

Asks Funds

The Very Rev. John J. Weaver, left, dean of the Episcopal Cathedral of St. Paul in Detroit, has appealed to his congregation for funds to finance training of Catholic priests for missionary work in the Congo. Donations are being passed along to Father Francis B. Stocker, right, of the Holy Ghost Fathers Junior Seminary near Ann Arbor, Mich., where missionaries are trained.

UO Religious Group Sets Talent Show

Christian House's version of "Century 21" will be presented Friday at First Christian Church, Eugene. This will be the annual talent show of the campus religious organization, held to raise money for summer service project participants and to help delegates attend the national Study Conference of the United Campus Christian Fellowship.

Two Groups Pick Officers

Two groups of the Women's Christian Fellowship — First Christian Church in Eugene and Springfield Christian — have elected new officers.

New president of the Eugene organization is Mrs. Wesley Haines, who will be installed in the office at the church's mother-daughter banquet May 8 at the church.

Retiring president in Eugene is Mrs. Gilbert Cross.

Other new officers for the Eugene group include Mrs. Carl Wulf, first vice president; Mrs. Ralph Schultz and Mrs. Robert Fort, second vice-presidents; Mrs. Cross, worship; Mrs. Dale Lindsey, recording secretary; Mrs. Oscar Turton; corresponding secretary, and Mrs. John Miller, treasurer.

In Springfield, Mrs. William Cox was elected president. Serving with her will be Mrs. Gene Davis, first vice president; Mrs. Roland Moshier, second vice president; Mrs. H. E. Bailey, secretary; Mrs. Lloyd McQuin, treasurer; Hattie Mitchell, study; Mrs. Bill Nothwang, worship; Mrs. Clyde Kriger, service, and Mrs. Bill Holly, membership. Mrs. Nothwang is retiring president.

Hartzell Cobbs is talent show chairman.

Newly-elected officers of Christian House are Sharon Hildenbrand, president; David Farr and Larry Bruton, vice presidents; Vicki Fedor and Pat Lowry, secretaries; Linda McLarrin, treasurer; and Myrna Lay, editor.

At the recent regional conference of the new United Campus Christian Fellowship, Don David of Christian House was elected president, and Miss Hildenbrand, member-at-large, Nancy Edling, also of Christian House, was elected editor.

These three students are planning to attend the national study conference, scheduled for students of the Christian, Presbyterian, Congregational and Evangelical United Brethren churches in Beloit, Wis., Aug. 25-30.

Interim Minister Conducts Services

An interim minister, the Rev. Gordon Giffin of California, will arrive in Eugene this weekend to conduct Easter services at River Road Baptist Church, 1105 River Rd., Eugene.

The Rev. Giffin, who was originally from Oregon and was ordained at First Baptist Church in Eugene, is now retired. He is a former resident of Springfield, and also held a pastorate at Lakeview.

He will conduct Easter worship at the church Sunday at 11 a.m., and also will conduct an evening service at 7 featuring choir music.

Evangelist to Conduct Series of Meetings

TOLEDO—Evangelist Lester H. Sheets of Los Angeles will be in Toledo this coming week to conduct a series of special meetings at the Assembly of God church.

Meetings will be held nightly, except Monday and Saturday, at 7:30. Topics will include "Will Christ Come in '82?"; "Will We Know One Another in Heaven?" and "Hen-pecked Husbands."

2nd Public Bible Lecture Scheduled

"Basis for Belief in God," the second in a series of special public Bible lectures, will be presented Sunday at 7 p.m. at Kingdom Hall of the Eugene congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, 95 N. Washington St.

K. D. Rogers, a representative of the congregation, will present the lecture. Following the talk, the congregation will hold their weekly Bible study, using the Watchtower magazine, official journal of Jehovah's Witnesses, as a study aid.

'Road to Calvary' Planned For 3 Easter Presentations

Eugene's First Assembly of God has scheduled "Road to Calvary" as its annual Easter dramatic presentation.

"Road to Calvary," which features a cast of 90, will be presented at the church, 1330 Madison St., Eugene, at three times—6:30, 9 and 11 a.m.—Sunday.

The presentation includes eight scenes: the Last Supper, the Garden of Gethsemane, a courtroom scene, Peter's denial of Christ, another courtroom scene, the Crucifixion and the Ascension.

Sound Effects

Each scene will be presented with a background of organ music and sound effects, including storm sounds. The church's 45-voice Sanctuary Choir will sing between the scenes.

This year's presentation, which lasts for 45 minutes, was written and adapted for the stage by the Rev. Bob Paggett, assistant pastor of the church.

Society of Christian Service

Group's Top Offices Go to Local Women

Emerald Empire residents came home from the annual meeting of the Eugene district of the Woman's Society of Christian Service at Klamath Falls with the majority of the top offices.

At the meeting, Mrs. Steven Romane, a member of Ebbert Memorial Methodist Church in Springfield, was elected district president. She will lead activities for the district, which includes 39 societies with a membership of 2,707 women, for a year, and will represent the district at the national assembly in Atlantic City, N. J., May 15 to 18.

Other district officers include Mrs. Kenneth Kienzle, First Church in Eugene, vice president; Mrs. George Blinkhorn, Trinity Methodist of Eugene, recording secretary; Mrs. J. A. Morgan of Wesley Methodist, secretary of supply; Mrs. Glenn Reymers, Trinity Methodist, secretary of children's work; Mrs. Eldon Lee of Yoncalla Methodist, secretary of literature and publications; Mrs. Orval Pontius, Yoncalla Methodist, secretary of promotion, and Mrs. Fred Andrews, First Church of Eugene, secretary of student work.

THE REV. W. D. Wellman of the Eugene Church of the Nazarene has an added impetus these days in his drive to increase Sunday school attendance—a contest with Tillamook Church of the Nazarene. The pastor and Sunday school superintendent of the church losing the contest, which closes Sunday, will have to take their counterparts to dinner. So far, it's a close race—both churches have been averaging 300 to 320 each week.

HOUSING, world trade and United Nations' bonds will be the "Three Key Issues" of Tuesday's Woman's Society of Christian Service meeting at First Methodist Church, Eugene. The meeting will open at 10:30 a.m., with Mrs. E. E. Cone of Eugene leading devotions. A panel discussion on the theme, featuring panelists Mrs. R. L. Bentsen, Mrs. Tom Frost, Mrs. Kenneth Hixson and Mrs. Wayne Stauffer, is scheduled for the afternoon. A noon luncheon is planned, and the Service Singers will give a program.

THE APOSTLE PETER tells the story of Jesus, His ministry and His suffering in the film "The Power of the Resurrection," which will be shown Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the weekly Youth for Christ rally. The rally will be held at the Church of the Open Bible, 3185 Hilyard St., Eugene, and is open to the public.

MARGARET HUNTINGTON of Vida, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben C. Huntington, is scheduled to participate in a week-long program of church-college discussions concerning Christian higher education in Oregon Presbyterian churches. She is a senior at Lewis and Clark College, Portland.

COTTAGE GROVE — Mrs. Duane Hoyt of Cottage Grove, a member of Trinity Lutheran Church here, will represent her church as a delegate to the Oregon District convention of the Woman's Missionary League in Albany, Wednesday and Thursday.

TEMPLE BETH Israel in Eugene has scheduled a Jiskor service for the Passover Season Thursday at 8 p.m.

"RELIGION AND REASON" will be Sunday's topic for the weekly meeting of the Eugene Baha'i community. The meeting is scheduled for 4 p.m. at Friendly House, 2445 Kincaid St., Eugene, with a panel of students from the University of Oregon discussing the topic. The public is welcome.

Two Sisters To Tell of Work in India

Two Missionaries to Speak To Lutheran Church Women

Two sisters from Kendrick, Idaho, both of whom are missionaries to India, will be featured speakers at the spring convention of American Lutheran Church Women of the Willamette Conference.

The convention is scheduled for Central Lutheran Church, Eugene, April 28. Delegates and visitors from 25 churches in the conference are expected to attend.

A talk—illustrated with slides—by the Meyer sisters is scheduled for the convention's morning session, beginning at 9:30 a.m. The Junior Choirs of Eugene and Springfield under the direction of Marion Frye will provide special music.

Mrs. O. M. Munson of Portland will give an inspirational message and install new officers at the afternoon session. Women from Trinity Lutheran Church in Dallas will provide the music. Also on the program will be Marlys Sorenson of Springfield, who recently returned from a term as a teacher in the New Guinea mission field.

Both of the Meyer sisters are graduates of Pacific Lutheran University, Parkland, Wash., Dorothy in 1949 and Hermina in 1954.

Dorothy Meyer has been managing the Christ Hostel for Christian students attending Sri Venkateswara University in Tirupati, Andhra State. She was also advisor to American Lutheran Church Women in the area.

Her sister, Hermina, is a medical technologist, working with the Catherine Lehman Luther Hospital at Reningunta, a village of 8,000 persons about seven miles from Tiraputi. She is in charge of the hospital's laboratory and is director of a school for technologists.

Eugene-Area Women to Go To Sessions

Two Eugene-area women have been named as delegates to the Oregon District Convention of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League. The convention is scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Albany.

Mrs. Edwin Sullivan of Grace Lutheran Church and Mrs. Jack Bahrke of Messiah Lutheran Church will be the Eugene delegates.

"Life With My Lord" is the theme for the meeting. The Missionary League is an auxiliary organization of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, with 71 affiliated societies in Oregon with a membership of 2,211 women.

Other Emerald Empire residents participating in the convention program will be the Rev. Lawrence Rohlfing, pastor of Messiah; Mrs. Alwin Moore of Eugene, district first vice president, and Mrs. Oscar Krundick, editor-in-chief of the Oregon Leaguer, quarterly publication of the Oregon district.
