

Jaycees To Install Seat Belts

Clinic Scheduled This Weekend

A seat belt installation clinic will be carried out this coming weekend by the Eugene Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Motorists may have front seat belts installed at the rate of $6 per belt (or $12 for both front seat belts). The price includes the cost of quality-made seat belts and all installation charges.

The clinic will be conducted Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday, at the school bus parking lot, south of 19th and Pearl, near the Civic Stadium.

Hours will be 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. standard, 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. daylight Friday; 6 a.m. until 6 p.m. standard, 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. daylight Saturday; and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. standard, 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. daylight Sunday.

Dale Allore, general chairman, said the Jaycees installed over 800 sets of seat belts in a similar clinic last year. He said they hope to install up to 1,500 or 2,000 sets this weekend. Jaycee members have signed up for some 900 man hours of work.

Statistics show motorists are about five times safer in event of an accident, if they are able to avoid being thrown from the car, Allore noted.

To call attention to the clinic, the Jaycees have placed exhibits of wrecked autos at five different locations in the city.

While installing the seat belts, the Jaycees will also make a safety check of each auto, in cooperation with the Mayor's Traffic Safety Committee. Cars which pass the test on all safety points will be identified with a safety check sticker.

H. E. Young Funeral Rites Set Tuesday

Funeral services will be Tuesday for Harvie E. Young, 68, a lifelong Oregonian and a resident of Eugene for the past 12 years. He lived at 966 Jackson St.

He died Saturday at Sacred Heart Hospital after a lengthy period of ill health.

Born May 31, 1893, in Morrow County, he was the son of early-day settlers from Missouri. He operated a wheat ranch in eastern Oregon during his younger years, was custodian for the Medford school system for a number of years, and had operated a parking lot in Eugene since he moved here in 1950.

Surviving are his wife, Gertrude; three children, Mary Louise, 16, of Eugene, Sybil Jean Logan, San Leandro, Calif., and Robert E. Young, of Oswego; and two sisters, Fay George of Portland, and Mrs. Clive Huston of Hepner.

Funeral services will be at 9:30 a.m. standard, 10:30 a.m. daylight at the Simon Leunsbury Mortuary. The Rev. Steen Whiteside, of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, will officiate. Interment will be at Rest Haven Cemetery.

ITU Local 496 Elects Officers

J. L. Strub Jr. was elected president of Eugene local 496 International Typographical Union Sunday.

Other officers chosen during elections at the Eugene Labor Temple were S. A. McDonald, vice president; W. D. Parsons, secretary-treasurer; O. E. Hawes and C. L. Dobes, executive committee; W. W. Malkowski, auditing committee; Ron Hill, Ralph Moore and G. K. Stiggins, elections committee; A. D. Wittenborn, sergeant-at-arms; and H. R. Fuller, recording secretary. The new officers will be installed at the local's June meeting.

Flemming Stand Praised

Communist leader Gus Hall's appearance at the University of Oregon last February was proof that members of an academic community have the right to listen to anyone they choose.

This statement was made Saturday by Roy E. Lieuallen, chancellor of the Oregon State System of Higher Education. Lieuallen spoke at a meeting of the University of Oregon chapter of the American Assn. of University Professors (AAUP). The banquet was in honor of Arthur S. Flemming, president of the university, who recently received the national Meiklejohn award from the AAUP, for "conspicuous service to the cause of academic freedom." Flemming was recognized for his decision to permit Hall to speak at the University of Oregon.

Commenting on Flemming's decision, Chancellor Lieuallen said, "His entire professional life has followed the pattern of the action he took a few weeks ago."

Tank Work in Wales

LONDON (AP)—The War Office announced Saturday 2,310 West German troops will train this summer at the Castlemartin tank range in Wales.

The principle involved, Lieuallen said, was not freedom of speech for Hall, since the university had no obligation to furnish him a platform.

But Flemming's action showed, Lieuallen continued, that "any group or segment of the university community has the right to listen to Gus Hall or anyone else they choose."

The national AAUP citation stated that Flemming, "in the face of intense political and community pressures, stood firm on the principle that students should be free to listen to any speaker they choose, however despicable his political principles may be."

U.S. Visit Scheduled

LUXEMBOURG CITY Luxembourg (AP) — Grand Duchess Charlotte, the ruler of this tiny duchy, will visit the United States this fall at President Kennedy's invitation, according to a court announcement here.
