

Demo Women Fete Maurine Neuberger

SENATOR NEUBERGER Honor Guest

Senator Maurine Neuberger will be honored by Democratic Women of Lane County with a tea Wednesday from 3 to 5:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Bower Aly, 1138 E. 22nd Ave. Anyone who wishes to meet Senator Neuberger and hear her talk informally on legislation of particular interest to her is welcome.

Mrs. Neuberger, widow of the late Senator Richard Neuberger, was elected to the United States Senate in 1960 shortly after the death of her husband. Her public interest in consumer legislation dates back to the years she served in the Oregon House of Representatives so she promises to have very topical comments on President Kennedy's recent proposals for consumer protection.

Mrs. Hans Linde will be in charge of the dining room for the tea. Pouring will be the president of the Democratic Women, Mrs. Veola Willmot, and Mrs. Arthur Flemming, Mrs. Marshall Wattles, Mrs. Marvin Warlick, Mrs. Edwin Beal, Mrs. Paul Hoffman, Mrs. George Balsiger and Mrs. Keith Skelton. Mrs. William F. Frye and Mrs. David Herrick will be in charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Lloyd C. Thomas and Mrs. W. B. Hilton are co-chairmen for decorations; Mrs. Sanford Kenney, refreshments; Mrs. Edward N. Fadeley, publicity.

Zonta Dates Installation

The 25th anniversary of Zonta International Club of Eugene will be celebrated Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. at Ford's Dinner House. Mrs. Ray McGaffey will be installed as president of the group for the coming fiscal year. Other officers to be installed include Mrs. Leo Koons, vice-president; Mrs. Clifford Smith, secretary; Mrs. Ray Lieb, treasurer. Elected to the board of directors are Mrs. Arthur Watters, Mrs. J. Alan Wickham, Mrs. Dorothy Moore and Mrs. Clarence Elliott.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Gustav (Catherine) Lauris, president of the Eugene City Council, who will present "The Challenge of Women's Service Clubs." Special guests will include all former members and charter members of the club; the Zonta Scholarship winner, Miss Gloria Jean Darrold; Zonta's Girls State representative, Miss Peggy Price; the president of Highland House, Miss Sharon Sloane, and Mrs. Grace Marquam, house mother at Highland House.

Canned fruit cocktail makes these "Rainbow Muffins" unusually good. Serve them for Easter morning breakfast with eggs, segments of citrus fruit and your favorite beverage.

Easter Morning

Easter Breakfast

Set off breakfast with fragrant, tender fruit-filled muffins. Serve them with eggs fixed your favorite way, tangy segments of citrus fruit and plenty of hot coffee or tea. It's the easiest-ever breakfast to get together—a great help come busy Easter Sunday morning.

"Rainbow Muffins" are made from ginger-flavored biscuit mix with a generous measure of canned fruit cocktail folded into the batter. Ginger-sugar is sprinkled over the top before baking so each muffin comes from the oven with a sparkling crust and gay bits of fruit peeking through.

The five fresh-tasting fruits combined in canned fruit cocktail make these muffins unusually good. It's a recipe you'll be using often during the year to make breakfasts and lunches more interesting.

'Dear Abby'

—Abigail Van Buren—

DEAR ABBY: My boy friend told me he loved me and wanted to marry me. He said his wife was older than he was and he never loved her. He moved to Dallas and paid my way there so I could be near him while he waited for his divorce.

That was a year ago. Now I find out that two other women beside myself followed him there. One is a brunette about 24. And the other is a gray-headed woman in her fifties who even divorced her husband and brought her grown daughter along!

All this time he has been feeding us all the same line. His wife is not older than he is. She's a nice-looking blonde woman. Should I tell the other woman he has made fools of us? (I feel kind of sorry for the old one.) I hate to hurt his wife by telling her, but I think she ought to know what a rat she married. I am going back home, but why should that liar get away with anything?

FOOLED
DEAR FOOLED: Tell the others. They'll get over the disappointment when they learn they've been part of a harem. And his wife should know, too. He's had his three strikes.

DEAR ABBY: My heart doesn't yearn for wall-to-wall carpeting and fancy clothes, but oh, Abby, how I would love to have my husband bring some some foolish little gift on some unspical day. He's not a thoughtless guy, but when you have to "hint" it's no fun. He's a grand guy and a wonderful husband, and if he'd only do this little thing to let me know I am as special to him as he is to me, I'd be the happiest woman in the world.

SWEET SUE
It's usually best to thaw a frozen duck before cooking it. But be sure to cook it shortly after it is thawed.

Party Line

Hawns to Spend Summer in Europe

On their way for a two-and-a-half month tour of Europe are Mr. and Mrs. A. L. (Vern) Hawn of Eugene, who will travel with three couples who are long-time friends in Lions Club, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Chrisman of Enterprise, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Synder of West Linn, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jeub of Coquille.

The group left Thursday morning by jet and arrived in London. They will go on to Paris where they will rent a bus with driver for a leisurely tour that will take them south to Spain, along the Mediterranean to Rome, up to Germany and back to Nice for the Lions International Convention June 17-23. They will return to Eugene the latter part of June.

While on their tour the travelers will be entertained by Lions Clubs in Vienna, Paris, Nice, Florence, Rome, Carca-sonne, France, and in Luxembourg.

An international gathering at the home of Miss Thelma Schaefer, on Tandy Turn, celebrated the birthday of Miss Alicia Barrios of Montevideo, Uruguay. The honor guest is doing graduate study at University of Oregon on a fellowship grant from Quota Club International.

The party, a surprise to Alicia, was arranged by Miss Karin Zollikofer of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, scholarship student sponsored by the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, with Miss Schaefer's assistance. The birthday cake was made and decorated by Mrs. W. E. Purdy.

The young people brought their own dance records, and spent the evening dancing. Guests included Miss Jane Hull and Miss Louise Keeda of Eugene; Hannu Savola from Finland; F. Xavier Houzel from France; Ernst Huber from Switzerland and Jose Aceves from Mexico.

refreshments and other party details.
