan, Hillsboro; and Fred D. Jeannot, Milwaukie. Lent and Jeannot are the two Democrats in this group.

A spirited contest for speaker of the House is shaping up, with six men interested.

Democratic possibilities for speaker include Reps. Clarence Barton, Coquille; Richard Eymann, Mohawk in Lane County; and W. H. Holmstrom, Astoria.

Republicans who have announced for speaker are Montgomery; and Reps. Winston Hunt, Woodburn, and Ken Maher, Portland.
